Critical Race Narratives A Study Of Race Rhetoric And Injury Critical America:

Critical Race Narratives Carl Gutierrez-Jones, 2001-08 The beating of Rodney King the killing of Amadou Diallo and the LAPD Rampart Scandal these events have been interpreted by the courts the media and the public in dramatically conflicting ways Critical Race Narratives examines what is at stake in these conflicts and in so doing rethinks racial strife in the United States as a highly charged struggle over different methods of reading and writing Focusing in particular on the practice and theorization of narrative strategies Gutierrez Jones engages many of the most influential texts in the recent race debates including The Bell Curve America in Black and White The Alchemy of Race and Rights and The Mismeasure of Man In the process Critical Race Narratives pursues key questions posed by the texts as they work within or against disciplinary expectations can critical engagements with narrative enable a more democratic dialogue regarding race what promise does such experimentation hold for working through the traumatic legacy of racism in the United States Throughout Critical Race Narratives initiates a timely dialogue between race focused narrative experiment in scholarly writing and similar work in literary texts and popular culture

Critical Race Narratives Carl Gutierrez-Jones, 2001-08 An immensely valuable contribution As the last generation of witnesses to the Holocaust testify to its horrors they must also testify to its heroes those who risked all to save lives These movingly told stories restore our faith in the human spirit William Shirer The mystery of the rescue phenomenon will probably always elude us As the rescuers narratives in this remarkable volume show the acts of saving Jews seemed spontaneous and natural and thus the mystery of the rescue act begins to unravel radiantly The insights which this interdisciplinary collection of essays subtly pieces together show in unique fashion the preconditions or the possibilities of individual and collective courage Dennis B Klein author of Jewish Origins of the Psychoanalytic Movement A distinguished group of internationally known individuals Jews and non Jews rescuers and rescued offer their enriching first person accounts and reflections that explore the question Why did the Danes risk their lives to rescue the Jewish population

Critical Rhetorics of Race Kent A. Ono, 2011-07-11 According to many pundits and cultural commentators the U S is enjoying a post racial age thanks in part to Barack Obama's rise to the presidency This high gloss of optimism fails however to recognize that racism remains ever present and alive spread by channels of media and circulated even in colloquial speech in ways that can be difficult to analyze In this groundbreaking collection edited by Michael G Lacy and Kent A Ono scholars seek to examine this complicated and contradictory terrain while moving the field of communication in a more intellectually productive direction An outstanding group of contributors from a range of academic backgrounds challenges traditional definitions and applications of rhetoric From the troubling media representations of black looters after Hurricane Katrina and rhetoric in news coverage about the Columbine and Virginia Tech massacres to cinematic representations of race in Crash Blood Diamond and Quentin Tarantino's films these essays reveal complex intersections and constructions of racialized bodies and discourses critiquing race in innovative and exciting ways Critical Rhetorics of Race seeks not only to understand and navigate a world fraught with racism but to change it one word at a time      Critical Race Feminism, Second Edition Adrienne Katherine Wing, 2003-10 A classic anthology of writings on the legal status and lived experiences of women of color Now in its second edition the acclaimed anthology Critical Race Feminism presents over 40 readings on the legal status of women of color by leading authors and scholars such as Anita Hill Lani Guinier Kathleen Neal Cleaver and Angela Harris The collection gives voice to Black Latina Asian Native American and Arab women and explores both straight and queer perspectives Both a forceful statement and a platform for change the anthology addresses an ambitious range of subjects from life in the workplace and motherhood to sexual harassment domestic violence and other criminal justice issues Extending beyond national borders the volume tackles global issues such as the rights of Muslim women immigration multiculturalism and global capitalism Revealing how the historical experiences and contemporary realities of women of color are profoundly influenced by a legacy of racism and sexism that is neither linear nor logical Critical Race Feminism serves up a panoramic perspective illustrating how women of color can find strength in the face of oppression      Moral Imperialism Berta Esperanza Hernández-Truyol, 2002-10-27 In the controversy over female genital mutilation Congress was quick to condemn practices throughout Africa and the Middle East and to take action criminalizing the practice domestically Moral Imperialism sets out to bring an international human rights framework to the analysis of current international and domestic legal political and cultural crises      Critical Queer Studies Casey Charles, 2016-04-22 Critical Queer Studies examines contemporary films and documentaries that dramatize the intersection of law and queer life analyzing the effects of legal doctrines jury selection unwanted sexual advance negligence hate crimes and gay marriage on the production and reception of queer film and fiction Exploring the interaction of these discourses by discussing internationally known American films the book demonstrates how the law maintains its hold over the queer subject through promoting certain ideological fictions and conversely how film and literature draw upon the material realities of queer legal status to dramatize conflicts between law and the marginalized subject Critical Queer Studies synthesizes queer studies law and literature and film studies engaging these fields to show how the struggle for gay and lesbian rights has influenced the production of film and fiction      Writing against Racial Injury Haivan V. Hoang, 2015-07-10 Writing against Racial Injury recalls the story of Asian American student rhetoric at the site of language and literacy education in post 1960s California What emerged in the Asian American movement was a recurrent theme in U S history conflicts over language and literacy difference masked wider racial tensions Bringing together language and literacy studies Asian American history and rhetoric and critical race theory Hoang uses historiography and ethnography to explore the politics of Asian American language and literacy education the growth of Asian American student organizations and self sponsored writing the ways language served as thinly veiled trope for race in the influential Lau v Nichols the inheritance of a rhetoric of injury on college campuses and activist rhetorical strategies that rearticulate Asian American racial identity These fragments depict a troubling yet hopeful account of the ways language and literacy education alternately racialized Asian Americans while also enabling rearticulations of Asian American identity culture and history This project more broadly seeks to offer educators a new perspective on racial accountability in language and literacy education

The Silicon Valley of Dreams David Pellow, Lisa Sun-Hee Park, 2002-12-22 Examines the environmental racism at the foundation of the Silicon Valley economy Next to the nuclear industry the largest producer of contaminants in the air land and water is the electronics industry Silicon Valley hosts the highest density of Superfund sites anywhere in the nation and leads the country in the number of temporary workers per capita and in workforce gender inequities Silicon Valley offers a sobering illustration of environmental inequality and other problems that are increasingly linked to the globalization of the world's economies In The Silicon Valley of Dreams the authors take a hard look at the high tech region of Silicon Valley to examine environmental racism within the context of immigrant patterns labor markets and the historical patterns of colonialism One cannot understand Silicon Valley or the high tech global economy in general they contend without also understanding the role people of color play in the labor force working in the electronic industry's toxic environments These toxic work environments produce chemical pollution that in turn disrupts the ecosystems of surrounding communities inhabited by people of color and immigrants The authors trace the origins of this exploitation and provide a new understanding of the present day struggles for occupational health and safety The Silicon Valley of Dreams will be critical reading for students and scholars in ethnic studies immigration urban studies gender studies social movements and the environment as well as activists and policy makers working to address the needs of workers communities and industry aesthetic and narrative forms and they articulate methods for performing such analysis while reflecting on the politics of the work they undertake By establishing criteria to describe the politicised use of narrative forms and by historicising narratological concepts the volume bridges theoretical gaps between narratology critical theory and cultural analysis resulting in the refinement of existing narratological models This book was originally published as a special issue of the European Journal of English Studies
