Censored 1999 The News That Didn't Make The News:

Censored 2019 Mickey Huff, Andy Lee Roth, 2018-10-02 For more than forty years Project Censored has been our watchdog on the establishment media casting its eye on how the information that we receive and don't receive shapes our democracy. We need it more than ever today. Christopher Finan, Executive Director, National Coalition Against Censorship (NCAC). THESE ARE JUST A FEW OF THE STORIES PRESENTED IN CENSORED 2019: Open Source Intelligence, Secrets Sold to Highest Bidders, ICE Intends to Destroy Records of Inhumane Treatment of Immigrants, Indigenous Communities around World Helping to Win Legal Rights of Nature, FBI Racially Profiling Black Identity Extremists, The Limits of Negative News and Importance of Constructive Media. DID YOU KNOW THAT SINCE 1998 THE US GOVERNMENT SPENT 21 TRILLION IT CAN'T ACCOUNT FOR? Or that Internet co-ops are mobilizing poor communities to resist net neutrality rollbacks? How about the health risks of wireless tech that cell phone companies have covered up or the opiate crisis that Big Pharma knowingly unleashed? Haven't heard the news? Neither did the rest of the world. That's because these and countless other news items are suppressed or ignored by our nation's free press every day. For the past forty-three years Project Censored has been unearthing the buried stories that corporate media deem unfit to print and debunking the fake news governments and corporations use to consolidate their power to promote well-informed citizen action and critical media literacy. This year's Project Censored yearbook features: Vetting Free Speech by Sally Gimson Layli Foroudi and Sean Gallagher; TimesUp: Breaking the Barriers of Sexual Harassment in Corporate Media for You and MeToo by Julie Frechette; Data Activism through Community Mapping and Data Visualization by Dorothy Kidd; How Mainstream Media Evolved into Corporate Media by Peter Phillips; Campus Newsroom Collaborations by Patricia W. Elliott; The Public and Its Problems by Susan Maret; Plus Junk Food News, News Abuse and Media Democracy in Action. In a time of decline in the rule of law and democratic safeguards, Project Censored offers a constructive alternative to the fake news blues, holding the corporate media to account for its negative bias, propaganda for wealth and power, and outright censorship. Censored 1999 Peter Phillips, Project Censored, 1999-04-06. The yearly volumes of Censored in continuous publication since 1976 and since 1995 available through Seven Stories Press is dedicated to the stories that ought to be top features on the nightly news but that are missing because of media bias and self-censorship. The top stories are listed democratically in order of importance according to students, faculty, and a national panel of judges. Each of the top stories is presented at length alongside updates from the investigative reporters who broke the stories. Beyond the Top 25 stories, additional chapters delve further into timely media topics. The Censored News and Media Analysis section provides annual updates on Junk Food News and News Abuse. Censored DJ Vu signs of hope in the alternative and news media and the state of media bias and alternative coverage around the world. In the Truth Emergency section, scholars and journalists take a critical look at the US-NATO military-industrial-media empire. And in the Project Censored International section, the meaning of media democracy worldwide is explored in close association with Project

Stephenson, 2014-09-11 This volume of collected essays provides a wide ranging survey of the state of radio and television especially the idea of public service broadcasting and of news current affairs and documentary programming in America Australia the UK and the rest of western Europe Among the key issues it addresses are the dumbing down of TV news the infotainment factor in current affairs shows and the disappearance of the documentary Using contemporary cases and examples from the row over the scheduling of News at Ten in the UK to the creation of ABC News Online in Australia the essays link the performance of radio and television at the turn of the millennium with the processes of deregulation liberalisation and digitalisation which have been evident since the 1980s Working from a much needed and original comparative approach which encompasses complex and well established public broadcasting in the USA as well as emerging and vulnerable participatory radio stations in El Salvador the book sets a variety of experiences of factual radio and television programming within wider political and cultural contexts It offers analyses of not only the problems associated with news current affairs and documentary broadcasting in an era of a declining public service ethos and the apparent triumph of the market however The essays also explore the potential of alternative radio and television new forms of communication such as the internet and changing practices among journalists and programme makers as well as the resilience of public broadcasting and the powers of the public to ensure that the media remain relevant and accountable A companion text to the bestselling Sex Lies and Democracy The Press and the Public this volume presents a multi faceted approach to the tumultuous present and the uncertain future of news current affairs and documentary in radio and television Democratic Equality Edward Broadbent, 2019-10-21 Are the world's oldest democracies failing For most of the past fifty years democratic governments made determined and successful efforts at overcoming the significant inequalities that are the by product of a capitalist economy During this period a new concept of democratic citizenship that added social and economic rights to the liberal legacy of political and civil liberties established roots in most North Atlantic democracies Since the 1980s this notion of democratic citizenship has been challenged ideologically to such a degree that through either major modification or complete elimination of programs equality as a fundamental democratic goal is disappearing in many nations particularly in the Anglo American democracies In this extraordinary collection top scholars in political science sociology philosophy and economics discuss this radical shift towards inequality in an age of mass capital globalization Wide ranging in topic yet coherent in approach Inequality and the Modern Democratic State comprises thirteen essays including Ed Broadbent's Ten Propositions about Equality and Democracy Robert Hackett's Watch Dogs Mad Dogs or Lap Dogs News Media and Civic Equality and Barbara Ehrenreich's Inequality in the Clinton Era Many European democracies argue the contributors have adapted to new circumstance in the global economy without resorting to policies that actively promote inequality While differing in some important details on solutions they all contend that the political decision making process is of critical importance in entrenching or battling an escalating inequality that is neither necessary nor desirable Alternative Publishers of Books in North America Byron Anderson, 2006 This directory is a unique reference tool that gathers information on significant alternative presses 126 U S presses 19 Canadian and 18 international presses having either a North American address or distributor Thirty three presses are new to this edition Global Ethnography Michael Burawoy, Joseph A. Blum, Sheba George, Zsuzsa Gille, Millie Thayer, 2000-10-01 In this follow up to the highly successful Ethnography Unbound Michael Burawoy and nine colleagues break the bounds of conventional sociology to explore the mutual shaping of local struggles and global forces In contrast to the lofty debates between radical theorists these nine studies excavate the dynamics and histories of globalization by extending out from the concrete everyday world The authors were participant observers in diverse struggles over extending citizenship medicalizing breast cancer dumping toxic waste privatizing nursing homes the degradation of work the withdrawal of welfare rights and the elaboration of body politics From their insider vantage points they show how groups negotiate circumvent challenge and even re create the complex global web that entangles them Traversing continents and extending over three years this collaborative research developed its own distinctive method of grounded globalization to grasp the evaporation of traditional workplaces the dissolution of enclaved communities and the fluidity of identities Forged between the local and global these compelling essays make a powerful case for ethnography s insight into global dynamics
