Cross Shattered Christ Meditations On The Seven Last Words:

Cross-Shattered Christ Stanley Hauerwas, 2004 A theologically rich meditative reading of Christ's final words from the cross drawing readers to devotion in Lent and throughout the church year Cross-Shattered Christ Stanley Hauerwas, 2005-01-01 In Cross Shattered Christ theologian Stanley Hauerwas offers a moving reflection on Jesus's final words from the cross This small and powerful volume is theologically poignant and steeped in humility Hauerwas's pithy discussion opens our ears to the language of Scripture while opening our hearts to a truer vision of God Touching in original and surprising ways on subjects such as praying the Psalms and our need to be remembered by Jesus Hauerwas emphasizes Christ's humanity as well as the sheer differentness of God Ideal for personal devotion during Lent and throughout the year Cross Shattered Christ offers a transformative reading of Jesus's words that goes directly to the heart of the gospel

Ordained Ministry in Free Church Perspective Jan Martijn Abrahamse, 2020-10-12 In Ordained Ministry in Free Church Perspective Jan Martijn Abrahamse presents a constructive theology of ordained ministry by returning to the life and thought of the English Separatist Robert Browne c 1550 1633 This study makes a substantial contribution not only by solving one of the most thorny problems in congregational ecclesiology but also by recovering the legacy of this ecclesial pioneer Through an in depth analysis of Browne's literature the author provides a covenantal theology of ordained ministry in conversation with present day authors Stanley Hauerwas and Kevin Vanhoozer Inspired by the emerging trend of theology of retrieval Abrahamse offers a methodologically innovative way of doing systematic theology in a manner in which voices from the past can be made fruitful for today The Dying of Jesus Owen F. Cummings, 2016-07-13 The liturgical season of Lent and Good Friday are very important for Christians as they meditate and reflect upon the dying of Jesus These are traditions that take us back to the very beginnings of the Christian tradition From early times pilgrims have made their way to the Holy Land especially Jerusalem to walk where Jesus walked and to remember his death on the cross Not everyone can go to Jerusalem and we cannot stand at the foot of the cross of Jesus but the Stations of the Cross and the Seven Last Words may take us to Jerusalem and to Calvary imaginatively For the Life of the World Robert J. Dean, 2016-05-13 What is the church What is its mission in the world Modern Protestantism's inability to provide a clear answer to these seemingly simple questions has resulted in vast confusion amongst pastors about the nature of their calling and has left congregations languishing without a clear reason for existence Many of the voices and allegiances competing for the church's attention have rushed in to fill the void with the result that the church in modernity has frequently found itself captive to the prevailing culture Yet from within the belly of highly culturally accommodated churches both the German pastor theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer and the American theological ethicist Stanley Hauerwas were able to articulate compelling visions of churches freed from their cultural captivity in order to truly and freely serve God and neighbor Against the complex and confusing backdrops of Nazi Germany and late twentieth and early twenty first century America respectively Bonhoeffer and Hauerwas sought to recover the ethical and political character of the Christian faith through recalling the church back to the christological center of its faith Together they provide a rich set of complementary and at times mutually correcting resources for the contemporary church as it seeks to faithfully bear witness to Christ amidst the ruins of Christendom Minding the Web Stanley

Hauerwas, Robert J. Dean, 2018-11-06 For over forty years Stanley Hauerwas has been writing theology that matters In this new collection of essays lectures and sermons Hauerwas continues his life's work of exploring the theological web discovering and recovering the connections necessary for the church to bear faithful witness to Christ in our complex and changing times Hauerwas enters into conversation with a diverse array of interlocutors as he brings new insights to bear on matters theological delves into university matters demonstrates how lives matter and continues in his passionate commitment to the matter of preaching Essays by Robert Dean illumine the connections that have made Hauerwas's theological web slinging so significant and demonstrate why Hauerwas's sermons have a crucial role to play in the recovery of a gospel shaped homiletical imagination A Revitalization of Images Gregory C. Higgins, 2019-03-05 The philosopher theologian and biblical scholar Austin Farrer 1904-1968 highlighted in his various writings the central role that images play in the interpretation of biblical writings the construction of theological arguments and the descriptions of the Christian spiritual life Theologians down through the centuries have sought to revitalize the central biblical images as they addressed the pressing theological moral and spiritual questions of their day A Revitalization of Images offers students the opportunity to participate in this ongoing creative engagement with ten dominant biblical images that continue to shape the church's beliefs and practices as well as each Christian's own spiritual journey Sound theology is rooted in Scripture conversant with past thinkers and engaged in the present life of the church This dynamic directly informs Revitalization In each chapter we begin with a biblical image that has figured prominently in the Christian theological tradition Next we examine two prominent voices from the Christian tradition who have drawn upon the image when crafting a compelling vision of the Christian life We then turn our attention to a contemporary thinker who has incorporated or critiqued the image in his or her own theological work This discussion is set within the current spectrum of theological positions including orthodox liberal postliberal and postmodern perspectives The Word Leaps the Gap J. Ross Wagner, C. Kevin Rowe, A. Katherine

