Genre Theory and Historical Change Ralph Cohen, 2017-11-10 Ralph Cohen was highly regarded as the visionary founding editor of New Literary History but his own theoretical essays appeared in such a scattering of publications that their conceptual originality underlying coherence and range of application have not been readily apparent This new selection of twenty essays many published here for the first time offers a synthesis of Cohen's vital work In these pages Cohen introduces change and continuity as essential modes of discourse in the study of literary behavior an approach that can produce reliable narratives of literary artistic and cultural change Here Cohen conceptualizes and develops a compelling innovative theory of genre that promotes a systematic study of historical change offering rewarding insights for twenty first century scholars Theoretical Issues in Literary History

David Perkins,1991 Literary history the dominant form of literary scholarship throughout the nineteenth century is currently recapturing the imaginations of a new generation of scholars eager to focus on the context of literature after a half century or more of close readings of isolated texts This book represents current thinking on some of the theoretical issues and dilemmas in the conception and writing of literary history expressed by a group of scholars from North America Europe and Australia They consider afresh a broad range of topics the role of literary history in new societies the problem of finding a starting point for literary history the problem of literary classification problems of ideology of institutional mediation periodization and the attack on literary history Afro-Dog Bénédicte Boisseron,2018-08-14 The animal rights organization PETA asked Are Animals the New Slaves in a controversial 2005 fundraising campaign that same year after the Humane Society rescued pets in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina while black residents were neglected some declared that white America cares more about pets than black people These are but two recent examples of a centuries long history in which black life has been pitted against animal life Does comparing human and animal suffering trivialize black pain or might the intersections of racialization and animalization shed light on interlinked forms of oppression In Afro Dog B n dicte Boisseron investigates the relationship between race and the animal in the history and culture of the Americas and the black Atlantic exposing a hegemonic system that compulsively links and opposes blackness and animality to measure the value of life She analyzes the association between black civil disobedience and canine repression a history that spans the era of slavery through the use of police dogs against protesters during the civil rights movement of the 1960s to today in places like Ferguson Missouri She also traces the lineage of blackness and the animal in Caribbean literature and struggles over minorities right to pet ownership alongside nuanced readings of Derrida and other French theorists Drawing on recent debates on black lives and animal welfare Afro Dog reframes the fast growing interest in human animal relationships by positioning blackness as a focus of animal inquiry opening new possibilities for animal studies and black studies to think side by side Film/Genre Rick Altman,2019-07-25 Film Genre revises our notions of film genre and connects the roles played by industry critics and audiences in making and re making genre Altman reveals the conflicting stakes for which the genre game has been played and recognises that the term genre has different meanings for different groups basing his new genre theory on the uneasy competitive yet complimentary relationship among genre users and discussing a huge range of films from The Great Train Robbery to Star Wars and from The Jazz Singer to The Player Fusion of Cultures? ,2022-02-28 The intention of this second volume of ASNEL Papers is to counter orthodox post colonial emphases on alterity subversion and counter discourse with another set of concepts fusion syncretism hybridity creolisation cross fertilisation cross cultural identity diaspora Topics covered include gender and identity syncretic aesthetics in Nigerian and South African performing arts hyphenated identities in diasporic fiction reversals of colonial mimicry in Ugandan fiction cultural reflexivity in the Victorian juvenile novel the persistence of colonial traits in Zimbabwean war fiction syncretic strategies of resistance in African prison memoirs indigene life histories and intercultural authorship neo essentialism in post colonial critiques of the Rushdie Affair US multiculturalism and political praxis creolisation in Surinam cultural complexities in the Caribbean epic literary representations of the Haitian Revolution Authors treated within broader frameworks include Margaret Atwood R M Ballantyne Marie Claire Blais Alejo Carpentier Roch Carrier Aim C saire Michelle Cliff Tsitsi Dangarembga Edouard Glissant Andrew Hacker Eddy L Harris Wilson Harris Bessie Head C L R James Maxine Hong Kingston Jayanta Mahapatra Paule Marshall A K Mehrotra Timothy Mo Bharati Mukherjee Ngugi wa Thiong o Akiki Nyabongo Eugene O Neill Molefe Pheto Salman Rushdie Wole Soyinka Ted Trindell and Derek Walcott There are also poems by David Woods and Afua Cooper

