Central Johannesburg College Application For 2015:

Fees Must Fall Susan Booysen, 2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt. FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa. More broadly it radically questioned the socio-political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business, the ruling elite and the liberation movement. The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left. Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles. The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and its double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance. University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co-opted students into their ranks to create co-responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution. This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt. Student voices dissect colonialism, improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa, feminism, worker rights and meaningful education. In depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism, its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt.

Global Development of the Community College Model Carmen L. McCrink, Heidi Whitford, Natasha C. Stubbs, 2017-03-13 While the community college is a longstanding institutional type within the U S the success of this model has recently garnered international attention. As countries outside the U S grapple with issues regarding access and affordability of higher education opportunity the concept of the community college has gained traction. This issue explores the global expansion and development of the community college model in various countries and regions around the world. Insights into the establishment and sustainability of these institutions in other countries through research and analysis and Case studies that focus on the development and implementation process of community colleges amid various social, political and economic contexts. This is the 177th volume of the Jossey Bass quarterly report series Essential to the professional libraries of presidents, vice presidents, deans and other leaders in today's open door institutions. New Directions for Community Colleges provides expert guidance in meeting the challenges of their distinctive and expanding educational mission.

Indigenous Knowledge and Climate Governance Eromose E. Ebhuoma, Llewellyn Leonard, 2022-06-04 This book investigates indigenous knowledge systems (IKS) in sub-Saharan Africa, thereby highlighting its role in facilitating adaptation to climate variability and change and also demystifying the challenges that prevent it from being integrated with scientific knowledge in climate governance schemes. Indigenous people and their priceless knowledge rarely feature when decision makers prepare for future climate change This book showcases how Indigenous knowledge facilitates adaptation to climate change including how collaborations with scientific knowledge have cascaded into building people's resilience to climatic risks This book also pays delicate attention to the factors fueling epistemic injustice towards Indigenous knowledge which hampers it from featuring in climate governance schemes across sub-Saharan Africa The key insights shared in this book illuminate the issues that contribute meaningfully towards the actualisation of the UN SDG 13 and promote mechanisms for raising capacity for effective climate change related planning and management in sub-Saharan Africa

Housing and SDGs in Urban Africa Timothy Gbenga Nubi, Isobel Anderson, Taibat Lawanson, Basirat Oyalowo, 2021-03-08 There is a dearth of collections of scholarly works dedicated wholly to African issues that comes out of the work done by African scholars and practitioners with both African collaborators and from elsewhere This volume brings together scholarly works and thoughts that cut across and intertwine the tripod environment consciousness socially just development and African development into options that could deliver on the promise of the SDGs The book project is an initiative of the Centre for Housing and Sustainable Development at the University of Lagos which realized the gap in ground research linking the housing sector with the SDGs in African cities This book therefore presents chapters that explore the interconnections interactions and linkages between the SDGs and Housing through research practice experience case studies desk based research and other knowledge media
