Censored,2014-10-07 Every year since 1976 Project Censored our nation's oldest news monitoring group a university wide project at Sonoma State University founded by Carl Jensen directed for many years by Peter Phillips and now under the leadership of Mickey Huff has produced a Top 25 list of underreported news stories and a book Censored dedicated to the stories that ought to be top features on the nightly news but that are missing because of media bias and self censorship A perennial favorite of booksellers teachers and readers everywhere Censored is one of the strongest life signs of our current collective desire to get the news we citizens need despite what Big Media tells us Censored 2019 Mickey Huff,Andy Lee Roth,2018-10-02 For more than forty years Project Censored has been our watchdog on the establishment media casting its eye on how the information that we receive and don't receive shapes our democracy We need it more than ever today Christopher Finan Executive Director National Coalition Against Censorship NCAC THESE ARE JUST A FEW OF THE STORIES PRESENTED IN CENSORED 2019 Open Source Intelligence Secrets Sold to Highest Bidders ICE Intends to Destroy Records of Inhumane Treatment of Immigrants Indigenous Communities around World Helping to Win Legal Rights of Nature FBI Racially Profiling Black Identity Extremists The Limits of Negative News and Importance of Constructive Media DID YOU KNOW THAT SINCE 1998 THE US GOVERNMENT SPENT 21 TRILLION IT CAN'T ACCOUNT FOR Or that Internet co-ops are mobilizing poor communities to resist net neutrality rollbacks How about the health risks of wireless tech that cell phone companies have covered up or the opiate crisis that Big Pharma knowingly unleashed Haven't heard the news Neither did the rest of the world That's because these and countless other news items are suppressed or ignored by our nation's free press every day For the past forty three years Project Censored has been unearthing the buried stories that corporate media deem unfit to print and debunking the fake news governments and corporations use to consolidate their power to promote well informed citizen action and critical media literacy This year's Project Censored yearbook features Vetting Free Speech by Sally Gimson Layli Foroudi and Sean Gallagher TimesUp Breaking the Barriers of Sexual Harassment in Corporate Media for You and MeToo by Julie Frechette Data Activism through Community Mapping and Data Visualization by Dorothy Kidd How Mainstream Media Evolved into Corporate Media by Peter Phillips Campus Newsroom Collaborations by Patricia W Elliott The Public and Its Problems by Susan Maret Plus Junk Food News News Abuse and Media Democracy in Action In a time of decline in the rule of law and democratic safeguards Project Censored offers a constructive alternative to the fake news blues holding the corporate media to account for its negative bias propaganda for wealth and power and outright censorship Animal Oppression and Capitalism David Nibert,2017-09-08 This important two volume set unapologetically documents how capitalism results in the oppression of animals ranging from fish and chickens to dogs elephants and kangaroos as well as in environmental destruction vital resource depletion and climate change Most traditional narratives portray humanity's use of other animals as natural and necessary for human social development and present the idea that capitalism is generally a positive force in the world But is this worldview accurate or just a convenient easy to accept way to ignore what is really happening a systematic oppression of animals that simultaneously results in environmental destruction and places insurmountable obstacles in the path to a sustainable and peaceful future David Nibert's Animal Oppression and Capitalism is a timely two volume set that calls into question the capitalist system at a point in human history when inequality and the imbalance in the distribution of wealth are growing domestically and internationally Expert contributors show why the oppression of animals particularly the use of other animals as food is increasingly being linked to unfavorable climate change and the depletion of fresh water and other vital resources Readers will also learn about the tragic connections between the production of animal products and global hunger and expanded regional violence and warfare and they will understand how many common human health problems including heart attacks strokes and various forms of cancer develop as a result of consuming animal products

