traditions I wished to place clearly before my Gaelic brethren the exact position which the religious beliefs of the Celts held in the European kinship to clear up the misty subject of Druidism and to reconstruct from the shattered materials to hand the Pantheon of their Gaelic ancestors This I undertook knowing that in the last part of my object the rehabilitation of the Gaelic Olympus my results must only be tentative for the material for reconstruction is difficult to deal with and much of it is in MSS unedited Since these papers began to appear in print events have travelled with more than usual rapidity both in the field of general and of Celtic Mythology It was last year that Mr Andrew Lang delivered his lively attack against the orthodox school of mythologists and it was also last year that M D Arbois de Jubainville s important works on Celtic Literature and Mythology appeared Mr Lang s attack has certainly driven the older school from several of their positions but he has by no means overthrown either the importance of language in the development of myth or the fact that the sun the sky the powers of wind and storm and the change of day and night were the most prominent factors in the creation of the deities and powers of the ancient mythologies About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
