Cruel Attachments The Ritual Rehab Of Child Molesters In Germany:

Cruel Attachments John Borneman, 2015-03-10 Child molesters are widely regarded as the most incorrigible of criminal types as recidivists who deserve harsh punishment In Germany today however attention has shifted from punishment to court mandated rehabilitation through therapy Therapists guide the offender through a process normally assigned to a religious authority the transformation of the criminal into a person capable of reintegration into society Cruel Attachments is anthropologist John Borneman's account of the attempt to rehabilitate child sex offenders through therapy Using select case studies Borneman follows the experience of offenders from accusation to admission of culpability through arrest trial imprisonment treatment release from prison and either social reincorporation or indefinite surveillance The book opens with an absorbing and disturbing ethnography of a particularly important and sensational case of the rehabilitation of the infamous Berlin sex offender Alexander Marquardt Marquardt was a child abuser and brutal pimp who underwent rehabilitation therapy during his long imprisonment During his therapy it was discovered that he had been sexually abused by his mother over several years starting when he was pre pubescent After his lengthy and ultimately successful rehabilitation Marquardt was released and is now a successful owner and manager of a fitness center Borneman's vivid account of Marquardt addresses the controversial question of whether such therapy really works in the sense of changing a person's deepest desires The subsequent case histories and theory chapters range from general reflections on the historical evolution of cultural handling of child sexual abuse to cases of incest pedophilia inappropriate sex play between parents and children among others This is the first book ever on the topic of the intensely ambiguous and fraught project of attempted rehabilitation of perpetrators and what that project tells us about ourselves and our culture's contradictions No other book has combined that focus with a larger meditation on the state of anthropology as Cruel Attachments so beautifully does

Cruel Attachments John Borneman, 2015-03-09 There is no more seemingly incorrigible criminal type than the child sex offender Said to suffer from a deeply rooted paraphilia he is often considered as outside the moral limits of the human profoundly resistant to change Despite these assessments in much of the West an increasing focus on rehabilitation through therapy provides hope that psychological transformation is possible Examining the experiences of child sex offenders undergoing therapy in Germany where such treatments are both a legal right and duty John Borneman in Cruel Attachments offers a fine grained account of rehabilitation for this reviled criminal type Carefully exploring different cases of the attempt to rehabilitate child sex offenders Borneman details a secular ritual process aimed not only at preventing future acts of molestation but also at fundamentally transforming the offender who is ultimately charged with creating an almost entirely new self Acknowledging the powerful repulsion felt by a public that is often extremely skeptical about the success of rehabilitation he challenges readers to confront the contemporary contexts and conundrums that lie at the heart of regulating intimacy between children and adults

reflections on the intersections between criminology and queer scholarship and charts future directions for this field Since their development over twenty five years ago queer scholarship and politics have been hotly contested fields equally embraced and dismissed Amid calls for criminology and criminal justice institutions to respond more effectively to the injustices faced by LGBTIQ people criminologists have recently developed a Queer Criminology and turned to queer scholarship in the process Captivating Technology Ruha Benjamin,2019-06-07 The contributors to Captivating Technology examine how carceral technologies such as electronic ankle monitors and predictive policing algorithms are being deployed to classify and coerce specific populations and whether these innovations can be appropriated and reimagined for more liberatory ends The Seduction of Youth Javier Samper Vendrell,2020-04-02 A simple man from the provinces Friedrich Radszuweit merged popular culture consumerism and politics as the leader of the League for Human Rights Germany's first mass homosexual organization The Seduction of Youth is the first study to focus on the League and its leader using his position at the centre of the Weimar era gay rights movement to tease out the diverging political strategies and contradictory tactics that distinguished the movement By examining news articles and opinion pieces as well as literary texts and photographs in the League's numerous pulp magazines for homosexuals Javier Samper Vendrell reconstructs forgotten aspects of the history of same sex desire and subjectivity While recognizing the possibilities of liberal rights for sexual freedom during the Weimar Republic the League's respectability politics failed in part because Radszuweit's own publications contributed to the idea that homosexual men were considered a threat to youth doing little to change the views of the many people who believed in homosexual seduction a homophobic trope that endured well into the twentieth century