Grieb, 2008-11-05 This is a collection of essays to celebrate Richard Hays 60th birthday It is written by colleagues and friends whose scholarly imaginations have been sparked in numerous ways by his insights Raging with Compassion John

Swinton, 2017-10-30 In Raging with Compassion Michael Ramsey prize winning author John Swinton argues for a practical theodicy one embodied in the life and practices of the Christian community This practicality does not seek to provide an explanation for the existence of evil but rather presents ways in which evil and suffering can be resisted and transformed This he insists will enable Christians to live faithfully with unanswered questions as they await God's redemption of the whole creation Swinton explores essential practices of redemption lament forgiveness thoughtfulness hospitality and friendship drawing out their implications for the faithful resistance of evil Enhanced by case studies from current events and by Swinton's own experience as a pastor and mental health nurse Raging with Compassion seeks to inspire fresh Christian responses and modes of practice in our broken fallen world The Work of Theology Stanley Hauerwas,2015 Postliberal Theology and the Church Catholic George A. Lindbeck,2012-04 Examines the Roman Catholic roots of postliberal theology via conversations with three seminal postliberal theologians George Lindbeck David Burrell and Stanley Hauerwas Putting on the Mind of Christ Woods, James E.,2021-02-17 Putting on the Mind of Christ examines the biblical historical scientific and theological aspects of contemplative prayer and mysticism that has the effect of changing our outlook on the world and seeing God and neighbor as a holistic unity Restorative Christ Geoff Broughton,2015-03-26 The conviction that Jesus is the restorative Christ demands a commitment to the justice he articulated The justice of the restorative Christ is justice with reconciliation justice with repentance justice with repair and justice without retaliation The Gospel of Luke and the book of Acts portray the life death and resurrection of Jesus Christ through the radical concept of enemy love In conversation with Dietrich Bonhoeffer Jesus for others John Howard Yoder a nonviolent Jesus Miroslav Volf an embracing Jesus and Chris Marshall a compassionate Jesus Broughton demonstrates what the restorative Christ means for us today Following the restorative Christ faithfully involves imaginative disciplines seeing remembering and desiring conversational disciplines naming questioning and forgiving and embodied disciplines absorbing repairing and embracing Working with Words Stanley Hauerwas,2011-02-16 The crucial challenge for theology is that when it is read the reader thinks This is true Recognizing claims that are true enables readers to identify an honest expression of life's complexities The trick is to show that theological claims the words that must be used to speak of God are necessary if the theologian is to speak honestly of the complexities of life The worst betrayal of the task of theology comes when the theologian fears that the words he or she must use are not necessary This new collection of essays lectures and sermons by Stanley Hauerwas is focused on the central challenge risk and difficulty of this necessity working with words about God The task of theology is to help us do things with words God is not a word peculiar to theology but if God is a word to be properly used by Christians the word must be disciplined by Christian practice It should therefore not be surprising that like any word we must learn how to say God

Narrative Theology and the Hermeneutical Virtues Jacob L. Goodson,2015-01-21 In Narrative Theology and the Hermeneutical Virtues Humility Patience Prudence Jacob L Goodson offers a philosophical analysis of the arguments and tendencies of Hans Frei's and Stanley Hauerwas narrative theologies Narrative theology names a way of doing theology and thinking theologically that is part of a greater movement called the return to Scripture The return to Scripture movement makes a case for Scripture as the proper object of study within Christian theology philosophy of religion and religious ethics While thinkers within this movement agree that Scripture is the proper object of study within philosophy and religious studies there is major disagreement over what the word narrative describes in narrative theology The Yale theologian Hans

Frei argues that because Scripture is the proper object of study within Christian theology and the philosophy of religion Scripture must be the exclusive object of study To think theologically means paying as close attention as possible to the details of the biblical narratives in their literal sense Different from Frei's contentions the Christian ethicist at Duke University Stanley Hauerwas claims if Scripture is the proper object of study within Christian theology then the category of narrative teaches us that we ought to give our scholarly attention to the interpretations and performances of Scripture Hauerwas emphasizes the continuity between the biblical narratives and the traditions of the church This disagreement is best described as a hermeneutical one Frei thinks that the primary place where interpretation happens is in the text Hauerwas thinks that the primary place where interpretation occurs is in the community of interpreters In order to move beyond the dichotomy found between Frei's and Hauerwas work but to remain within the return to Scripture movement Goodson constructs three hermeneutical virtues humility patience and prudence These virtues help professors and scholars within Christian theology philosophy of religion and religious ethics maintain objectivity in their fields of study