The Arena of Satire David H. J. Larmour, 2016-01-04 In this first comprehensive reading of Juvenal's satires in more than fifty years David H J Larmour deftly revises and sharpens our understanding of the second century Roman writer who stands as the archetype for all later practitioners of the satirist's art The enduring attraction of Juvenal's satires is twofold they not only introduce the character of the angry satirist but also offer vivid descriptions of everyday life in Rome at the height of the Empire In Larmour's interpretation these two elements are inextricably linked The Arena of Satire presents the satirist as flaneur traversing the streets of Rome in search of its authentic core those distinctly Roman virtues that have disappeared amid the corruption of the age What the vengeful punishing satirist does to his victims as Larmour shows echoes what the Roman state did to outcasts and criminals in the arena of the Colosseum The fact that the arena was the most prominent building in the city and is mentioned frequently by Juvenal makes it an ideal lens through which to examine the spectacular and punishing characteristics of Roman satire And the fact that Juvenal undertakes his search for the uncorrupted authentic Rome within the very buildings and landmarks that make up the actual corrupt Rome of his day gives his sixteen satires their uniquely paradoxical and contradictory nature Larmour's exploration of the arena of satire guides us through Juvenal's search for the true Rome winding from one poem to the next He combines close readings of passages from individual satires with discussions of Juvenal's representation of Roman space and topography the nature of the arena experience and the network of connections among the satirist the gladiator and the editor or producer of Colosseum entertainments The Arena of Satire also offers a new definition of Juvenalian satire as a particular form arising from the intersection of the body and the urban landscape a form whose defining features survive in the works of several later satirists from Jonathan Swift and Evelyn Waugh to contemporary writers such as Russian novelist Victor Pelevin and Irish dramatist Martin McDonagh

Screen Tastes Charlotte Brunsdon, 2005-07-26 Charlotte Brunsdon's key writings on film and television are brought together with new introductions which contextualise and update the arguments The focus is on the tastes and pleasures of the female consumer as she is produced by popular film and television

How Genre Governs Creation in the Medieval Icelandic Sagas Yoav Tirosh, 2025-06-17 This book sets out to answer why genre matters when analysing sagas medieval literature and creation in general How Genre Governs Creation in the Medieval Icelandic Sagas applies theoretical observations on the workings of genre to saga literature analysis including media and film genre theory as well as observations from reader response theory The text primarily focuses on slendingas gur a group of prose or prosimetric texts that concern the medieval Norse world usually taking place in the period between the end of the ninth and the mid eleventh centuries and focusing on Iceland Tirosh proposes new interpretations to several sagas but more importantly provides a fresh perspective on the importance and application of genre theory to medieval literary studies Genre, 2007 Mentor and Muse Blas Falconer, Beth Martinelli, Helena Mesa, 2010-08-30 In Mentor and Muse a collection of twenty nine insightful essays by some of today s leading poetic minds editors Blas Falconer Beth Martinelli and Helena Mesa have brought together an illuminating anthology that draws upon both established and emerging poets to create a one of a kind resource and unlock the secrets of writing and revising poetry Gathered here are numerous experts eager to share their wisdom with other writers Each author examines in detail a particular poetic element shedding new light on the endless possibilities of poetic forms Addressed within are such topics as the fluid possibilities of imagery in poetry the duality of myth and the personal and the power of one to unlock the other the surprising versatility of traditional poetic forms and the pleasure of collaboration with other poets Also explored in depth are the formative roles of cultural identity and expectations and their effect on composition advice on how to develop one s personal poetic style and approach the importance of setting in reading and meaning and the value of indirection in the lyric poem Challenges to conventional concepts of beauty are examined through Shakespeare s sonnets and the ghost of Longfellow is called upon to guide students through the rewards and roadblocks of writing popular poetry Poetic persona is demystified through Newton s law of gravity while the countless permutations of punctuation are revealed with analysis of e e cummings and W S Merwin xml namespace prefix o ns urn schemas microsoft com office office The essays include the full text of the poems discussed and detailed relevant writing exercises that allow students the opportunity to directly implement the strategies they have learned While many advanced topics such as authenticity discordant music and prosody are covered this highly readable volume is as user friendly as it is informative Offering a variety of aesthetics and approaches to tackling the issues of composition Mentor and Muse takes poets beyond the simple stages of poetic terms and strategies These authors invite students to explore more advanced concepts enabling them to draw on the traditions of the past while at the same time forging their own creative paths into the future Chosen as one of the Best Books for Writers by Poets Writers magazine Sign Crossroads in Global Perspective Susan Petrilli, 2017-09-08 Language is the species specific human version of the animal system of communication In contrast to non human animals language enables humans to invent a plurality of possible worlds reflect upon signs be responsible for our actions gain conscious awareness of our inevitable mutual involvement in the network of life on this planet and be responsibly involved in the destiny of the planet The author looks at semiotics the study of signs symbols and communication as developing sequentially rather than successively more synchronically than diachronically She discusses the contemporary phenomenon that people in today s society have witnessed and participated in as part of the development of semiotics Although there is a long history preceding semiotics in a sense the field is as a phenomenon more of our time than of any time past Its leading figures whom Petrilli examines belong to the twentieth and twenty first century Semiotics is associated with a capacity for listening This capacity is also the condition for reconnecting to and recovering the ancient vocation of semiotics as that branch of medical science relating to the interpretation of signs or symptoms The pragmatic aspect of global semiotics studies the impact of language or signs on those who use them and looks for consequences in actual practice In this respect Petrilli theorizes that the task for semiotics in the era of globalization is nothing less than to take responsibility for life in its totality