Sex Richard Joseph Martin,Dieter Haller,2020-05-27 Focusing on the unacknowledged personal and often unconscious dimension Sex explores the intersection between sex and ethnography Anthropological writing tends to focus on the influence of status markers such as position gender ethnicity and age on fieldwork By contrast far less attention has been paid to how sex sexuality eroticism desire attraction and rejection affect ethnographic research In the book anthropologists reflect on their own encounters with sex during fieldwork revealing how attraction and desire influence the choice of fieldwork subjects field sites and friendships They also examine the resulting impact on fieldwork findings and the generation of knowledge Based on fieldwork in Germany Denmark Greece the USA Brazil South Africa Singapore Turkey Israel Morocco and India the contributors go beyond the common heterosexuality homosexuality divide to address topics which include celibacy polyamory and sadomasochism This long overdue text provides perspectives from a new generation of anthropologists and brings the debate into the 21st century Examining challenging and controversial issues in contemporary fieldwork this is essential reading for students in anthropology gender and sexuality studies sociology research methods and ethics courses Regimes of Ignorance Roy Dilley,Thomas G. Kirsch,2015-10-01 Non knowledge should not be simply regarded as the opposite of knowledge but as complementary to it each derives its character and meaning from the other and from their interaction Knowledge does not colonize the space of ignorance in the progressive march of science rather knowledge and ignorance are mutually shaped in social and political domains of partial shifting and temporal relationships This volume s ethnographic analyses provide a theoretical frame through which to consider the production and reproduction of ignorance non knowledge and secrecy as well as the wider implications these ideas have for anthropology and related disciplines in the social sciences and humanities

Guilt Katharina von Kellenbach, Matthias Buschmeier, 2021-12-31 Across the globe guilt has become a contentious issue in discussions over historical accountability and reparation for past injustices Guilt has become political and it assumes a highly visible place in the public sphere and academic debate in fields ranging from cultural memory to transitional justice post colonialism Africana studies and the study of populist extremism This volume argues that guilt is a productive force that helps to balance unequal power dynamics between individuals and groups Moreover guilt can also be an ambivalent force affecting social cohesion moral revolutions political negotiation artistic creativity legal innovation and other forms of transformations With chapters bridging the social sciences law and humanities chapter authors examine the role and function of guilt in society and present case studies from seven national contexts The book approaches guilt as a generative and enduring presence in societies and cultures rather than as an oppressive and destructive burden that necessitates quick release and liberation It also considers guilt as something that legitimates the future infliction of violence Finally it examines the conditions under which guilt promotes transformation repair and renewal of relationships

Subcontractors of Guilt Esra Özyürek,2023-04-04 At the turn of the millennium Middle Eastern and Muslim Germans had rather unexpectedly become central to the country's Holocaust memory culture not as welcome participants but as targets for re education and reform Since then Turkish and Arab Germans have been considered as the prime obstacles to German national reconciliation with its Nazi past a status shared to a lesser degree by Germans from the formerly socialist East Germany It is for this reason that the German government German NGOs and Muslim minority groups have begun to design Holocaust education and anti-Semitism prevention programs specifically tailored for Muslim immigrants and refugees so that they too can learn the lessons of the Holocaust and embrace Germany's most important postwar democratic political values Based on ethnographic research conducted over a decade Subcontractors of Guilt explores when how and why Muslim Germans have moved to the center of Holocaust memory discussions Esra Özyürek argues that German society subcontracts guilt of the Holocaust to new minority immigrant arrivals with the false promise of this process leading to inclusion into the German social contract and equality with other members of postwar German society By focusing on the recently formed but already sizable sector of Muslim only anti-Semitism and Holocaust education programs this book explores the paradoxes of postwar German national identity Constitutional Secularism in an Age of Religious Revival Susanna Mancini, Michel Rosenfeld,2014-01-30 The global movement of culture and religion has brought about a serious challenge to traditional constitutional secularism This challenge comes in the form of a political and institutional struggle against secular constitutionalism and a two pronged assault on the very legitimacy and viability of the concept On the one hand constitutional secularism has been attacked as inherently hostile rather than neutral toward religion and on the other hand constitutional secularism has been criticized as inevitably favouring one religion or set of religions over others The contributors to this book come from a variety of different disciplines including law anthropology history philosophy and political theory They provide accounts of and explanations for present predicaments critiques of contemporary institutional political and cultural arrangements justifications and practices and suggestions with a view to overcoming or circumventing several of the seemingly intractable or insurmountable current controversies and deadlocks The book is separated into five parts Part I provides theoretical perspectives on the present day conflicts between secularism and religion Part II focuses on the relationship between religion secularism and the public sphere Part III examines the nexus between religion secularism and women s equality Part IV concentrates on religious perspectives on constraints on and accommodations of religion within the precincts of the liberal state Finally Part V zeroes in on conflicts between religion and secularism in specific contexts namely education and freedom of speech

Becoming Donor-Conceived Amelie Baumann,2021-11-27 While it has been argued that anonymity in gamete donation has been brought to an end by legal changes and technological developments Amelie Baumann suggests that this is in fact still in transformation By focusing on the narratives of those who were conceived with anonymously donated gametes in the UK and Germany she examines this transformative process and the role which donor conceived persons play in it This book shows that it is not someone s decision to procreate that turns being donor conceived into a meaningful categorisation Rather kinship knowledge gets activated by the donor conceived in specific ways for being donor conceived to become a powerful identification
