God is waiting for each of us to return home In fact God is already out in the world searching and inviting each person to take the journey back to God s house Relational Discipleship Moving Back Home with God approaches discipleship from a fresh perspective and intentionally draws on biblical principles and examples of discipleship In this approach the metaphor of a house is used to describe our journey back to God Hospitality plays a key factor in how discipleship from this perspective warmly calls each person forward in each step Other modes of discipleship are solely focused on transformation of the disciple Here in this model the transformation of the discipler must occur first Then the discipler can be a warm host helping other travelers on the path to God s house Join in the journey today and see how Relational Discipleship offers the call to move back home with God

Christian Faith and Christian Learning Clare Watkins, James Butler, 2025-07-31

Following a critical analysis of the pedagogical theology and practice of Christian learning this book develops a radical alternative account of faith learning Recognising the ways in which institutionally anxious churches are turning to processes of education and discipling it takes the reader through a theological action research journey to offer a practical theological response to the question of how Christian faith is learnt and handed on in ways that really make a difference Through close engagement with the practicalities of one declining denomination British Methodism the authors offer a distinctive vision of Christian learning and enable fresh thinking and practice There is a call for a move beyond educational courses towards a more profound engagement with the complexities of real life as not only the place but the matter of faith learning Theologically the book offers a vision which pursues questions of divine and human agency the work of the Spirit in learning the role of normative tradition and the important place of Christian lay people and their daily lives in learning Ultimately it seeks to give substance to a fresh concept of faith learning which is holistic integrative and inductively achieved and finds its fulfilment in lives lived in faith hope and love Renewing Communication Colleen R. Derr,2020-02-04 How can we as Christian leaders make the most of our communication to help others become more like Christ Colleen Derr draws on decades of experience in education and church ministry to offer a holistic strategy for transformational communication showing that communication powered by the Spirit needn't be limited to the pulpit or classroom but can include everyday interactions and relationships A Hope-Filled Journey Under His Sky Bruce George Alder,2016-10-27 This book is a very personal reflection on the life of Belinda BJ Alder a young missionary whose life was cut short through cancer Her father Bruce a Christian pastor and educator explores the influences that shaped BJ into an effective missionary who impacted many people around the world BJ's own reflections of her journey of life and faith through the battle with cancer are shared through excerpts from her own daily journal While the emotions expressed are raw there is a celebration of life and grace in the midst of tragedy In this authentic and intellectually honest reflection the focus is on serving in the midst of suffering How does one make sense of unanticipated and devastating circumstances that came the way of BJ and her family How does one lean into suffering and allow that response to make a significant impact How does a pastoral family deal with the faith questions that inevitably come as a result of this journey of suffering These are some of the questions explored through the retelling of specific events in the life of BJ Alder and her family Best Practices of Online Education Mark A. Maddix,James R. Estep,Mary E. Lowe,2012-04-01 The book provides best practices from online educators who are engaged in online teaching and program development in Christian higher education It also explores the distinct aspects of teaching and developing online courses and programs from a Christian perspective and within Christian higher education institutions As such it can serve as a ready resource for academic administrators and professors novices and veterans at online program development and instruction Renovating Holiness Thomas Jay Oord,Joshua Broward,2015-02-03 This book is a call for change Even more it calls for open conversation about change For too long many in the Church of the Nazarene have considered the doctrine of holiness off limits a sacred cow impervious to all forces of cultural modification and theological renewal It's time for a real change because the church needs renovation These 100 essays from Millennial and Xer leaders explore how holiness might be understood and lived today Youth Ministry as Mission Brian Hull ,Patrick Mays ,2022-06-21 Is ministering to youth like being a cross cultural missionary You'd better believe it The parallels between ministry within youth culture and global missions have long been touted by youth ministry experts yet few resources exist to help youth workers benefit practically from the insights of missiologists In Youth Ministry as Mission Brian Hull and Patrick Mays fill this gap with an introduction to missiology missions practice and missionary witness tailored especially for a youth ministry context Youth ministers will discover missiological language that describes realities they face regularly and activities of cross cultural missionaries that translate well into leaders within youth ministries Hull and Mays address issues such as Understanding the relationship of the incarnation to ministering in youth culture Translating stories and practicing storytelling as preparation for witnessing Teaching for witness in a multi religious context Youth Ministry as Mission will be a valuable guide for college and seminary students as well as a breath of fresh air to those already working in youth ministry Hull and Mays show us how missiology can help us see a way forward in youth