well thought out approach to his rhetorical discourse and placed his speaking and writing at the very center of his career By merging thought and character in his themes arguments and explanations and in his first and second personae Chavez was able to identify with the character of his listeners That identification induced many audience members to support Chavez's agenda for union activism The authors have developed a model to help explain Chavez's startling transformation of some audiences and persuasion of others Hammerback and Jensen reveal that Chavez's world view motivated him to work tirelessly and directed him to the particular rhetorical qualities and techniques that characterized his discourse The authors also demonstrate Chavez's surprising effectiveness as a rhetor despite his soft spoken style uncharacteristic of most powerful orators
