Dirt New Geographies Of Cleanliness And Contamination:

Dirt Ben Campkin, Rosie Cox, 2007-12-19 Addresses the themes of dirt and cleanliness in relation to domestic urban and rural space Dirt is considered at a theoretical level but also as that which slips easily between concept matter experience and metaphor P 1 Dirt Ben Campkin, Rosie Cox, 2012 Production of Disaster and Recovery in Post-Earthquake Haiti Juliana Svistova, Loretta Pyles, 2018-02-21 Natural disasters have long been seen as naturally generated events but as scientific technological and social knowledge of disasters has become more sophisticated the part that people and systems play in disaster events has become more apparent Production of Disaster and Recovery in Post Earthquake Haiti demonstrates how social processes impact disasters as they unfold through the distribution of power and resources the use of discourses and images of disaster and the economic and social systems and relations which underlie affected communities The authors show how these processes played out in post earthquake Haiti to set in motion the mechanics of the disaster industrial complex to re produce disasters and recovery rather than bring sustainable change The book reveals that disaster and recovery rhetoric helped create fertile conditions for neoliberal disaster governance militarized and digital humanitarianism non profiteering and disaster opportunism to flourish while further disenfranchising marginalized populations However the Haiti earthquake as is the case with all disaster sites was ripe with mutual aid community building and collective action all of which further local resilience The authors seek to re construct dominant discourses policies and practices to advance equitable participatory partnerships with local community actors and propose a praxis for a people s recovery as an action oriented framework for resisting the transnational disaster industrial machinery The authors argue for new synergies in policymaking and program development that can respond to emergencies and plan for true long term sustainable development after disasters that focuses as much on humans and the natural world as it does on economic progress Production of Disaster and Recovery in Post Earthquake Haiti will be of great interest to students and scholars of disaster studies humanitarian studies development studies Haitian studies geography and environmental studies as well as to non governmental organizations humanitarians and policymakers Young Refugees and Forced Displacement Liliana Riga, Mary Holmes, Arek Dakessian, Johannes Langer, David Anderson, 2020-12-29 Young Refugees and Forced Displacement is about young Syrian and Iraqi refugees navigating the complex realities of forced displacement in Beirut It is based on a British Academy funded two year project with 51 displaced youths aged 8 to 17 and under the care of three local humanitarian organisations Focus groups interviews and innovative arts based methods were used to learn about their everyday lives At the end of the project we coproduced with them a public mural allowing unexpected epistemological and methodological reflections on researching refugees and the right to opacity Families and friendships humanitarian caregiving racism discrimination and everyday decencies and civilities make up the stuff of their ordinary everyday encounters within refugeedom defining both its sharper edges and its more inadvertent and quietly political ones Thus refugeedom as we conceive it includes the humanitarian condition but goes a little beyond it to become also a human condition of political alterity In navigating refugeedom the young Syrians and Iraqis become sophisticated political and moral actors using emotional reflexivity as they engage layered subjectivities to define the terms of their own forced displacement This book will be of interest to policymakers humanitarian organisations social science scholars and students working on refugees displacement humanitarianism intimacies and emotions racism and discrimination It may also be of interest to displaced youth

Metagraffiti Chandra Morrison Ariyo, 2024-12-13 Focusing on graffiti scenes from S o Paulo and Santiago in Chile this innovative visual ethnography examines diverse forms of self reference and metareference that appear in Latin American graffiti art Chandra Morrison Ariyo works across multiple scales of contemporary graffiti production from tags to massive murals to show how painting the city enables individuals to reimagine their own position within the material and social structures around them Metagraffiti reveals how practitioners such as Tinho OSGEMEOS Grin and Bisy use metagraffiti features to influence public perceptions about this art form and its effect on the urban environment Ultimately Metagraffiti proposes a novel conceptual framework that highlights graffiti s ability to forge alternative forms of movement sociality and value within Latin American cityscapes These urban images invite us to imagine what the city could be when seen as a site for action and imagination

Exploring Gender in Vernacular Architecture Jessica Ellen Sewell, 2025-02-03 In Exploring Gender in Vernacular Architecture Jessica Ellen Sewell considers the gender of those who create and shape spaces how gender ideology contributes to and manifests itself in built form and what research methods make the observation of gendered experience possible She discusses single gender mixed gender and queer spaces providing a comprehensive look at how gender influences the design and construction of those spaces how those spaces are used and the relationship between gender and the broader architectural landscape In her study Sewell also provides an expansive view of how gender intersects with other categories of power and difference such as race class and age and how this intersectionality contributes to the design and use of built spaces In addition to examining the spaces themselves Sewell explores research methods for studying gendered experiences in architecture She argues that traditional research methods in vernacular architecture studies which often focus on building based fieldwork should be complemented by other methods such as letters oral histories and diaries that expand the understanding of buildings beyond their construction date and reveal how those buildings have been used and represented over time Digging into primary records Sewell posits can help challenge our assumptions about who influences architecture and urban development illuminating the roles of women and others in the building and shaping of space Thoroughly researched yet accessible for scholars new to the study of vernacular architecture Exploring Gender in Vernacular Architecture bridges the gap between specialized scholarship and broader public understanding Students of architectural history gender studies and cultural history will find it a valuable resource not only for examining the relationship between gender and architecture but for engaging new methodological tools that may further their own research

