Censored 1998 The News That Didn't Make The News:

Censored 2019 Mickey Huff, Andy Lee Roth, 2018-10-02 For more than forty years Project Censored has been our watchdog on the establishment media casting its eye on how the information that we receive and don't receive shapes our democracy. We need it more than ever today. Christopher Finan, Executive Director, National Coalition Against Censorship (NCAC). THESE ARE JUST A FEW OF THE STORIES PRESENTED IN CENSORED 2019: Open Source Intelligence, Secrets Sold to Highest Bidders, ICE Intends to Destroy Records of Inhumane Treatment of Immigrants, Indigenous Communities around World Helping to Win Legal Rights of Nature, FBI Racially Profiling Black Identity Extremists, The Limits of Negative News and Importance of Constructive Media. DID YOU KNOW THAT SINCE 1998 THE US GOVERNMENT SPENT 21 TRILLION IT CAN'T ACCOUNT FOR? Or that Internet co-ops are mobilizing poor communities to resist net neutrality rollbacks? How about the health risks of wireless tech that cell phone companies have covered up or the opiate crisis that Big Pharma knowingly unleashed? Haven't heard the news? Neither did the rest of the world. That's because these and countless other news items are suppressed or ignored by our nation's free press every day. For the past forty-three years Project Censored has been unearthing the buried stories that corporate media deem unfit to print and debunking the fake news governments and corporations use to consolidate their power to promote well-informed citizen action and critical media literacy. This year's Project Censored yearbook features: Vetting Free Speech by Sally Gimson Layli Foroudi and Sean Gallagher; TimesUp: Breaking the Barriers of Sexual Harassment in Corporate Media for You and Me Too by Julie Frechette; Data Activism through Community Mapping and Data Visualization by Dorothy Kidd; How Mainstream Media Evolved into Corporate Media by Peter Phillips; Campus Newsroom Collaborations by Patricia W. Elliott; The Public and Its Problems by Susan Maret; Plus Junk Food News, News Abuse and Media Democracy in Action. In a time of decline in the rule of law and democratic safeguards, Project Censored offers a constructive alternative to the fake news blues, holding the corporate media to account for its negative bias, propaganda for wealth and power, and outright censorship. Censored 2015 Mickey Huff, Andy Lee Roth, Project

Censored, 2014-10-07 Every year since 1976 Project Censored, our nation's oldest news monitoring group, a university-wide project at Sonoma State University founded by Carl Jensen, directed for many years by Peter Phillips and now under the leadership of Mickey Huff, has produced a Top 25 list of underreported news stories and a book Censored dedicated to the stories that ought to be top features on the nightly news but that are missing because of media bias and self-censorship. A perennial favorite of booksellers, teachers, and readers everywhere, Censored is one of the strongest life signs of our current collective desire to get the news we citizens need despite what Big Media tells us. Project Censored's State of the Free Press 2021 Mickey Huff, Andy Lee Roth, 2020-12-01 The new and improved Censored detailing the top censored stories and media analysis of 2020. Our nation's oldest news monitoring group, Project Censored, refreshes its longstanding yearbook series Censored with State of the Free Press 2021. This edition offers a more succinct and comprehensive survey of the most important but underreported news stories of 2020 in addition to a comparative analysis of the current state of corporate and independent news media and its effect on democracy The establishment media sustains a decrepit post truth era as examined the lowlight features Junk Food News frivolous stories that distract the public from actual news and News Abuse important stories covered in ways that undermine public understanding The alternative media provokes a burgeoning critical media literacy age as evaluated in the highlight feature Media Democracy in Action relevant stories responsibly reported on by independent organizations Finally in an homage to the history of the annual report the editors reinstate the D j vu News feature revisited stories from previous editions State of the Free Press 2021 endows readers with the critical thinking and media literacy skills required to hold the corporate media to account for distorting or censoring news coverage and thus to revitalize our democracy

Censored 1999 Peter Phillips,Project Censored,1999-04-06 The yearly volumes of Censored in continuous publication since 1976 and since 1995 available through Seven Stories Press is dedicated to the stories that ought to be top features on the nightly news but that are missing because of media bias and self censorship The top stories are listed democratically in order of importance according to students faculty and a national panel of judges Each of the top stories is presented at length alongside updates from the investigative reporters who broke the stories Beyond the Top 25 stories additional chapters delve further into timely media topics The Censored News and Media Analysis section provides annual updates on Junk Food News and News Abuse Censored D j Vu signs of hope in the alternative and news media and the state of media bias and alternative coverage around the world In the Truth Emergency section scholars and journalists take a critical look at the US NATO military industrial media empire And in the Project Censored International section the meaning of media democracy worldwide is explored in close association with Project Censored affiliates in universities and at media organizations all over the world A perennial favorite of booksellers teachers and readers everywhere Censored is one of the strongest life signs of our current collective desire to get the news we citizens need despite what Big Media tells us

