Cruise Tourism in Polar Regions

Michael Lück, Patrick Timothy Maher, Emma J. Stewart, 2010 Cruises are the primary form of tourism in the Polar Regions and cruise ship tourism in both the Arctic and Antarctic is expanding rapidly The industry has moved beyond its infancy and is now entering a maturing phase with increased numbers and types of vessels more demanding routes and more regular and predictable patterns of activity The increase in cruise activities and the associated risks of accidents as well as the potential and actual impacts of the large numbers of tourists in the polar regions bring with it management challenges for sustainable use of these regions This book discusses critically the issues around environmental and social sustainability of the cruise industry in Polar Regions Authors from Canada USA Europe Australia and New Zealand are experts in their respective fields and take an innovative critical and at times controversial approach to the subject
