Discourse on Method and Meditations on First Philosophy René Descartes, 1999-06-15 This edition contains Donald Cress's completely revised translation of the Meditations from the corrected Latin edition and recent corrections to Discourse on Method bringing this version even closer to Descartes's original while maintaining the clear and accessible style of a classic teaching edition Toward New Philosophical Explorations of the Epistemic Desire to Know

Marianna Papastephanou, 2019-03-25 This collection of essays explores curiosity from many philosophical perspectives of relevance to various fields and disciplines such as educational studies epistemology political philosophy and history of thought It advances and enriches scholarly research on curiosity while critiquing current approaches to the epistemic desire to know Its interest in contemporary accounts of curiosity does not entail neglect of the conceptual history of this notion from antiquity to the present Its focus on cultural and scientific appreciations of curiosity is global rather than local and inclusive of standpoints beyond established divisions such as the modern versus postmodern or the analytic versus continental The book offers fresh and unique engagements with what motivates us to ask questions and how this motivation operates from an ethical cultural and political point of view The Audible Past Jonathan Sterne, 2003-03-13 The Audible Past explores the cultural origins of sound reproduction It describes a distinctive sound culture that gave birth to the sound recording and the transmission devices so ubiquitous in modern life With an ear for the unexpected scholar and musician Jonathan Sterne uses the technological and cultural precursors of telephony phonography and radio as an entry point into a history of sound in its own right Sterne studies the constantly shifting boundary between phenomena organized as sound and not sound In The Audible Past this history crisscrosses the liminal regions between bodies and machines originals and copies nature and culture and life and death Blending cultural studies and the history of communication technology Sterne follows modern sound technologies back through a historical labyrinth Along the way he encounters capitalists and inventors musicians and philosophers embalmers and grave robbers doctors and patients deaf children and their teachers professionals and hobbyists folklorists and tribal singers The Audible Past tracks the connections between the history of sound and the defining features of modernity from developments in medicine physics and philosophy to the tumultuous shifts of industrial capitalism colonialism urbanization modern technology and the rise of a new middle class A provocative history of sound The Audible Past challenges theoretical commonplaces such as the philosophical privilege of the speaking subject the visual bias in theories of modernity and static descriptions of nature It will interest those in cultural studies media and communication studies the new musicology and the history of technology Faith, Reason, and Theosis Aristotle Papanikolaou, George E. Demacopoulos, 2023-10-03 Theosis shapes contemporary Orthodox theology in two ways positively and negatively In the positive sense contemporary Orthodox theologians made theosis the thread that bound together the various aspects of theology in a coherent whole and also interpreted patristic texts which experienced a renaissance in the twentieth century

even in Orthodox theology In the negative sense contemporary theologians used theosis as a triumphalistic club to beat down Catholic and Protestant Christians claiming that they rejected theosis in favor of either a rationalistic or fideistic approach to Christian life The essays collected in this volume move beyond this East West divide by examining the relation between faith reason and theosis from Orthodox Catholic and Protestant perspectives A variety of themes are addressed such as the nature grace debate and the relation of philosophy to theology through engagement with such diverse thinkers as Thomas Aquinas John Wesley Meister Eckhart Dionysius the Areopagite Symeon the New Theologian Panayiotis Nellas Vladimir Lossky Martin Luther Martin Heidegger Sergius Bulgakov John of the Cross Delores Williams Evagrius of Pontus and Hans Urs von Balthasar The essays in this book are situated within a current thinking on theosis that consists of a common albeit minimalist affirmation amidst the flow of differences The authors in this volume contribute to the historical theological task of complicating the contemporary Orthodox narrative but they also continue the theological achievement of thinking about theosis so that all Christian traditions may be challenged to stretch and shift their understanding of theosis even amidst an ecumenical celebration of the gift of participation in the life of God

Recovering the Personal Dale W. Cannon, Ronald L. Hall, 2016-09-14 Modernity has radically challenged the assumptions that guide our ordinary lives as persons in ways we are not normally aware We live our concrete lives taking for granted that personal decisions desires relationships actions aspirations values and knowledge are central to our existence But in modernity we think of these matters as private idiosyncratic and subjective even irrational This modern conception of ourselves and the associated way of reflection known as modern critical thinking came to dominate our thinking is culminates in the dualistic philosophy of Ren Descartes This dualism has spawned a reductionist view of persons and tainted the personal with connotations of bias partiality and privacy leaving us with the presumption that if we seek to be objective and intellectually respectable we must expunge the personal William H Poteat s work in philosophical anthropology has confronted this concern head on He undertakes a radical critique of the various forms of mind body dualism and materialist monism that have dominated Western intellectual concepts of the person In a unique style that Poteat calls post critical he uncovers the staggering incoherencies of these dualisms and shows how they have resulted in a loss of the personal in the modern age He also formulates a way out of this modern cultural insanity This constructive dimension of his thought is centered on his signature concept of the mindbody the pre reflective ground of personal existence The twelve contributors in this collection explore outgrowths and implications of Poteat s thought Recovering the Personal will be of interest to a broad range of intellectual readers with interests in philosophy psychology theology and the humanities

Owen's Ape and Darwin's Bulldog Christopher E. Cosans, 2009-02-18 After Richard Owen criticized Darwin s Origin he was labeled a creationist by many and his work on ape anatomy was derided by Darwin s bulldog Thomas Huxley In this close analysis of Owen s texts Christopher E Cosans argues that Owen s thought was much more sophisticated than Huxley portrayed it In addition to considering Owen and Huxley s anatomical debate Owen s

