Knauer, 2024-08-06 In an era where the population is rapidly ageing this timely Research Handbook addresses the wide ranging social and legal issues concerning older people Ageing with a Lifelong Disability Christine Bigby, 2004 This guide provides specialist knowledge about ageing with a disability in the context of the more mainstream knowledge about ageing processes Dr Bigby uses the concept of successful ageing as a framework in which to consider the issues and practicalities for older people with a pre existing disability Discrimination at Work Marie Mercat-Bruns, 2016-02-22 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press's new open access publishing program for monographs Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Do the United States and France both post industrial democracies differ in their views and laws concerning discrimination Marie Mercat Bruns a Franco American scholar examines the differences in how the two countries approach discrimination Bringing together prominent legal scholars including Robert Post Linda Krieger Martha Minow Reva Siegel Susan Sturm Richard Ford and others Mercat

Bruns demonstrates how the two nations have adopted divergent strategies The United States continues with mixed success at colorblind policies to deal with issues of diversity in university enrollment class action sex discrimination lawsuits and rampant police violence against African American men and women In France the country has banned the full face veil while making efforts to present itself as a secular republic Young men and women whose parents and grandparents came from sub Sahara and North Africa are stuck coping with a society that fails to take into account the barriers to employment and education they face Discrimination at Work provides an incisive comparative analysis of how the nature of discrimination in both countries has changed now often hidden or steeped in deep unconscious bias While it is rare for employers in both countries to openly discriminate deep systemic discrimination exists rooted in structural and environmental causes and the ways each state has dealt with difference in general Invigorating and incisive the book examines hot button issues such as sexual harassment race religious and gender discrimination and equality for LGBT individuals thereby delivering comparisons meant to further social equality and fundamental human rights across borders

The UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities and the European Union Carmine Conte, 2022-02-24 This book analyses the impact of the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities CRPD on EU non discrimination law and governance The CRPD places the protection of persons with disabilities at the heart of international human rights law The Convention is the first human rights treaty open for signatures by regional organisations and the European Union favourably acceded to it in December 2010 Ten years after this historic event this book explores whether the theory has been put into practice and examines the effects of the CRPD on EU non discrimination law and governance This book brings together the practices of the European Court of Justice CJEU with regard to disability discrimination to show whether the CRPD is living up to its full potential to substantially improve the protection of the rights of persons with disabilities in the EU It examines whether the judicial interpretation of the Directive 2000 78 EC establishing a general framework for equal treatment in employment and occupation does or does not comply with the new legal background delineated by the CRPD In addition it investigates whether the governance mechanisms underlying the EU Framework for promoting protecting and monitoring the CRPD are effectively fostering the implementation of the CRPD and the role of civil society The prohibition of discrimination on grounds of disability has undergone substantial changes and developments since it was first introduced under international and EU law This book highlights the main changes to disability discrimination which have occurred in the EU legal order in the last ten years The book will be of interest to academics law students and legal practitioners working in the field of EU non discrimination and equality law

Ageing with Disability Eva Jeppsson Grassman, Anna Whitaker, 2013-05-08 This is the first book to address the issue of ageing after a long life with disability It breaks new ground through its particular life course perspective examining what it means to age with a physical or mental disability and what the implications are of becoming old for people who have had extensive disabilities for many years These people may have had to leave the labour market early and the book looks at available care resources both formal and informal Ageing with disability challenges set ideas about successful ageing as well as some of those about disabilities The life course approach that is used unfolds important insights about the impact of multiple disabilities over time and on the phases of life The book highlights the meaning of care in unexplored contexts such as where ageing parents are caregivers or regarding mutual care in disabled couples These are areas of knowledge which have to date been totally neglected

Disability Insurance Legislation United States. Congress. House. Committee on Ways and Means. Subcommittee on Social Security, 1979 EU Law for UK Lawyers Aidan

O'Neill, 2011-07-27 This is the second edition of this wide ranging survey of EU law The new edition has been significantly enlarged Unlike many other EU law books it takes full account not only of the Lisbon Treaty changes to the EU treaties but also of the fact that the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights now has the same legal value as the EU Treaties It therefore not only covers the relevant case law of the Court of Justice of the European Union but also ties that case law into the decisions of the European Court of Human Rights because it is clear that EU law can only now properly be understood and applied against this background of European fundamental rights jurisprudence The book sets out very clearly the broad shape of the European Union's legal systems while also giving the reader a good feel for the policy motivations in the Court of Justice of the European Union and the scope of EU legislative activity Written in a lively and accessible style it is an ideal guide for practitioners whether those coming to the subject for the first time or those already with a background in EU law Among the additions and changes in this expanded edition the book includes new chapters on the EU and fundamental rights on commercial agency on criminal law and on private international law in the EU It also contains a full treatment of EU equality law The first edition EC Law for UK Lawyers by Aidan O'Neill and Jason Coppel ISBN 9780406024596 was published by Butterworths in 1994