Censored 2005 Peter Phillips,Project Censored,2011-01-04 The yearly volumes of Censored in continuous publication since 1976 and since 1995 available through Seven Stories Press is dedicated to the stories that ought to be top features on the nightly news but that are missing because of media bias and self censorship The top stories are listed democratically in order of importance according to students faculty and a national panel of judges Each of the top stories is presented at length alongside updates from the investigative reporters who broke the stories

Liberation Sociology Joe R. Feagin,Hernan Vera,2020-04-22 Liberation sociology is concerned with eliminating social oppressions and creating truly just societies Liberation sociology takes sides with the oppressed and envisions an end to that oppression Liberation social scientists featured in this book consciously try to step outside their groups or societies and view them critically The authors examine theories and research of social scientists who ask Social science for what purpose and Social science for whom Case studies offer humanistic democratic and activist answers Featured researchers provide tools to increase human abilities to understand deep social realities engage in better dialogues and increase democratic participation in use of knowledge Many people of all ages today continue to be attracted to sociology and other social sciences because of their promise to contribute to better political social and moral understandings of themselves and their social worlds and often because they hope it will help them to build a better society We accent the liberation potential of social science with these social science teachers and students firmly in mind

The Newspapers Handbook Richard Keeble, 2001 Thoroughly rewritten and using a range of new examples from tabloid and broadsheet newspapers non mainstream and local and regional publications Keeble examines key journalistic skills such as the art of interviewing news reporting reviewing freelancing and feature writing Censored 2006 Peter Phillips, Project Censored, 2011-01-04 The yearly volumes of Censored in continuous publication since 1976 and since 1995 available through Seven Stories Press is dedicated to the stories that ought to be top features on the nightly news but that are missing because of media bias and self censorship The top stories are listed democratically in order of importance according to students faculty and a national panel of judges Each of the top stories is presented at length alongside updates from the investigative reporters who broke the stories Media Power, Professionals and Policies Howard Tumber, 2013-04-15 The work of Jeremy Tunstall one of the founding fathers of British media studies is the inspiration behind Media Power Professionals and Policies In this collection of new work leading international contributors address the central themes of Tunstall's work the history structures and practices of the international media industry the relationship between media and government and the sociology of labour in the media industry No News is Bad News Michael Bromley, Hugh Stephenson, 2014-09-11 This volume of collected essays provides a wide ranging survey of the state of radio and television especially the idea of public service broadcasting and of news current affairs and documentary programming in America Australia the UK and the rest of western Europe Among the key issues it addresses are the dumbing down of TV news the infotainment factor in current affairs shows and the disappearance of the documentary Using contemporary cases and examples from the row over the scheduling of News at Ten in the UK to the creation of ABC News Online in Australia the essays link the performance of radio and television at the turn of the millennium with the processes of deregulation liberalisation and digitalisation which have been evident since the 1980s Working from a much needed and original comparative approach which encompasses complex and well established public broadcasting in the USA as well as emerging and vulnerable participatory radio stations in El Salvador the book sets a variety of experiences of factual radio and television programming within wider political and cultural contexts It offers analyses of not only the problems associated with news current affairs and documentary broadcasting in an era of a declining public service ethos and the apparent triumph of the market however The essays also explore the potential of alternative radio and television new forms of communication such as the internet and changing practices among journalists and programme makers as well as the resilience of public broadcasting and the powers of the public to ensure that the media remain relevant and accountable A companion text to the bestselling Sex Lies and Democracy The Press and the Public this volume presents a multi faceted approach to the tumultuous present and the uncertain future of news current affairs and documentary in radio and television

Reclaiming the Environmental Debate Richard Hofrichter,2000 Reflecting a diversity of voices and critical perspectives the essays in this book range from critiques of traditional thinking and practices to strategies for shifting public consciousness to create healthy communities International Journal of Research S.N. Sharma,2014-03-19 International Journal of Research abbreviated as IJR is an international peer reviewed internationally refereed online open access journal published monthly International Journal of Research IJR represents a revolution in scholarly journal publishing platform A pioneering effort in liberal open access publishing with fast and high quality peer review that brings journal publishing to the doorstep of every researcher and student We believe that quality information should be free and accessible universally in this day and age The ideology of an open access journal is in being free for all and IJR will be free for all to read and share