Deep Inequality Earl Wyson, Robert Perrucci, 2017-11-17 Forbes reports that the richest 1 percent of the world's population owns nearly half the world's wealth and the gap between the richest and poorest of the world only continues to increase. Deep Inequality looks behind these stark statistics to understand not only wealth inequality but also rising disparities in other elements of life from education to the media. The authors argue that inequality has become so pervasive that it is the new normal. When we do recognize troubling inequality, we look at individual or small-scale problems without understanding the broader structural issues that shape the economy, the global political system, and more. Only by understanding the structural forces at play can we recognize the deep divisions in our society and work for meaningful change. Deep Inequality explains the changing landscape of inequality to help readers see society in a new way. HBO's Treme and the Stories of the Storm Robin Andersen, 2017-11-20 This book analyses the HBO program Treme from multiple perspectives and argues that the series' depictions of music, culture, cuisine, and identity are innovative and represent unique televisual storytelling strategies. The location, themes, and characters create a compelling story arc and highlight the city's culture and cuisine, jazz musicians and musical performances, and Mardi Gras Indians. The program challenges initial reporting of Hurricane Katrina and, in doing so, rewrites the disaster myth coverage through which the city has been framed. Recommended for scholars of communication, media studies, music studies, and cultural studies. Filling the Void Marcus Gilroy-Ware, 2017-04-18 Filling The Void is a book about how the cultures and psychology of social media use fit within a broader landscape of life under capitalism. It argues that social media use is often a psychological response to the need for pleasure and comfort that results from the stresses of life under postmodern capitalism, rather than being a driver of new behaviours, as newer technologies are often said to be. Both the explosive growth of social media and the corresponding reconfiguration of the web from an information-based platform into an entertainment-based one are far more easily explained in terms of the subjective psychological experience of their users as capitalist subjects seeking depressive hedonia, the book argues. Filling the Void also interrogates the role of social media networks designed for private commercial gain as part of a de facto public sphere. Both the decreasing subjective importance of factual media and the ways in which the content of the timeline are quietly manipulated, often using labour in the developing world and secret algorithms, have potentially serious implications for the capacity of social media users to query or challenge the seeming reality offered by the established hegemonic order. Journalism for Social Change in Asia Scott Downman, Kasun Ubayasiri, 2017-07-31 This book explores the role and purpose of journalism to spark and propagate change by investigating human rights journalism and its capacity to inform, educate, and activate change. Downman and Ubayasiri maximize this approach by proposing a new paradigm of reporting through the use of human-focused news values. This approach is a radical departure from the traditional style that typically builds on abstract concepts. The book will explore human rights journalism through the lens of complex issues such as human trafficking and people smuggling in the Asian context. This is not just a book for journalists or journalism academics but a book for activists human rights advocates or anyone who believes in the power of journalism to change the world

Giants Peter Phillips, 2018-08-28 A look at the top 300 most powerful players in world capitalism who are at the controls of our economic future Who holds the purse strings to the majority of the world's wealth There is a new global elite at the controls of our economic future and here former Project Censored director and media monitoring sociologist Peter Phillips unveils for the general reader just who these players are The book includes such power players as Mark Zuckerberg Bill Gates Jeff Bezos Jamie Dimon and Warren Buffett As the number of men with as much wealth as half the world fell from sixty two to just eight between January 2016 and January 2017 according to Oxfam International fewer than 200 super connected asset managers at only 17 asset management firms each with well over a trillion dollars in assets under management now represent the financial core of the world's transnational capitalist class Members of the global power elite are the management the facilitators of world capitalism the firewall protecting the capital investment growth and debt collection that keeps the status quo from changing Each chapter in Giants identifies by name the members of this international club of multi millionaires their 17 global financial companies and including NGOs such as the Group of Thirty and the Trilateral Commission and their transnational military protectors so the reader for the first time anywhere can identify who constitutes this network of influence where the wealth is concentrated how it suppresses social movements and how it can be redistributed for maximum systemic change

Shame the Devil Wayne J. Guglielmo, 2023-04-15 When the press loses sight of truth and falls prey to bias American press critics push back to safeguard our free and democratic nation Journalists are no strangers to criticism and some have even seen disagreements turn to outrage and acts of violence There is another history of press criticism though This one as a rule doesn't resort to physical threat or denunciation Nevertheless it can be merciless when critics think the press has become too slanted in one direction has fallen short of some ideal is too concentrated for its own good or seems to be underreporting or ignoring some critical story of the day Shame the Devil is a sweeping look at this other history Beginning with Walter Lippmann rightly regarded as the first modern press critic Shame the Devil provides a chapter by chapter profile and analysis of his successors Many critics work within the profession of journalism while some consider it from the outside These include George Seldes A J Liebling Ben Bagdikian Reed Irvine Neil Postman and Noam Chomsky A concluding chapter brings together a diverse group of contemporary critics including Sharyl Attkisson Brooke Gladstone Eric Deggans Amy Goodman Janine Jackson and Candace Owens Merging history biography and a candid analysis of various critical points of view Shame the Devil moves from press commentary in the bitter aftermath of World War I to the head spinning paradoxes of the post truth era Throughout some of America's best critics contend with both the big events of their day and the big issues of journalism to ask the always vital question How can the press help to create and sustain a more democratic society
