Critiques Of Knowing Situated Textualities In Science Computing And The Arts:

Critiques of Knowing Lynette Hunter, 2002-03-11 Critiques of Knowing explores what happens to science and computing when we think of them as texts Lynette Hunter elegantly weaves together vast areas of thought rhetoric politics AI computing feminism science studies aesthetics and epistemology Critiques of Knowing shows us that what we need is a radical shake up of approaches to the arts if the critiques of science and computing are to come to any fruition Mapping Landscapes for Performance as Research Shannon Rose Riley, Lynette Hunter, 2009-07-16 Although the sciences have long understood the value of practice based research the arts and humanities have tended to structure a gap between practice and analysis This book examines differences and similarities between Performance as Research practices in various community and national contexts mapping out the landscape of this new field Relational Autonomy Catriona Mackenzie, Natalie Stoljar, 2000-01-27 This collection of original essays explores the social and relational dimensions of individual autonomy Rejecting the feminist charge that autonomy is inherently masculinist the contributors draw on feminist critiques of autonomy to challenge and enrich contemporary philosophical debates about agency identity and moral responsibility The essays analyze the complex ways in which oppression can impair an agent's capacity for autonomy and investigate connections neglected by standard accounts between autonomy and other aspects of the agent including self conception self worth memory and the imagination Literary Value/ Cultural Power Lynette Hunter, 2001 Hunter examines the marginalised verbal arts written and spoken texts that don't fit the conventional patterns such as e mail letters diaries writing and speaking from the Black diaspora women's writing and electronic texts Interrogating Cultural Studies Paul Bowman, 2003-01-20 This book presents a new approach to the field of cultural studies in the form of a series of interviews with some of the world's leading and emergent cultural theorists including Simon Critchley Jeremy Gilbert and Slavoj Žižek Framed by lively and informative introductions which introduce the work of these thinkers and which also introduce the reader to the crucial importance of the issues that the interviews address The book is an entertaining introduction to the key ideas in the field the strengths and problematic weaknesses of cultural studies as a discipline allowing the reader to chart its development and to identify emerging trends Performance Cultures as Epistemic Cultures, Volume I Erika Fischer-Lichte, Torsten Jost, Milos Kovic, Astrid Schenka, 2023-04-07 This volume investigates performances as situated machineries of knowing Karin Knorr Cetina exploring them as relational processes for in and with which performers as well as spectators actively re generate diverse practices of knowing knowledges and epistemologies Performance cultures are distinct but interconnected environments of knowledge practice Their characteristic features depend not least on historical as well as contemporary practices and processes of interweaving performance cultures The book presents case studies from diverse locations around the globe including Argentina Canada China Greece India Poland Singapore and the United States Authored by leading scholars in theater performance and dance studies its chapters probe not only what kinds of knowledges are re generated in performances for example cultural social aesthetic and or spiritual knowledges the contributions investigate also how performers and spectators practice knowing and not knowing in performances paying particular attention to practices and processes of interweaving performance cultures and the ways in which they contribute to shaping performances as dynamic machineries of knowing today Ideal for researchers students and practitioners of theater performance and dance Re Generating Knowledges in Performance explores vital knowledge serving functions of performance investigating and emphasizing in particular the impact and potential of practices and processes of interweaving of performance cultures that enable performers and spectators to re generate crucial knowledges in increasingly diverse ways Gender Panic, Gender Policy Vasilikie (Vicky) Demos, Marcia Texler Segal, 2017-10-30 Using diverse theories and methods including analysis of on line data feminist critical discourse fieldwork grounded theory and queer theory this volume explores gender panic and policy in the United States and beyond Media Witnessing P. Frosh, A. Pinchevski, 2008-11-27 From the Holocaust to 9 11 modern communications systems have incessantly exposed us to reports of distant and horrifying events experienced by strangers and brought to us through media technologies In this book leading scholars explore key questions concerning the truth status and broader implications of media witnessing Politics of Practice Lynette Hunter, 2019-10-17 This book discusses affective practices in performance through the study of four contemporary performers Keith Hennessy Ilya No Caro Novella and duskin drum to suggest a tentative rhetoric of performativity generating political affect and permeating attempts at social justice that are often alterior to discourse The first part of the book makes a case for the political work done alongside discourse by performers practising with materials that are not known in ways that are directly relevant to people carrying out their daily lives In the second part of the book four case study chapters circle around figures of irresolvable paradox hendiadys enthymeme anecdote allegory that gesture to what is not known to study strategies for processes of becoming knowing and valuing These figures also shape some elements of these performances that make up a suggested rhetorical stance for performativity Stereotypes and Violence Oliver Betts, Andrew Fuyarchuk, Biba Hadziavdic, Hilde Hoffmann, Barbara Manthe, Benjamin Nickl, Bojan Perovic, Sylvia Sadzinski, Victoria Shmidt, 2017-04-20 Stereotypes are dangerous especially when they are used by demagogues Slogans which remind the historian of darker times in human history however reappear again in a growing number As companions of the rise of right wing forces in Europe they make up ground in more and more regions and gain momentum in the political debate It consequently seems to be more than important to focus on and closer analyze the interrelationship between stereotypes and violence in modern societies The fourth volume of Global Humanities tries to achieve such a broader analysis and provides reading in the fields of history political science gender and media studies The authors show and emphasize in which ways the two above named factors are interacting with each other and influencing the popular opinion in modern nation states Topics that are covered include Anti Italian riots in Zurich at the end of the 19th century a discussion of the interrelationship of racism and violence in Germany since the 1980s and an analysis of gender based violence in Serbia In addition the persistence of stereo types in entertainment is closely studied by taking a look on Sinti and Roma depictions in current European films Disciplinary Conquest Ricardo D. Salvatore,2016-03-28 Ricardo D Salvatore rewrites the history of Latin American studies by tracing its roots back to the first half of the twentieth century showing how its ties to U S business and foreign policy interests helped build an informal empire that supported U S economic technological and cultural hegemony throughout the hemisphere The Rhetorics of Feminism Lynne Pearce,2013-04-15 Is it possible that changes in rhetorical practice could alter not just how thought is expressed but also how it is made Through a close stylistic and rhetorical analysis of contemporary feminist writing from the cultural theory of Judith Butler to the popular journalism of Naomi Wolf and Germaine Greer Lynne Pearce demonstrates how feminist thought is created as well as communicated through the frameworks in which it is presented By linking rhetorical innovation with feminist epistemology in such a direct way this is a book that will be of immense methodological as well as theoretical interest to readers providing valuable insight into the often mysterious processes of conception and composition Writing the Everyday Danielle Fuller,2004 In Writing the Everyday Danielle Fuller analyses writing by Atlantic Canadian women from diverse backgrounds Drawing extensively on original interviews with writers editors and publishers Fuller investigates how and why communities form around texts that record women s everyday realities histories and traditions showing that prose writing and poetry performances combine oral storytelling family history and other aspects of local cultures with popular literary genres to address issues of racism sexism and poverty Sentient Performativities of Embodiment Lynette Hunter,Elisabeth Krimmer,Peter Lichtenfels,2016-05-05 This collection offers writings on the body with a focus on performance defined as both staged performance and everyday performance Traditionally theorizations of the body have either analyzed its impact on its socio historical environment or treated the body as a self enclosed semiotic and affective system This collection makes a conscious effort to merge these two approaches It is interested in interactions between bodies and other bodies bodies and environments and bodies and objects Email and Ethics Emma Rooksby,2003-08-27 This book explores the ways in which interpersonal relations are affected by being conducted via computer mediated communication Rooksby investigates the benefits limitations and implications of computer mediated communication Humanism, Capitalism, and Rhetoric in Early Modern England Lynette Hunter,2022-01-19 This book offers an interdisciplinary approach to concepts of the self associated with the development of humanism in England and to strategies for both inclusion and exclusion in structuring the early modern nation state It addresses writings about rhetoric and behavior from 1495 1660 beginning with Erasmus work on sermo or the conversational rhetoric between friends which considers the reader as an absent audience and following the transference of this stance to a politics whose broadening democratic constituency needed a legitimate structure for governance at a distance Unusually the book brings together the impact on behavior of these new concepts about rhetoric with the growth of the publishing industry and the emergence of capitalism and of modern medicine It explores the effects on the formation of the subject and political legitimation of the early liberal nation state It also lays new ground for scholarship concerned with what is left out of both selfhood and politics by that state studying examples of a parallel development of the self defined by friendship not only from educated male writers but also from women writers and writers concerned with socially middling and laboring people and the poor