ministry humbly discovering the mission of God right where we are where we too have been sent to become living translations of the gospel for young people Brad M Griffin senior director Fuller Youth Institute author of 3 Big Questions That Change Every Teenager With deferential scholarly humility Hull and Mays have written a book that insists on integration over invention Dr Dave Rahn coauthor of Disrupting Teens with Joy Wesleyan Theology and Social Science M. Kathryn Armistead, Brad D. Strawn, Ronald W. Wright, 2009-12-14 Science and religion are living organic and creative traditions Both see humans as profoundly interconnected and in some way responsible for our environs This worldview is especially true for social science and Wesleyan religious tradition While the dance between science and religion will always be complex it can also be enjoyable and mutually satisfying However when couples dance only one at a time can lead and both have to acknowledge the importance of the other This book is written with the conviction that theology and science can have a beneficial relationship if only both recognize their mutual value to the lives of persons The Methodist tradition links the welfare of the body with care for the soul Historically ministry involved tending to physical and psychological needs of the Methodist band members but also to non churched poor and imprisoned Thus Methodists built places of worship schools orphanages and hospitals For John Wesley the founder of Methodism practical divinity always involved attention to whole persons including their living conditions and basic physical needs He sought to improve life for all Therefore throughout his life Wesley was interested in theology but also scientific discovery as paths toward a better future He believed that both were of value to help people move toward perfection He even attended lectures and offered medical treatment in the first Methodist meeting hall in Bristol England As a scientific practitioner Wesley wrote the best selling book Primitive Physic or An Easy and Natural Method of Curing Most Diseases using the cutting edge science of his day Packed next to the Bible this book traveled with countless pioneers as they settled the territories that became the United States Methodism has a long tradition of using science and religion to carry out the biblical mandate to go into the world and make disciples for Jesus Christ This book seeks to continue that legacy by bringing current trends in psychology into conversation with Wesleyan theology Composed of essays that represent different psychologies and theological traditions which trace their roots to Wesley this book aims at creating a space where science and theology can partner and dance In the book readers will find positive psychology self psychology object relations family systems moral psychology and neuroscience in conversation with various theologies Under this canopy the contributors see themselves as people called Methodists seeking to follow the example of Wesley to use all available tools to enable persons to live fully and well Measuring Spiritual Maturity Randy Tompkins, 2019-10-21 Jesus commissioned His apostles and by extension the church to make disciples Many church leaders have come to the conclusion that attending worship services and Bible study classes will result in making disciples A review of statistical reports indicates a majority of church members and attenders do not believe this process will work or they have come to the conclusion they do not want to become disciples The 2010 US Religion Census report indicated 79% of the 150 686 156 members children and other attenders did not attend worship services It also reported over 60% of the same group did not attend Bible study classes In 2014 one of the major denominations in the United States reported 63% of church members did not attend worship services and 62% did not attend Bible study classes There are literally thousands of spiritual surveys available to church leaders A majority of these surveys develop conclusions based on a single survey being administered or two surveys being administered several months apart If a disciple making process is to be effective there needs to be a method of measuring the progress of individuals moving toward spiritual maturity This type of measurement would produce a visual of spiritual growth spiritual decline or spiritual non growth The only way to measure the spiritual progress of an individual is to create a measurement of the various elements of the spiritual life The process of measuring spiritual maturity in this book is self contained within the participating church and the responses of the participating individuals are highly confidential and warehoused by the participating church

Understanding Faith Formation Mark A. Maddix, Jonathan H. Kim, James Riley Jr.

Estep, 2020-10-27 Three leading Christian educators offer a survey of faith formation from various perspectives biblical theological pastoral practical and global They present a biblical theology of faith formation for individual and congregational life and show how faith can be formed through the life and mission of the local church through practices such as communal worship Bible study and mission They also explore the faces of faith formation in multicultural and global contexts The book includes practical exercises for those beginning in ministry and reflection questions

A Biblical Theology of Christian Discipleship Johnny Turner, 2021-06-11 A Biblical Theology of Christian Discipleship is a spiritual resource that examines the biblical and theological doctrines to do ministry amid challenges and oppositions The role of the church is to persuade individuals to establish a philosophy of authentic discipleship This book challenges the church to walk humbly before God as genuine disciples The primary focus is to carefully follow Christ's mandate of the Great Commission in Matthew 28:18-20 Go and make disciples More importantly the book describes how the church can effectively use different methods and principles to better prepare believers for Christ
