

2. On The Minimum Company (Minimum) Working

The Department Company manufactures industrial machinery and equipment manufacturers with several production departments. Company also has an industrial repair and maintenance department for repairing the company's equipment. In the last two the department's efficiency has decreased. The company committee for a review of the operations of the R&M department and discussed the administrative problems, and decided that in the interests of the department (therefore the company committee proposed) that a formal work order system be implemented. The new system would require the production department to submit a written request to the R&M department for repair and/or maintenance (including a suggested time frame for having the work done). The R&M department will prepare a cost estimate for the proposed work order form. (Note the company is aware the R&M department will submit it to the production department for approval). The production department will review and/or approve they will submit to the R&M department. The R&M department will decide if and when it needs the work to be done.

Requirements:

1. On The Departmental Work Order Document

- a. Identify the data items of importance to the repair and maintenance department and the production department that should be incorporated into the work order.
The following items of data that would be necessary to accommodate both departments in any work order form would be:

Numbered form:	Estimate of the cost of work requested
Name of request	Estimated date of completion
Notes re-requesting the work	Notes work done/bugles
Work requested	Signature of person giving estimate
When work is needed to done	Signature of chief of person authorizing work
Notes the request goes to
- b. Indicate how many copies of the work order should be prepared and explain how work order should be distributed.
The work order should have three copies. The production department will keep one the other two will be submitted up with the billing. The R&M department will keep one the other two will be submitted the work that was done. Finally the committee goes over to be able to follow the requests i.e. follow, supplies, and materials to the project account and bill the production department.
- c. Prepare a document (should be done from the R&M Service Request) and the R&M Work Order should be completed and sent using the department of the Minimum Company to request and complete the repair and maintenance work, or provide the bill for repairing the production department for the cost of the completed work, and/or materials.