Synthetic Planet Monica J. Casper,2013-11-12 This timely collection of original essays traces the migration of synthetic chemicals from the laboratory to the factory and then into the environment bodies and communities Turning our attention to the impact these chemicals have on our ecosystems human health social organization and political processes the contributors break new ground by focusing on the production and distribution of these potentially hazardous agents themselves rather than just detailing their effects The Missing News Robert A. Hackett,Richard S. Gruneau,Donald Gutstein,Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives,Timothy A. Gibson,2000-01-01 The Missing News explores the role of newspapers in North America s complex media environment as vehicles for democratic communication Media, Institutions and Audiences Nick Lacey,2017-03-14 Media Institutions and Audiences completes Nick Lacey s trilogy of self standing texts that give an in depth introduction to the key concepts of Media Studies at an advanced and university level The book delivers a range of theories and contemporary case studies in its coverage of media business and the influence of regulation and censorship The issues surrounding the growing commodification of media texts and the increasing influence of marketing and public relations are considered The major approaches to understanding audiences are also investigated The Media's Role in Defining the Nation David A. Copeland,David Copeland,2010 In 1897 William Randolph Hearst said that his newspaper did not simply cover events that had already happened It doesn t wait for things to turn up Hearst said It turns them up This book traces the close relationship between media and the United States development from the colonial period to the twenty first century It explores how the active voice of citizen journalists and trained media professionals has turned to media to direct the moral compass of the people and to set the agenda for a nation and discusses how changes in technology have altered the way in which participatory journalism is practiced What makes the book powerful is that its assessment of the influence and use of media encompasses many levels it explores the potential of media as an agent for change from within small communities to the national stage Democratic Equality Edward Broadbent,2019-10-21 Are the world s oldest democracies failing For most of the past fifty years democratic governments made determined and successful efforts at overcoming the significant inequalities that are the by product of a capitalist economy During this period a new concept of democratic citizenship that added social and economic rights to the liberal legacy of political and civil liberties established roots in most North Atlantic democracies Since the 1980s this notion of democratic citizenship has been challenged ideologically to such a degree that through either major modification or complete elimination of programs equality as a fundamental democratic goal is disappearing in many nations particularly in the Anglo American democracies In this extraordinary collection top scholars in political science sociology philosophy and economics discuss this radical shift towards inequality in an age of mass capital globalization Wide ranging in topic yet coherent in approach Inequality and the Modern Democratic State comprises thirteen essays including Ed Broadbent's Ten Propositions about Equality and Democracy Robert Hackett's Watch Dogs Mad Dogs or Lap Dogs News Media and Civic Equality and Barbara Ehrenreich's Inequality in the Clinton Era Many European democracies argue the contributors have adapted to new circumstance in the global economy without resorting to policies that actively promote inequality While differing in some important details on solutions they all contend that the political decision making process is of critical importance in entrenching or battling an escalating inequality that is neither necessary nor desirable

Abuse Your Illusions Russ Kick, 2003-05-01 The third of Russ Kick's bestselling Disinformation Guides gathers another all star line up of exposés Juries have ruled in recent trials that Watergate was really about a Democratic Party prostitution ring Ignored in the U S and distorted elsewhere the Milosevic tribunal hasn't gone the way authorities were anticipating We present exclusive first hand reporting from the trial Most theologians don't believe in the physical Resurrection of Jesus In 2001 the U S uncovered the biggest spy ring in the country since WWII yet most people never heard about it The U S is engaging in bioweapons research that violates international treaties and federal law The New York Times knows about this but refuses to report it Teddy Roosevelt and Wall Street created Panama for profit Gandhi wasn't so wonderful after all These are just some of the revelations in the third of our all star anthologies Following up on bestsellers You Are Being Lied To and Everything You Know Is Wrong editor Russ Kick has again assembled a line up of leading investigative journalists academics activists commentators and independent researchers covering CIA assassinations the anthrax attacks fluoride TWA 800 Abraham Lincoln child protective services the tobacco industry forgotten uprisings the government's missing trillions even more revelations about 9 11 and much more Contributors include Gary Webb Greg Palast Noreena Hertz Howard Zinn Douglas Valentine Jim Houghan Kristina Borjesson Arianna Huffington and many more well known writers some of whom you'll be extremely surprised to see in these pages Critical Studies in Media Commercialism Robin Andersen, Lance Strate, 2000 Intense commercialism has been a perennial hallmark of the mass media ever since its inception and throughout the twentieth century the techniques and strategies of the dominant players in the world of media and advertising have become increasingly sophisticated with the development of multinational media corporations and electronic media opportunities Developments have been so rapid that scholars are only now beginning to come to terms with the full impact of media commercialization as a global phenomenon cutting across traditional cultural economic and social boundaries Critical Studies in Media Commercialism brings together an impressive collection of essays that explore the growing complexity range and reach of media commercialism in today s world From the corporate conglomeration of today s media giants to the effects of advertising on politics society and the individual this collection provides a comprehensive and insightful critique of both the impact and the limits of media commercialism in the modern world
