Although the Great War might be regarded as the heyday of the big gun at sea it also saw the maturing of underwater weapons the mine and torpedo as well as the first signs of the future potency of air power Between 1914 and 1918 weapons development was both rapid and complex so this book has two functions on the one hand it details all the guns torpedoes mines aerial bombs and anti submarine systems employed during that period but it also seeks to explain the background to their evolution how the weapons were perceived at the time and how they were actually used This involves a discussion of tactics and emphasises the key enabling technology of fire control and gun mountings In this respect the book treats the war as a transition from naval weapons which were essentially experimental at its outbreak to a state where they pointed directly to what would be used in World War Two Based largely on original research this sophisticated book is more than a catalogue of the weapons offering insight into some of the most important technical and operational factors influencing the war at sea In this respect it is more broadly significant than its title might suggest Work 3.0 Avik Chanda,2023-04-24

Muslim Fathers and Mistrusted Masculinity in Danish Schools Anne Hovgaard Jørgensen,2023-03-16 This book seeks to provide a deeper understanding of Muslim migrant fathers experiences of home school cooperation in Danish schools by identifying and contradicting a phenomenon of mistrusted masculinity This term refers to a negative stereotype of Muslim migrant men that figures in political and media rhetoric where they are portrayed as controlling and patriarchal

Throughout the ethnography migrant fathers confront this stereotype and express how they must navigate around this negative image in their struggle to be acknowledged as good fathers by their children's schools J rgensen uses Geertzian thick description of micro interaction between fathers and Danish teachers to explore the complex interplay of often untested assumptions misunderstandings and untoward effects The Photographic News ,1896