Christianity and the Culture of Relativism in the Anthropologies of Joseph Ratzinger and Stanley Hauerwas

Charles Ssenyondo STL STD, 2012-12-17 Joseph Ratzinger rates relativism as the greatest challenge of the Church today What he describes is not a new phenomenon but his theology highlights its origins and magnitude Stanley Hauerwas fights the same battle on the Protestant side This book attempts to discover and streamline their deliberations showing their meeting points and where they differ and remedies they offer to combat the crisis It seeks to argue out the best response to relativism that can most appropriately benefit both Western and African Christendom Despite being a Western phenomenon relativism is no longer an exclusively Western problem It is rather imposing itself as the new world culture depicting all other cultures and perspectives as inferior Ratzinger christened this the Dictatorship of Relativism while Hauerwas calls it Policing of Christian Values While Ratzinger's greatest worry is relativism's denial of Truth mostly from outside the ekklesia for Hauerwas relativism is not a force from without of the Church but part and parcel of the people's modern ways of life in which Christian values are persecuted in the name of peaceful existence Both perspectives point at a crisis of cultures where the past is rejected and the future disconnected from the present which trend inevitably leads to disintegration a leap into the dark While the pre-Modern world sought God the Modern world sought knowledge The contemporary world seeks relativism But all is not lost The truth can still be found through the word of God and Christian culture

Scriptural Interpretation Darren Sarisky, 2012-08-21 In Scriptural Interpretation Sarisky brilliantly draws together Patristic Theology and a theological interpretation of Scripture in the modern day to examine Scripture's central place in the life of the Church and ordinary believers Examines the importance of scriptural interpretation in the life of Christians and of the church Draws together two lively discussions a study of the theology of the Cappadocian fathers and a discussion of theological interpretation of Scripture in the twentieth and twenty-first centuries Covers an impressive historical range from Basil of

Caesarea right up to the work of the major contemporary thinkers Stanley Hauerwas and Rowan Williams Offers a sophisticated understanding of many Patristic thinkers an area of huge current interest in the field and challenges accepted readings of the theology of Basil of Caesarea The Making of Stanley Hauerwas David B. Hunsicker,2019-09-10 Stanley Hauerwas is often associated with the postliberal theological movement yet he also claims to stand within Karl Barth's theological tradition Which is true Theologian David Hunsicker offers a reevaluation of Hauerwas's theology arguing that he is both a postliberal and a Barthian theologian helping us understand both the formation and the ongoing significance of one of America's great theologians Leaps of Faith Robert J. Dean,2017-02-14 If you are passionate about participating in the recovery of preaching for the spiritual formation of God's people then you will want to jump into this lively collection of biblically rigorous culturally intuitive grace-drenched sermons Robert Dean sets the bar very high even as he throws the gauntlet down with these remarkable expressions of all that preaching was supposed to be and can still become Animated by the conviction that the preached word is the playground of the Living Word the pages of Leaps of Faith are populated by saints and sinners pimps and prophets Unexpectedly and delightfully Bono works alongside Bonhoeffer Dr Phil learns a lesson from the Amish and a discussion of body odor primes the senses for contemplating the mission of God Rooted deeply in the lives of actual worshipping communities these wonder-laden sermons from the prophetic imagination of an emerging pastor-theologian dare the reader to leap into the continuing story of the Triune God and in doing so discover that all of life has been taken up in the Gospel of Jesus Christ Peace, Culture, and Violence Fuat Gursozlu,2018-03-06 Peace Culture and Violence examines deeper sources of violence by providing a critical reflection on the forms of violence that permeate everyday life and our inability to recognize these forms of violence Exploring the elements of culture that legitimize and normalize violence the essays collected in this volume invite us to recognize and critically approach the violent aspects of reality we live in and encourage us to envision peaceful alternatives Including chapters written by important scholars in the fields of Peace Studies and Social and Political Philosophy the volume represents an endeavour to seek peace in a world deeply marred by violence Topics include thug culture language hegemony police violence war on drugs war terrorism gender anti-Semitism and other topics Contributors are Amin Asfari Edward Demenchonok Andrew Fiala William Gay Fuat Gursozlu Joshua M Hall Ron Hirschbein Todd Jones Sanjay Lal Alessandro Rovati Laleye Solomon Akinyemi David Speetzen and Lloyd Steffen
