Politics Kalika Shah, 2019-12-20 This book aims at analysing the fiction produced by the expatriate Parsee writers of the Indian subcontinent Bapsi Sidhwa Rohinton Mistry and Boman Desai These Parsee writers of the South Asian origin have emigrated to Canada and USA in the latter part of the twentieth century Their works offer several possibilities seen from the multicultural point of view The fiction of these Parsee diasporic writers examines the problem of migration relocation and changing identities from a vantage point of distance gained by an insider's view of their community and an outsider's view from the host country Dislocations even when voluntary always have a traumatic side to it due to the process of acculturation assimilation into or differences with the host country and the issue of rights and privileges in the new location For the diasporic communities of different backgrounds their memory history and cultural beliefs are the important factors that determine their identities These Parsee novels demonstrate how individual and group collective identities of the Parsees get constructed and reconstructed redefined against the changing multinational contexts The Critical Review, Or, Annals of Literature ,1790 The Critical Review: Or, Annals of Literature Tobias Smollett, 1790 The Edinburgh Review, Or Critical Journal: ... To Be Continued Quarterly ,1835 Book Review Index ,1983 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation Imagining Punjab, Punjabi and Punjabi in the Transnational Era Anjali Roy, 2017-10-02 This book moves away from originary myths of region and identity that have dominated academic and mediated representations of Punjab a land locked region divided between India and Pakistan after the Partition of 1947 and instead focuses on the role of the imagination in producing Punjab It deconstructs Punjab as an ethno spatial ethno linguistic and ethno cultural construct produced by the communities who dwell there those who have left it and those formed by new narratives of the region By isolating imaginings of Punjab that are not centred on exclusivist regional linguistic sectarian or caste perspectives contributions to this book propose the concept of free flowing cartographies in relation to Punjab which facilitate its imaginings as a geographical region a social construct and a state of consciousness The region is simultaneously imagined as a small place a neighbourhood a city and a village but also as a performative practice and a certain ways of doing things Through focusing on a number of Punjabi spaces and communities and engaging with Punjab as a geographical region social construct and state of consciousness the papers in the book hope to contribute to broader debates on transnationalism postnationalism micronationalism and new identity narratives emerging in the twenty first century This book was originally published as a special issue of South Asian Diaspora Post-Colonial Ethnicity. A Critical Study of "The Crow Eaters" by Bapsi Sidhwa Zafar Iqbal, Sundus Javaid, 2018-05-17 Seminar paper from the year 2018 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Comparative Literature grade 1.5 National University of Modern Languages Islamabad Institute of English Studies course English Literature language English abstract The study aims to explore the issue of ethnicity especially in Post colonial era It deals with ethnicity as a subject and Post colonial ethnic behavior because in Post colonial age the issue of ethnicity has its own significance Moreover it deals with problems of Parse community which they faced in sub continent especially in Lahore Pakistan It also highlights the issue of racism presenting the picture of pre partition of sub continent The data of present research is a novel by Basic Sidhwa The Crow Eaters Its analysis has been done with the help of qualitative method Moreover analysis is supported with the theory of Post colonialism Henceforth the study explores the post colonial ethnicity that how Parse community had to face ethnic attitude of natives of and also the British rulers Hence the present research highlights the theme of ethnicity on the basis of minority culture religion and stereotypes The Journal of Commonwealth Literature ,1979 The Critical Phenomenology of Intergroup Life Evandro

Camara,2020-12-04 This book is dedicated to a critical analysis of race relations and inequality through the prism of Schutsonian social phenomenology which focuses on the world of intersubjectivity and the complex of meanings that orient the conduct of individuals and groups The phenomenological approach provides a more intimate look at how the societal imposition of negative racial meanings on racialized persons crucially determines the construction of the minority subjectivity as essential otherness thus becoming a pivotal support of race based inequality Postcolonial Urban Outcasts

Madhurima Chakraborty,Umme Al-wazedi,2016-10-14 Extending current scholarship on South Asian Urban and Literary Studies this volume examines the role of the discontents of the South Asian city The collection investigates how South Asian literature and literature about South Asia attends to urban margins regardless of whether the definition of margin is spatial psychological gendered or sociopolitical That cities are a site of profound paradoxes is nowhere clearer than in South Asia where urban areas simultaneously represent both the frontiers of globalization as well as the deeply troubling social and political inequalities of the global south Additionally because South Asian cities are defined by the palimpsestic confluence of among other things colonial oppression anticolonial nationalism postcolonial governance and twenty first century transnational capital they are sites where the many faces of empowerment and disempowerment are elaborated The volume brings together essays that emphasize myriad critical approaches geospatial urban theoretical diasporic subaltern and others United in their critical empathy for urban outcasts the chapters respond to central questions such as What is the relationship between the politico economic narratives of globally emerging South Asian cities and the dispossessed How do South Asian cities stand in relationship to the nation and conversely how might South Asians in diaspora construct these cities within larger narratives of development globalization or as sources of authentic ethnic identities How is the very skeleton the space the territory of South Asian cities marked with and by exclusionary politics How do the aesthetic and formal choices undertaken by writers determine the potential for and limit to emancipation of urban outcasts from their oppressive circumstances Considering fiction nonfiction comics and genre fiction from India Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka literature from the twentieth and the twenty first century and works that are Anglophone and those that are in translation this book will be valuable to a range of disciplines The International Fiction Review ,1993 The Best Novels of