As an Equal? Rosie Cox, Nicky Busch, 2018-11-15 Au pairs are relied upon by tens of thousands of UK families to do everything from childcare and housework to elder care pet feeding and waiting at dinner parties Traditionally thought of as privileged and well educated young women having fun on a gap year abroad au pairs have been excluded from many of the recent discussions on migrant domestic labour However since 2008 au pairing has been effectively unregulated in the UK and the result is that au pairs now constitute one of the poorest paid and least protected groups of workers Through an examination of lived experiences As an Equal draws on detailed research to examine au pairs and the families who host them in contemporary Britain revealing au pairing to have become increasingly indistinguishable from other forms of domestic labour Crucially hosting an au pair is shown to form part of families attempts to provide good enough childcare in the context of extended working hours and poor public childcare provision This increased reliance of families on an exploited workforce is shown to form part of the wider political climate of economic austerity and raises profound questions about the position of women within the neoliberal economy Ecologies of Urbanism in India Anne M. Rademacher, K. Sivaramakrishnan, 2013-03-01 Essays follow rapidly proliferating and resource intensive Indian urbanism in everyday environments Case studies on nature conservation in cities urban housing and slum development waste management urban planning and contestations over the quality of air water and sanitation in Delhi and Mumbai illuminate urban ecology per perspectives throughout the twentieth century The collection highlights how struggles over the environment and one s quality of life in urban centers are increasingly framed in terms of their future place in a landscape of global sustainability The text brings historical particularity and ethnographic nuance to questions of urban ecology and offers novel insight into theoretical and practical debates on urbanism and sustainability Ladies and Gents Olga Gershenson, Barbara Penner, 2009-07-15 Talking about toilets in all their material social symbolic and discursive complexity Materialities of Age and Ageing: Concepts of a Material Gerontology Grit Höppner, Monika Urban, 2019-06-18 In gerontological research the understanding of age and ageing changed in the last decade Biologic determined explanations no longer prevail in this research field Instead ideas of social constructivism are frequently used These ideas define the state of age and the process of ageing as social constructions steeping ageing in social and cultural assumptions ascriptions and expectations From a social constructivist perspective age and ageing are not just identified as dependency deficit and need for care as it was foremost accelerated from a biological perspective but with the life course and thus with individual lifestyles experiences attitudes and practices as well as institutional and economic structures A prominent social constructivist concept is doing age Similar to doing gender the concept of doing age assumes age as taking place in the form of a social praxis within everyday life interactions between people and thus in performances embedded in discourses through which social hierarchies and ideals proceed Despite the paradigm shift that social constructivist concepts enable in gerontological thinking they reveal their blind spot when it comes to the materiality of ageing and thus to fleshy sensual experiences human and non human ontologies and agencies

