Making Miss India Miss World Susan Dewey, 2008-04-07 For almost half a century the Miss India competition has been a prominent feature of Indian popular culture influencing over time the conventional standard for female beauty As India participates increasingly in a global economy that standard is gradually being shaped by forces beyond the country s borders Through the unexpected lens of the 2003 beauty pageant Susan Dewey s Making Miss India Miss World examines what feminine beauty has come to mean in a country transformed by recent political economic and cultural developments

Beauty Queens on the Global Stage Colleen Ballerion Cohen, Richard Wilk, Beverly Stoeltje, 2013-09-13 Modern beauty contests were invented by P T Barnum in the United States but in the 20th century pageants and contests have spread across the entire world from Nepal to Tierra Del Fuego Why are women and sometimes men in drag parading on stage such a universally appealing spectacle attracting an audience in the billions This book is the first global comparison of pageants from different parts of the world at the ways each contest is both intensely local and unique and simultaneously global and remarkable repetitive The authors use the latest tools of feminist ethnographic and literary scholarship to unpack and interpret one of the greatest and most universal spectacles of modern times

Native American Princess Pageants Sebahattin

Ziyanak, Steven Aicinena, 2024-10-15 This book delivers a systematic investigation of Native American princess pageants exploring when and why they started how they spread across and within Native American communities the ways in which these pageants differ from other contests such as Miss USA the workings of the pageants themselves and their socio cultural costs and benefits

Queen of the Virgins M. Cynthia Oliver, 2010-06-30

Beauty pageants are wildly popular in the U S Virgin Islands outnumbering any other single performance event and capturing the attention of the local people from toddlers to seniors Local beauty contests provide women opportunities to demonstrate talent style the values of black womanhood and the territory's social mores Queen of the Virgins Pageantry and Black Womanhood in the Caribbean is a comprehensive look at the centuries old tradition of these expressions in the Virgin Islands M Cynthia Oliver maps the trajectory of pageantry from its colonial precursors at tea meetings dance dramas and street festival parades to its current incarnation as the beauty pageant or queen show For the author pageantry becomes a lens through which to view the region's understanding of gender race sexuality class and colonial power Focusing on the queen show Oliver reveals its twin roots in slave celebrations that parodied white colonial behavior and created Creole royal rituals and celebrations heavily influenced by Africanist aesthetics Using the U S Virgin Islands as an intriguing case study Oliver shows how the pageant continues to reflect reinforce and challenge Caribbean cultural values concerning femininity Queen of the Virgins examines the journey of the black woman from degraded body to vaunted queen and how this progression is marked by social unrest growing middle class sensibilities and contemporary sexual and gender politics

Crowning the Nice Girl Christine R. Yano, 2006-06-30

After World War II Japanese Americans in Hawai'i sought to carve a positive niche of public citizenship in the community In 1953 members of the Honolulu Japanese Junior Chamber of Commerce and their wives created a beauty contest the Cherry Blossom Festival CBF Queen Pageant which quickly became an annual spectacle for the growing urban population of Honolulu Crowning the Nice Girl analyzes the pageant through its decades of development to the present within multiple frameworks of gender class and race ethnicity Drawing on extensive archival research interviews with CBF queens contestants and organizers and participant observation in the Fiftieth Annual Festival as a volunteer Christine Yano paints a complex portrait of not only a beauty pageant but also a community The study begins with the subject of beauty pageants in general and Asian American beauty pageants in particular interrogating the issues they raise embedding them within their histories and examining them as part of a global culture that has taken its model from the Miss America contest Yano follows the pageant throughout the decades into the 1990s adding corresponding herstories extensive narratives drawn from interviews with CBF queens She concludes by framing issues of race ethnicity spectacle and community within the intertwined themes of niceness and banality Television, Regulation and Civil Society in Asia Philip Kitley, 2003-08-29 This highly topical book exposes the tensions between state policies of broadcasting regulation and practices of civil society in the Asian region which is struggling with its incorporation into a new globalised electronic information and entertainment world Kitley critically compares Western principles of broadcasting civil society and cultural regulation with alternative Asian practices of regulation and organisation Over the past forty years Asian states have used television as a normative cultural force in nation building but more recently many states have deregulated their television sectors and introduced national commercial and international satellite services As Asian states wrestle with a perceived loss of cultural control and identity through deregulation this book considers their viewpoints and the question of whether the television public sphere offers space for the representation of popular sovereignty and transversal concerns about human rights press freedom gender environmental and world trade issues Responsible Design, Implementation and Use of Information and Communication Technology Marié Hattingh, Machdel Matthee, Hanlie Smuts, Ilias Pappas, Yogesh K. Dwivedi, Matti Mäntymäki, 2020-04-06 This two volume set constitutes the proceedings of the 19th IFIP WG 6.11 Conference on e Business e Services and e Society I3E 2020 held in Skukuza South Africa in April 2020 The total of 80 full and 7 short papers presented in these volumes were carefully reviewed and selected from 191 submissions The papers are organized in the following topical sections Part I block chain fourth industrial revolution eBusiness business processes big data and machine learning and ICT and education Part II eGovernment eHealth security social media knowledge and knowledge management ICT and gender equality and development information systems for governance and user experience and usability Due to the global COVID 19 pandemic and the consequential worldwide imposed travel restrictions and lockdown the I3E 2020 conference event scheduled to take place in Skukuza South Africa was unfortunately cancelled Auctioning Public Assets Maarten Christiaan Wilhelmus Janssen, 2004 In many countries all over the world governments are privatising firms that were previously under public control This is happening for example in public utility sectors such as gas water and electricity in transport sectors such as rail and metro and in radio and telephony This book provides an overview of the economic issues that are involved in this transfer of ownership of public assets Combining a theoretical framework with a set of case studies of recent sales of state owned assets from Europe and the USA it asks which sort of allocation mechanism can a government adopt Which is most suited to a particular sale And how will the choice of allocation mechanism affect future market outcomes With contributions from international experts this book offers an accessible introduction to auction theory and an invaluable non technical analysis of existing knowledge It will be of interest to students non specialists and policy makers alike The Lolita Effect M. Gigi Durham, 2009-06-30 Pop culture and the advertising that surrounds it teaches young girls and boys five myths about sex and sexuality Girls don't choose boys boys choose girls but only sexy girls there's only one kind of sexy slender curvy white beauty girls should work to be that type of sexy the younger a girl is the sexier she is and sexual violence can be hot Together these five myths make up the Lolita Effect the mass media trends that work to undermine girls self confidence that condone female objectification and that tacitly foster sex crimes But identifying these myths and breaking them down can help girls learn to recognize progressive and healthy sexuality and protect themselves from degrading media ideas and sexual vulnerability

Queens of Academe Karen W. Tice, 2012-04-17 Higher education is an unlikely venue for showcasing ideals of femininity yet campus beauty pageants have increased in popularity in a cultural marketplace conjoining personal empowerment with beauty and style Karen Tice examines the desires and racial and political agendas that propel students onto collegiate catwalks
