Masterpieces of Nigerian Art Ekpo Eyo,2014-07-21 The Federal Republic of Nigeria maintains a rich artistic legacy that is more than two thousand years old As such it provides some interesting counterpoints to Western art history Nigeria s ancient Nok art for example predated the golden age of Greece and the exquisite bronzes of Igbo Ukwu 9th 10th C Ife 12th 15th C and Benin 15th 19th C compare favorably to European traditions Furthermore the art of Benin thrived under the patronage of a single unbroken dynasty during a time when many European governments rose and fell Yet for many reasons the Western world would not recognize this artistic heritage until modern times In this volume Ekpo Eyo explains the primitivist viewpoint that once dominated the Western perception of African art and recalls the efforts of certain more open minded individuals from Nigeria s colonial past who in their efforts to collect preserve and present important sculptures and other artworks were instrumental in founding the country s first museums Their successor today s National Commission for Museums and Monuments has collected many additional works from their original settings placing them in the limelight of the world through publications and museum exhibitions to which the author has contributed much throughout his career Eyo therefore discusses Nigerian art in the broader context of the world s art history arguing that the art of Nigeria is fundamentally a testament to universal human creativity From Shrines to Showcases Masterpieces of Nigerian Art includes examples selected from all major regions of the country spanning the distant past to the modern age which are to be considered amongst the greatest artistic achievements of humanity

called kp or leopard which was the highest indigenous authority kp lodges ruled local communities while also managing regional and long distance trade Cross River Africans enslaved and forcibly brought to colonial Cuba reorganized their kp clubs covertly in Havana and Matanzas into a mutual aid society called Abaku which became foundational to Cuba's urban life and music Miller's extensive fieldwork in Cuba and West Africa documents ritual languages and practices that survived the Middle Passage and evolved into a unifying charter for transplanted slaves and their successors To gain deeper understanding of the material Miller underwent kp initiation rites in Nigeria after ten years collaboration with Abaku initiates in Cuba and the United States He argues that Cuban music art and even politics rely on complexities of these African inspired codes of conduct and leadership Voice of the Leopard is an unprecedented tracing of an African title society to its Caribbean incarnation which has deeply influenced Cuba's creative energy and popular consciousness West Africa, 1987