Ape and Darwin's Bulldog examines their philosophical dispute Huxley embraced the metaphysics of Descartes while Owen felt philosophy of science should rest on Kant's claim that sense perception does not tell us how things in themselves really are Owen thought the creationist Darwinist dispute was unproductive and held that both 19th century special creationists and Darwin's suggestion in the Origin that God created the first life forms unnecessarily brought supernatural causation into science With the hindsight of how the theory of evolution has progressed over the last three centuries the Owen Huxley debate affords the history and philosophy of science a case study It sheds light on theories of knowledge that have been advanced by Quine Wittgenstein Hanson and Putnam Owen's Ape and Darwin's Bulldog also examines Malthus Mill and Marx for the influence of economic thought on early evolutionary theories and considers broader ideas about how science and society interact

Age of Anxiety Anthony M. Wachs, Jon D. Schaff, 2019-11-29 Age of Anxiety Meaning Identity and Politics in 21st Century Film and Literature analyzes literature and films that speak to our age of anxiety resulting from the decline of narratives that provided individuals with a meaningful human life The authors argue that the twentieth century sought to free individuals from the constraints of authoritative cultural traditions and institutions liberating the autonomous self Yet this has given rise to anxiety rather than liberation Instead of deriving one's sense of purpose from one's role and place within a community the consumer has been deceived into thinking that their identity can be purchased through the meaning represented by the conspicuous consumption of a brand The same phenomenon manifests itself in politics within recent populist revolts against globalist politics In addition the rapid pace of technological development is driving an unprecedented faith in the malleability of human beings raises doubts as to what it means to be a person Utilizing paradigms from the fields of Communication Rhetoric and Political Philosophy the book shows how the self has been displaced from its natural habitat of the local community The book traces the origins of modern anxiety as well as possible remedies Considered in the book are such popular culture artifacts as Downton Abbey WALL E Hacksaw Ridge Westworld and Lord of the Rings and zombie films

Dusty Earthlings John Mustol, 2018-01-01 The Lord God formed a man from the dust of the ground Genesis 2:7 Made of dust we humans are thoroughly physical beings We are dusty earthlings As such we are also ecological beings or rather eco-physical beings firmly embedded in and dependent upon God's earthly ecosystems which support and provide for us and constitute our earthly home Today we are living in ways that are damaging our home As Christian dusty earthlings we are called to oversee God's earthly creation and to follow Jesus Christ God incarnated as a dusty earthling How do we do this in the face of the array of ecological problems we face today How can we obey the ecological principles and limits that govern all of life on God's good earth Mustol argues that the virtues of humility voluntary self-limitation and the principles of kenosis and justice will help as we seek to follow Jesus as dusty earthlings in today's world

Automatic Religion Paul Christopher Johnson, 2021-01-12 What distinguishes humans from nonhumans Two common answers free will and religion are in some ways fundamentally opposed Whereas free will enjoys a central place in our ideas of spontaneity authorship and deliberation religious practices seem to involve a suspension of or relief from the exercise of our will What then is agency and why has it occupied such a central place in theories of the human Automatic Religion explores an unlikely series of episodes from the end of the nineteenth century when crucial ideas related to automatism and in a different realm the study of religion were both being born Paul Christopher Johnson draws on years of archival and ethnographic research in Brazil and France to explore the crucial boundaries being drawn at the time between humans nearhumans and automata As agency came to take on a more central place in the philosophical moral and legal traditions of the West certain classes of people were excluded as less than human Tracking the circulation of ideas across the Atlantic Johnson tests those boundaries revealing how they were constructed on largely gendered and racial foundations In the process he reanimates one of the most mysterious and yet foundational questions in trans-Atlantic thought what is agency

An Analysis of St. Augustine's Confessions Jonathan Teubner, 2017-07-05 St Augustine s Confessions is one of the most important works in the history of literature and Christian thought Written around 397 when Augustine was the Christian bishop of Hippo in modern day Algeria the Confessions were designed both to spiritually educate those who already shared Augustine s faith and to convert those who did not Augustine did this through the original maneuver of writing what is now recognized as being the first Western autobiography letting readers share in his own experiences of youth sin and eventual conversion The Confessions are a perfect example of using reasoning to subtly bring readers around to a particular point of view with Augustine inviting them to accompany him on his own spiritual journey towards God so they could make their own conversion Carefully structured the Confessions run from describing the first 43 years of Augustine's life in North Africa and Italy to discussing the nature of memory before moving on to analyzing the Bible itself. In order, the sections form a carefully structured argument moving from the personal to the philosophical to the contemplative. Buddhism and Human Flourishing Seth Zuihō Segall, 2020-02-27. The Buddha and Aristotle offer competing visions of the best possible life to which human beings can aspire. In this volume, Seth Zuih Segall compares Theravāda and Mahāyāna accounts of enlightenment with Aristotelian and neo-Aristotelian accounts of eudaimonia and proposes a syncretic model of eudaimonic enlightenment that given prevalent Western beliefs about well-being and human flourishing provides a credible new end goal for modern Western Buddhist practice. He then demonstrates how this proposed synthesis is already deeply reflected in contemporary Western Buddhist rhetoric. Segall re-evaluates traditional Buddhist teachings on desire, attachment, aversion, nirvāṇa, and selfhood from the eudaimonic enlightenment perspective and explores the perspective's ethical and metaphysical implications.
