Collaborative Spirit-Writing and Performance in Everyday Black Lives Bryant Keith Alexander, Mary E. Weems, 2021-11-11 Collaborative Spirit Writing and Performance in Everyday Black Lives is about the interconnectedness between collaboration spirit and writing It is also about a dialogic engagement that draws upon shared lived experiences hopes and fears of two Black persons male female straight gay This book is structured around a series of textual performances poems plays dialogues calls and responses and mediations that serve as claim ground warrant qualifier rebuttal and backing in an argument about collaborative spirit writing for social justice Each entry provides evidence of encounters of possibility collated between the authors for ourselves for readers and society from a standpoint of individual and collective struggle The entries in this Black performance diary are at times independent and interdependent interspliced and interrogative interanimating and interstitial They build arguments about collaboration but always emanate from a place of discontent in a caste system designed through slavery and maintained until today that positions Black people in relation to white superiority terror and perpetual struggle With particular emphasis on the confluence of Race Racism Antiracism Black Lives Matter the Trump administration and the Coronavirus pandemic this book will appeal to students and scholars in Race studies performance studies and those who practice qualitative methods as a new way of seeking Black social justice The Palgrave Handbook of Imposter Syndrome in Higher Education

Michelle Addison, Maddie Breeze, Yvette Taylor, 2022-04-11 This handbook explores feeling like an imposter in higher education and what this can tell us about contemporary educational inequalities Asking why imposter syndrome matters now we investigate experiences of imposter syndrome across social locations institutional positions and intersecting inequalities Our collection queries advice to fit in with the university and authors reflect on not belonging in with and against educational institutions The collection advances understandings of imposter syndrome as socially situated in relation to entrenched inequalities and their recirculation in higher education Chapters combine creative methods and linger on the figure of the imposter wary of both individualising and celebrating imposters as lucky misfits fraudsters or failures and critically interrogating the supposed universality of imposter syndrome Feminist Applied Sport Psychology Leeja

Carter, 2019-07-01 With an emphasis on women and transwomen athletes and exercisers of color Feminist Applied Sport Psychology From Theory to Practice introduces the reader to feminist black feminist and womanist sport psychology offering an alternative and powerful approach to working with athletes Covering core concepts applied skills and research methods the book includes useful features throughout such as discussion questions and definitions of key terms It is organized into three sections covering firstly feminist theory history movements and their importance in applied sport psychology secondly the intersection of race class and gender and the integration of intersectional considerations into sport psychology and finally in depth case studies of feminist sport psychology in action each of which offers strategies for best practice Feminist Applied Sport Psychology From Theory to Practice is important reading for feminist centred students and practitioners in performance and sports domains and exercise psychology and anybody with an interest in feminist approaches to working with women of diverse backgrounds      The SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Research in the Asian Context Safary Wa-Mbaleka, Arceli Rosario, 2022-05-05 Qualitative research is growing in Asia and globally In an Asian context this requires an awareness of a completely different set of norms practices and expectations than those covered by books from a western perspective This handbook truly celebrates these differences Spanning the full research process from philosophy and ethics to design and methods and through data collection management analysis and dissemination it focuses specifically on the practicalities needed to conduct effective and culturally responsive research in the Asian context This handbook extends beyond researchers actually in Asia and also speaks to researchers working with Asian participants researching in Asian immigrant neighbourhoods and studying the larger global topics like socioeconomic challenges climate change or technological advancement This is the first book to focus specifically on qualitative research in the Asian context and includes diverse contributors from Asia such as the Philippines Singapore Thailand India Oman China South Korea Indonesia Kazakhstan Hong Kong and from other continents such as North America South America Africa Europe and Oceania Section 1 Foundations of Qualitative Research in Asia Section 2 Qualitative Research Designs Section 3 Best Practices in Dealing with Qualitative Research Data Section 4 Other Qualitative Research Topics      Autoethnography for Librarians and Information Scientists Ina Fourie, 2021-06-24 Autoethnography for Librarians and Information Scientists illustrates that autoethnography is a rich qualitative research method that can enhance understanding of one's own work experiences whilst also facilitating the design of tailored experiences for a variety of audiences Starting with the position that librarians and information scientists require deep insight into people's experiences needs and information behaviour in order to design appropriate services and information interventions this book shows that using only conventional methods such as questionnaires and focus groups is insufficient Arguing that autoethnography can provide unique insights into users' cultural experiences and needs contributors to this volume introduce the reader to different types of autoethnography Highlighting common challenges and clarifying how autoethnography can be combined with other research methods this book will empower librarians and information scientists to conceptualise topics for autoethnographic research whilst also ensuring that they adhere to strict ethical guidelines Chapters within the volume also demonstrate how to produce autoethnographic writing and stress the need to analyse autoethnographies produced by others Autoethnography for Librarians and Information Scientists is essential reading for any librarian information scientist or student looking to deepen their understanding of their own experiences It will be particularly useful to those engaged in the study of service provision user studies and information behaviour      An Autoethnography of Fitting In Phiona Stanley, 2021-11-25 An Autoethnography of Fitting In On Spinsterhood Fatness and Backpacker Tourism is a feminist narrative about the social rules of obedience and acquiescence to the norm embodiment heteronormativity partnering and about fitting in or not with those narratives Phiona Stanley explores a period through her twenties and thirties living and travelling alone foreign to herself and the countries of her travel in all regards white cisgender sometimes thin sometimes fat sometimes partnered This fascinating volume uses these lived experiences depicted through first person narrative storytelling as a prism through which to understand the subtle social rules of gendered normative expectations It draws on contemporary journals letters and photos and features process oriented sections that focus on the methodological possibilities these offer and on questions of verisimilitude and subjectivity Set in the context of transnational work in Qatar China and elsewhere and road status as negotiated and performed among long term backpacker tourists this book serves as an exemplar of how autoethnography can illuminate socio cultural normativities and their effects which are rarely explicit but which nevertheless have great potential to harm while problematizing and rethinking the meanings and semantic boundaries of weight queerness and hetero normativity Framed through reflexive autoethnography with a strong focus on ethics and feminist theories this book will appeal to students and researchers in autoethnography qualitative methods and gender and women s studies Evocative
