date translations by award winning translators Living In-between: The Search for Identity in Leslie Marmon Silko's Ceremony Ariane Peters, 2007-09 Seminar paper from the year 2003 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 1.3 A Ernst Moritz Arndt University of Greifswald Institute for Anglistics American Studies language English abstract Although Leslie Marmon Silko's complete works have received exemplary reviews Ceremony seems to be the most talked about and recognized for its literary achievement One reason for this large attention is the strange narrative form due to the combination of the Indian storytelling myth poetry and a plot that takes place in a modern western environment Another reason for the remarkable success of this novel is Silko's way to show the negative repercussions on Native Americans caused by racism alcoholism dislocation poverty as well as the industrial exploitation of the land In this paper I will discuss one of the principal themes presented in Leslie Silko's Ceremony the issue of Native American identity In the first part I will briefly introduce the characters of Tayo and Rocky two Native Americans who grew up on a reservation for the Laguna Pueblo in New Mexico After that I will examine the similarities between these two young men who both take part in the Second World War and make horrible experiences In the main part of this paper I will try to find out the differences between Tayo and Rocky in order to explain their different ways of searching their own identity Furthermore I will explore the sources of Tayo's selfdestructive behaviour and his problem of alienation Therefore I will have to ponder on the following questions How does the white culture influence these characters Do both men suffer from the loss of Indian self esteem What are the effects of internalized racism and colonization on the health of Tayo Why is Tayo able to return to the community to lead a stable and productive life In the final comment there will be a concluding assessment and a summary of the theme Leslie Marmon Silko David L. Moore, 2016-09-22 A major American writer at the turn of this millennium Leslie Marmon Silko has also been one of the most powerful voices in the flowering of Native American literature since the publication of her 1977 novel Ceremony This guide with chapters written by leading scholars of Native American literature explores Silko's major novels Ceremony Almanac of the Dead and Gardens in the Dunes as an entryway into the full body of her work that includes poetry essays short fiction film photography and other visual art These chapters map Silko's place in the broad context of American literary history Further they trace her pivotal role in prompting other Indigenous writers to enter the conversations she helped to launch Along the way the book engages her historical themes of land ethnicity race gender trauma and healing while examining her narrative craft and her mythic lyricism Caught between two worlds. Identity in Leslie Marmon Silko's "Ceremony" Daniel Schroeder, 2014-11-24 Seminar paper from the year 2012 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 3.0 University of Rostock Institut für Anglistik Amerikanistik course Worldly and Imaginary Spaces in American Transcultural Literature language English abstract In our life everybody asks himself Who am I The answers to that question generate everyone's self perception which will be always part of one's identity The latter is one of the major themes appealing in Leslie Marmon Silko's Ceremony and this seminar paper will focus on the two characters Tayo and Rocky They show the problems occurring for persons that are caught between two worlds Tayo feels ashamed of himself because of his white ancestry His cousin Rocky on the other hand is a full blood Indian but does everything to be a part of the white world Both are somehow caught in the middle because of living in between The first part of the paper will focus on demonstrating the development of these two major characters in Ceremony It is an important section because in essence the individual s actions and character define his identity Jenlink Townes 2009 127 Therefore to analyze Tayo s and Rocky s identity or search for it one has to examine their life career and relations with other persons because a person s identity is also influenced by others recognition of that identity Jenlink Townes 2009 127 This seminar paper will also focus on the similarities and distinctions between the two mentioned characters and the topic identity including the associated term hybridity for example The reasons for the accurate analysis of Tayo s and Rocky s characteristics by comparison are their different philosophy of life and searching for identity Living in a reservation unfolds a unique way of life which differs from the lifestyle of the White s Therefore it creates further hurdles for Tayo and Rocky but this search for identity is a social as well as an individual problem The kind of answers one gives to the question Who am I depends in part upon how one answers the question What is this society and this world in which we live Lynn 1999 14 One has to be able to define his position in the world This is why this topic also represents a problem of today s people There are still humans that are caught between two worlds because they are of mixed descend and were unsuccessful in the search for the sense of belonging The reasons are sometimes the same like 50 years ago

Storytelling in Leslie Marmon Silko's Ceremony Berenice Walther, 2007-01-30 Seminar paper from the year 2006 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 1.7 University of Münster Englishes Seminar course Contemporary American and Canadian Fiction language English abstract Oral storytelling is a tradition inherent to all cultures By definition its genre is determined by its original oral transmission many of the world s greatest literary classics such as El Cid La Chanson de Roland Beowulf or the Odyssey were originally orally transmitted In most cases the author is unknown and the story has undergone many modifications in the course of the telling processes still they are today s primary testimonies for language history culture and people of the past In this paper a definition of oral storytelling will be provided along with an introduction in order to define the subject matter as well as the significance of putting oral storytelling into writing as Silko did in Ceremony Leslie Marmon Silko was brought up in the Laguna Pueblo community in New Mexico a Native American tribe where storytelling plays an important cultural role For Silko the process of writing her novel Ceremony was not only a way of staying sane as she states herself but also to identify with her Native American origins In this novel she points out the opposition between the Native stories about reciprocity with nature and Euro American stories of dominion This confrontation is a conflict of two paradigms reflecting the protagonist s Tayo s inner state of mind he has to reconstruct stories to reestablish an agreement with both cultures for himself The main focus will therefore be on the forms and functions of storytelling in the novel itself Hereby crucial aspects revolving around the cultural differences between Native American and Euro American culture the clash of cultures and both sides impact on the individual will be in the center of discussion The conclusion summarizes the paper s assessment of the results attained

Tradition and Renewal in Leslie Marmon Silko's "Ceremony" Timo Dersch,2011-02 Essay from the year 2011 in the subject English Literature Works grade 1 5 University of Stuttgart language English abstract Leslie Mormon Silko a Native American writer grew up at the edge of the Laguna Pueblo Reservation New Mexico USA Because of her mixed origins and for the fact that she was not living directly in the reservation and thereby in the pueblo society she was not allowed to attend several rituals Silko s roots are Native American Anglo American and Mexican American but she was raised and educated by her grandmother and aunts with the traditional Laguna stories This led to a strong identification of her with the native part of her ancestry and to her writing which always deals with Native American topics Her writing includes autobiographical parts and lots of relations to tradition which only a member of this particular native tribe could describe as precisely as she does In Ceremony her highly regarded 1977 novel these traditional relations seem to play an important role The following essay will show how the importance of tradition for the Native American communities is expressed in the novel and how it is responsible for the healing of the main protagonists illness

The Sacred Hoop Paula Gunn Allen, 2015-03-03 Almost thirty years after its initial publication Paula Gunn Allen's celebrated study of women's roles in Native American culture history and traditions continues to influence writers and scholars in Native American studies women's studies queer studies religion and spirituality and beyond This groundbreaking collection of seventeen essays investigates and celebrates Native American traditions with special focus on the position of the American Indian woman within those customs Divided into three sections the book discusses literature and authors history and historians sovereignty and revolution and social welfare and public policy especially as those subjects interact with the topic of Native American women Poet academic biographer critic activist and novelist Paula Gunn Allen was a leader and trailblazer in the field of women's and Native American spirituality Her work is both universal and deeply personal examining heritage anger racism homophobia Eurocentrism and the enduring spirit of the American Indian