Rhet Ops Jim Ridolfo, William Hart-Davidson, 2019-10-03 In this edited volume authors seek to document and analyze how state and non state actors leverage digital rhetoric as a twenty first century weapon of war Rhet Ops offer readers a chance to focus on the human dimension of rhetorical practice within mobile technologies and social networks to reflect not only on the durable question of what it means to conduct oneself ethically as a speaker or writer but also what it means to learn the art of rhetoric as a means to engage adversaries in war and conflict

Ecological Thinking Lorraine Code, 2006-04-27 Arguing that ecological thinking can animate an epistemology capable of addressing feminist multicultural and other post colonial concerns this book critiques the instrumental rationality hyperbolized autonomy abstract individualism and exploitation of people and places that western epistemologies of mastery have legitimated It proposes a politics of epistemic location sensitive to the interplay of particularity and diversity and focused on responsible epistemic practices Starting from an epistemological approach implicit in Rachel Carson s scientific projects the book draws constructively and critically on ecological theory and practice on post Quinean naturalized epistemology and on feminist and post colonial theory Analyzing extended examples from developmental psychology from medicine and law and from circumstances where vulnerability credibility and public trust are at issue the argument addresses the constitutive part played by an instituted social imaginary in shaping and regulating human lives The practices and examples discussed invoke the responsibility requirements central to this text s larger purpose of imagining crafting articulating a creative innovative instituting social imaginary committed to interrogating entrenched hierarchical social structures en route to enacting principles of ideal cohabitation

Hacking Cyberspace David J. Gunkel, 2018-02-19 In Hacking Cyberspace David J Gunkel examines the metaphors applied to new technologies and how those metaphors inform shape and drive the implementation of the technology in question The author explores the metaphorical tropes that have been employed to describe and evaluate recent advances in computer technology telecommunications systems and interactive media Taking the stance that no speech is value neutral Gunkel examines such metaphors as the information superhighway and the electronic frontier for their political and social content and he develops a critical investigation that not only traces the metaphors conceptual history but explicates their implications and consequences for technological development Through Hacking Cyberspace David J Gunkel develops a sophisticated understanding of new technology that takes into account the effect of technoculture s own discursive techniques and maneuvers on the actual form of technological development

Performance, Politics and Activism P. Lichtenfels, J. Rouse, 2013-04-09 Considering both making political performance and making performance politically this collection explores engagements of political resistance public practice and performance media on various scales of production within structures of neoliberal and liberal government and power
