

Crucible Act 1 Study Guide

1. Why is Rev. Parris so angry at Abigail? What is really at stake? Reverend Parris is afraid that the faction of his enemies will use the knowledge that the girls were conjuring witchcraft against him. His ministry's at stake.

2. Speaking of Rev. Parris, what is Miller's claim and tone towards him? What textual proof do you have? Miller's claim towards Reverend Parris is that he is completely self-absorbed and foolish. Self-absorbed because he can think only of his own reputation and foolish because he allows himself to be convinced that witchcraft is involved in his daughter's "illness."

Miller gives Reverend Parris a tone of paranoia and desperation.

3. List some of the rhetorical devices that are used on pages 8-15.

- pg. 8 uses foreshadowing when Tituba's "slave senses" tell her that as always, trouble in the house always lands on her back.

- pg. 11 uses a metaphor when Parris says "I have fought here three long years to bend these stiff-necked people to me."

- pg. 15 uses foreshadowing when it says "So it's not surprising that his daughter led the crying out at the most opportune junctures of the trials, especially when---- But we'll speak of that when we come to it."

- pg. 15 uses personification when it says "There are hurtful, vengeful spirits layin' hands on these children."

Ex: "There be no blush about my name." Blush is figurative language/symbol that is used to evoke the sense that Abigail may have done something which would bring shame or embarrassment to herself

4. What is Miller's claim and tone towards Thomas Putnam? What is your textual proof for this? Miller's claim towards Thomas Putnam is that he is a vindictive, arrogant, and manipulative man who will do anything to show his superiority. This is supported with the story of Putnam jailing Bayley just because his brother lost to him and others.

Miller's tone towards Thomas Putnam is mocking and apathetic. Miller mocks Putnam's morally deprived actions and is apathetic towards his "grievances."

5. List some of the rhetorical devices that are used on pages 15-25.
