Commonwealth Law Schools 2003-2004, 2003 Directory of Commonwealth Law Schools 2003-2004 Clea, 2002-12-18

There are more than 400 Commonwealth law schools all having an entry within the latest edition of The Directory of Commonwealth Law Schools. Each entry includes full contact details, courses offered, law journals published and research centres. This edition has been thoroughly revised, updated and expanded to take account of changes over the last two years. This directory also contains full details of the activities of the Commonwealth Legal Education Association together with a section devoted to law in the Commonwealth. This includes copies of the major Commonwealth instruments and details of Commonwealth activities of particular interest to law teachers and practitioners, making it a valuable resource and reference work. Directory of Commonwealth Law Schools Commonwealth Legal Education Association, 2006 Commonwealth

Law Bulletin, Volume 30, The Commonwealth Yearbook 2005 Richard Green, 2005-09 The Commonwealth Yearbook 2005 is an essential guide to the 53 member countries of the Commonwealth and the many organizations that work to promote international cooperation among the governments, professions and cultures of nearly two billion people.

Stakeholders in the Law School Fiona Cownie, 2010-01-28 This collection brings together a distinguished group of researchers to examine the power relations which are played out in university law schools as a result of the different pressures exerted upon them by a range of different stakeholders. From students to governments, from lawyers to universities, a host of institutions and actors believe that law schools should take account of a vast number of often conflicting considerations when teaching their students, designing curricula, carrying out research and so on. How do law schools deal with these pressures? What should their response be to the stakeholders who urge them to follow agendas emanating from outside the law school itself? To what extent should some of these agendas play a greater role in the thinking of law schools?

Land Law in Asian Countries Oleg Igorevich Krassov, 2022 The monograph covers the issues related to the evolution of land tenure systems, land reforms, the main features of formal land law that is in force in the various legal systems of the countries of South East and Southeast Asia, and customary land rights. The current state of land law in Asian countries, land rights, the provision and suspension of these rights, the relationship between formal law and customary land tenure systems, the problems of recognizing customary communal land rights are analyzed. For students, graduate students and teachers of law schools, employees of legislative, executive and judicial authorities as well as for all those interested in issues of land, civil law and comparative jurisprudence. McGeorge Law Review, 2008 American Library Directory 2003-2004