Addressing these materialities of ageing brings up its own critique on definitions of ageing bodies and material environments This framing does not presume that age and ageing are solely products of human to human interactions or those of formative environments or of discourses Rather humans non humans and discourses become essential parts of ageing processes Such a material framing enables us new insights into forms of age and ageing and thus offers an opportunity for scholars to engage critically with materialities of age and ageing This eBook explores theoretical methodological and empirical concepts of such a Material Gerontology Literature and the Peripheral City Jason Finch,Markku Salmela,2015-05-27 Cities have always been defined by their centrality But literature demonstrates that their diverse peripheries define them too from suburbs to slums rubbish dumps to nightclubs and entire failed cities The contributors to this collection explore literary urban peripheries through readings of literature from four continents and numerous cities Emerging Infectious Diseases and Society P. Washer,2010-05-07 In the 1970s it seemed infectious diseases had been conquered but today global epidemics seem to pose a new more sinister threat This fascinating study explores these new infectious diseases such as Swine Flu SARS and AIDS and the re emergence of old threats and discusses their role in society Visual Merchandising Louisa Iarocci,2017-07-05 Situated at the crossroads of visual culture and consumerism this essay collection examines visual merchandising as both a business and an art It seeks to challenge that scholarly ambivalence that often celebrates the spectacle but denies the agenda of consumerism The volume considers strategies in the imaging of selling from the mid nineteenth century to the present in terms of the visual interaction that occurs between the commodity and the consumer and between body and space Under the categories of Promotion Product and Place contributors to the volume examine the strategies in the presentation of retail goods and environments that range from print advertising to product design to store display and architecture Visual Merchandising The Image of Selling is located directly at the nexus of business practice and cultural myth where the spectator never loses sight of their status as buyer and the object of desire is always still a commodity The Literature of Waste S. Morrison,2015-06-03 Tracing material and metaphoric waste through the Western canon ranging from Beowulf to Samuel Beckett Susan Signe Morrison disrupts traditional perceptions of waste to better understand how we theorize manage and are implicated in what is discarded and seen as garbage Engaging a wide range of disciplines Morrison addresses how the materiality of waste has been sedimented into a variety of toxic metaphors If scholars can read waste as possessing dynamic agency how might that change the ethics of refuse ing and ostracizing wasted humans A major contribution to the growing field of Waste Studies this comparative and theoretically innovative book confronts the reader with the ethical urgency present in waste literature itself Urban Captivity Narratives Heather Hillsburg,2019-07-30 Evolving from a rigorous study of post 9 11 women s writing Dr Heather Hillsburg s new monograph identifies an emerging genre which she names Urban Captivity Narratives Using examples ranging from memoir to young adult fiction each of the texts examined in the study follows a female protagonist who has survived abduction been held captive for months or even years and subjected to sexual emotional and physical abuse by their captor Hillsburg contextualizes these narratives and takes into consideration our current political atmosphere the role of patriarchy and various social anxieties that come into play when discussing the kind of oppression seen in these narratives Remaking London Ben Campkin,2013-08-13 Between the slum clearances of the early twentieth century and debates about the post Olympic city the drive to regenerate London has intensified Yet today with a focus on increasing land values regeneration schemes purporting to foster diverse and creative new neighbourhoods typically displace precisely the qualities activities and communities they claim to support In Remaking London Ben Campkin provides a lucid and stimulating historical account of urban regeneration exploring how decline and renewal have been imagined and realised at different scales Focussing on present day regeneration areas that have been key to the capital s modern identity Campkin explores how these places have been stigmatised through identification with material degradation and spatial and social disorder Drawing on diverse sources including journalism photography cinema theatre architectural design advertising and television he illuminates how ideas of decline drive urban change Richly illustrated and engagingly written Remaking London is both a compelling account of contested sites from the capital s recent history and a powerful critique of the contradictions of contemporary regeneration

After the end David L. Pike,2024-04-09 After the End argues that the cultural imaginaries and practices of the Cold War continue to deeply shape the present in profound but largely unnoticed ways across the global North and in the global South The argument draws examples from literature and literary criticism film music the historical and social scientific record and past and present physical sites to consider the bunker as a material form an image and as a fantasy that took shape in the global North in the 1960s and that spread globally into the twenty first century After the End reminds us not only that most of the world s peoples have lived with or died from apocalyptic conditions for centuries but that the Cold War imaginaries that grew from and fed those conditions continue to survive as well 24 Bars to Kill Andrew B. Armstrong,2019-06-06

The most clearly identifiable and popular form of Japanese hip hop ghetto or gangsta music has much in common with its corresponding American subgenres including its portrayal of life on the margins confrontational style and aspirational rags to riches narratives Contrary to depictions of an ethnically and economically homogeneous Japan gangsta J hop gives voice to the suffering deprivation and social exclusion experienced by many modern Japanese 24 Bars to Kill offers a fascinating ethnographic account of this music as well as the subculture around it showing how gangsta hip hop arises from widespread dissatisfaction and malaise Machines for Living Victoria Rosner,2020-02-04

Changes in the routines of domestic life were among the most striking social phenomena of the period between the two World Wars when the home came into focus as a problem to be solved re imagined streamlined electrified and generally cleaned up Modernist writers understood themselves to be living in an epochal moment when the design and meaning of home life were reconceived Moving among literature architecture design science and technology Machines for Living shows how the modernization of the home led to profound changes in domestic life and relied on a set of emergent concepts including standardization scientific method functionalism efficiency science and others that form the basis of literary modernism and stand at the confluence of modernism and modernity Even as modernist writers criticized the expanding reach of modernization into the home they drew on its conceptual vocabulary to develop both the thematic and formal commitments of literary modernism Rosner s work develops a new methodology for interdisciplinary modernist studies and shows how the reinvention of domestic life is central to modernist literature

Body Odor and Biopolitics Nat Lazakis, 2021-02-18 Originally rooted in stereotypes about race and class the modern norm of bodily odorlessness emerged amid 19th and early 20 century developments in urban sanitation labor relations and product marketing Today discrimination against strong smelling people includes spatial segregation and termination from employment yet goes unchallenged by social justice movements This book examines how neoliberal rhetoric legitimizes treating strong smelling people as defective individuals rather than a marginalized group elevates authority figures into arbiters of odor and drives sales of hygiene products for making bodies acceptable
