Dirt on Delight, 2009 Live Form Jenni Sorkin, 2016-07-26 Sorkin focuses on three Americans who promoted ceramics as an advanced artistic medium Marguerite Wildenhain a Bauhaus trained potter and writer Mary Caroline M C Richards who renounced formalism at Black Mountain College to pursue new performative methods and Susan Peterson best known for her live throwing demonstrations on public television Together these women pioneered a hands on teaching style and led educational and therapeutic activities for war veterans students the elderly and many others Dirt on Delight Joshua Mosley, Jenelle Porter, 2009 22 artists explore clay's basic appeal elemental power and artistic possibilities New Directions in Ceramics Jo Dahn, 2016-03-31 New Directions in Ceramics explores and responds to contemporary ceramists use of innovative modes of practice investigating how change is happening and interpreting key works Jo Dahn provides an overview of the current ceramics landscape identifying influential exhibitions events and publications to convey a flavour of debates at a time when much about the character of ceramics is in a state of flux What non traditional activities does the term ceramics now encompass How have these practices developed and how have they been accommodated by institutions in Britain and internationally Work by a wide range of ceramists including Edmund de Waal Nina Hole Clare Twomey Keith Harrison Alexandra Engelfriet Linda Sormin Walter McConnell and Phoebe Cummings is considered Following an extended introduction on ceramics in critical discourse chapters on performance installation raw clay and figuration each provide an introductory overview to the area under discussion with a closer examination of work by key ceramists and illustrations of relevant examples The interplay of actions and ideas is a central concern critical and cultural contexts are woven into the account throughout and dialogues with practitioners provide a privileged insight into thought processes as well as studio activities Hannah Wilke Tamara Schenkenberg, Donna Wingate, 2021 Eros and Oneness Tamara H Schenkenberg Elective Affinities Hannah Wilke's Ceramics in Context Glenn Adamson Needed Erase Her Don't Connie Butler Daughter Mother Catherine Opie Ha Ha Hannah Jeanine Oleson Cycling Through Gestures to Strike a Pose Nadia Myre Play and Care Hayv Kahraman Cindy Nemser and Hannah Wilke in Conversation 1975 Sloppy Craft Elaine Cheasley Paterson, Susan Surette, 2015-09-24 Sloppy Craft Postdisciplinarity and the Crafts brings together leading international artists and critics to explore the possibilities and limitations of the idea of sloppy craft craft that is messy or unfinished looking in its execution or appearance or both The contributors address sloppiness in contemporary art and craft practices including painting weaving sewing and ceramics consider the importance of traditional concepts of skill and the implications of sloppiness for a new 21st century emphasis on inter and postdisciplinarity as well as for activist performance queer and Aboriginal practices In addition to critical essays the book includes a conversation section in which contemporary artists and practitioners discuss challenges and opportunities of sloppy craft in their practice and teaching and an afterword by Glenn Adamson Ceramics and the Museum Laura Breen, 2019-08-22 Ceramics and the Museum interrogates the relationship between art oriented ceramic practice and museum practice in Britain since 1970 Laura Breen examines the identity of ceramics as an art form drawing on examples of work by artist makers such as Edmund de Waal and Grayson Perry addresses the impact of policy making on ceramic practice traces the shift from object to project in ceramic practice and in the evolution of ceramic sculpture explores how museums facilitated multisensory engagement with ceramic material and process and analyses the exhibition as a text in itself Proposing the notion that gestures of showing such as exhibitions and installation art can be read as statements she examines what they tell us about the identity of ceramics at particular moments in time Highlighting the ways in which these gestures have constructed ceramics as a category of artistic practice Breen argues that they reveal gaps between narrative and practice which in turn can be used to deconstruct the art What Makes a Great Exhibition? Paula Marincola, 2007-02-16 For better or worse museums are changing from forbidding bastions of rare art into audience friendly institutions that often specialize in blockbuster exhibitions designed to draw crowds But in the midst of this sea change one largely unanswered question stands out What makes a great exhibition Some of the world's leading curators and art historians try to answer this question here as they examine the elements of a museum exhibition from every angle What Makes a Great Exhibition investigates the challenges facing American and European contemporary art in particular exploring such issues as group exhibitions video and craft and the ways that architecture influences the nature of the exhibitions under its roof The distinguished contributors address diverse topics including Studio Museum in Harlem director Thelma Golden's examination of ethnically focused exhibitions and Robert Storr director of the 2007 Venice Biennale and formerly of the Museum of Modern Art on the meaning of exhibition and exhibitionmaker A thought provoking volume on the practice of curatorial work and the mission of modern museums What Makes A Great Exhibition will be indispensable reading for all art professionals and scholars working today Crafting America Glenn Adamson, Jen Padgett, 2021-01-29 A companion to the exhibition Crafting America curated at Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art this publication explores the interdisciplinary contexts of the assembled works featuring contributions from scholars with expertise in art history American studies folklore and museum studies Essay topics include the significance of craft within Native American histories and explorations of craft's relationship to ritual and memory personal independence and abstraction American Studio Ceramics Martha Drexler Lynn, 2015-01-01 A landmark survey of the formative years of American studio ceramics and the constellation of people institutions and events that propelled it from craft to fine art The Studio Reader Mary Jane Jacob, Michelle Grabner, 2010-06-15 The image of a tortured genius working in near isolation has long dominated our conceptions of the artist's studio Examples abound think Jackson Pollock dripping resin on a cicada carcass in his shed in the Hamptons But times have changed ever since Andy Warhol declared his art space a factory artists have begun to envision themselves as the leaders of production teams and their sense of what it means to be in the studio has altered just as dramatically as their practices The Studio Reader pulls back the curtain from the art world to reveal the real activities behind
