Talvacchia, 2024-11-14 Inclusive and progressive theological and religious perspectives have an important and distinctive contribution to make to an analysis of the critical issues facing women identified persons in the 21st century This incisive collection of essays recovers the missing theological voices grounded in those religious communities and traditions which gender and sexuality studies often overlook Feminist theologies have from their beginnings aspired to be the communal production of women identified persons who critically reflect on their experiences in the contexts of culture social standpoint religious practices and beliefs and imagination of the Feminine Divine Pae and Talvacchia draw from this heritage to engage the critical issues of today to create new perspectives They create an intellectual and discursive space where feminist theologians in all of their diversity renew and reclaim the rich legacies of the feminist theological tradition through inter generational racially diverse and transnational conversation Disability as Diversity in India Sandhya Limaye, Christopher Johnstone, Misa Kayama, 2024-05-30 This book critically analyses diverse experiences related to disability in India Drawing upon intersectionality theory it explores a range of issues regarding everyday experiences of disability in relation to gender religion social experiences and India s neoliberal economy and its built environment From theoretical to deeply personal this book discusses themes like invisible disability and identity women with disabilities in India bodily frustrations and cultural stigma emotional stability and self esteem of children with disabilities neurodiversity and queerness and overcoming the barriers It also emphasizes the impact of the writings of women with disabilities on their personal experiences The volume discusses perspectives and practices of schooling curricular transactions and inclusive education that have evolved for children who are deaf in India Conversational and interdisciplinary this book will be of interest to scholars and practitioners of disability studies social care mental health social psychology gender studies social work and special education Rethinking Disability Patrick Devlieger, Beatriz Miranda-Galarza, Steven E. Brown, Megan Strickfaden, 2016-06-15 The act of life is a lived experience common and unique that ties each of us to every other lived experience The fact of disability does not alter this fundamental truth In this edition of Rethinking Disability World Perspectives in Culture and Society we are presented with a system of thinking that considers the values of disability as a resource as a creative source of culture that moves disability out of the realm of victimized people and insurmountable barriers and provides opportunities to use the experience of disability to enter into networks that recognize strengths of differing abilities The authors within will intrigue you will move you will charm you but always will challenge your notion of sameness and difference as they confront the construct and de construct of disability and ableism They present compelling arguments for viewing disABILITY through the multiple lenses of disability culture They explore themes and issues that transcend past and origins time and place nuances of genetics to experiences of present and becoming and towards the future and beyond mere human yet always intrinsically connected to being human This book is intended for all audiences who dare to confront difference and sameness within themselves and in connection with others to inspire researchers who wish to explore and examine disability across social cultural and economic barriers It is an invitation to push away the barriers bring ableism inside to a place where the prosthesis is no longer the elephant in the room Disability, Human Rights and the Limits of Humanitarianism Michael Gill, Cathy J. Schlund-Vials, 2016-05-23 Disability studies scholars and activists have long criticized and critiqued so termed charitable approaches to disability where the capitalization of individual disabled bodies to invoke pity are historically socially and politically circumscribed by paternalism Disabled individuals have long advocated for civil and human rights in various locations throughout the globe yet contemporary human rights discourses problematically co opt disabled bodies as evidence of harms done under capitalism war and other forms of conflict while humanitarian non governmental organizations often use disabled bodies to generate resources for their humanitarian projects It is the connection between civil rights and human rights and this concomitant relationship between national and global which foregrounds this groundbreaking book s contention that disability studies productively challenge such human rights paradigms which troublingly eschew disability rights in favor of exclusionary humanitarianism It relocates disability from the margins to the center of academic and activist debates over the vexed relationship between human rights and humanitarianism These considerations thus productively destabilize able bodied assumptions that undergird definitions of personhood in civil rights and human rights by highlighting intersections between disability race gender ethnicity and sexuality as a way to interrogate the possibilities and limitations of human rights as a politicized regime Autonomist Narratives of Disability in Modern Scottish Writing Arianna Introna, 2022-05-03 Autonomist Narratives of Disability in Modern Scottish Writing Crip Enchantments explores the intersection between imaginaries of disability and representations of work welfare and the nation in twentieth and twenty first century Scottish literature Disorienting effects erupt when non normative bodies and minds clash with the structures of capitalist normalcy This book brings into conversation Scottish studies disability studies and Marxist autonomist theory to trace the ways in which these crip enchantments are imagined in modern Scottish writing and the autonomist narratives of disability by which they are evoked Neurodivergence and Architecture , 2022-09-30 Neurodivergence and Architecture Volume Five the latest release in the Developments in Neuroethics and Bioethics series focuses on the new and fascinating ethical and legal challenges posed by neurotechnology and its global regulation Topics in this new release cover STS on architecture Embodied Rhetoric Disability Studies Autoethnography Bioethics Materialist Feminism Advocacy Cultural Commentary Being Autistic Together An autistic perspective on built spaces Empty spaces and refrigerator boxes making autistic spaces On the Losing Myself Project Neither Use nor Ornament NUNO project Madness and Be coming Out Within and Through Spaces of Confinement and more Novel and original research on the emerging field of the legal regulation of neuroscience Interdisciplinary approach chapters by global scholars from several disciplines including law philosophy and medicine Develops a global approach useful in jurisdictions along the globe Disability and Colonialism Karen Soldatic, Shaun Grech, 2017-10-02 The mapping control and subjugation of the human body and mind were core features of the colonial conquest This book draws together a rich collection of diverse yet rigorous papers that aim to expose the presence and significance of disability within colonialism and how disability remains present in the establishment maintenance and continuation of colonial structures of power Disability as a site of historical analysis has become critically important to understanding colonial relations of power and the ways in which gender and identity are defined through colonial categorisations of the body Thus there is a growing prominence of disability within the historical literature Yet there are few international anthologies that traverse a critical level of depth on the subject domain This book fills a critical gap in the historical literature and is likely to become a core reader for post graduate studies within disability studies postcolonial studies and more broadly across the humanities The chapters in this book were originally published as articles in Social Identities Journal for the Study of Race Nation and Culture

Disability, Intersectional Agency, and Latinx Identity Alexis Padilla, 2021-07-28 This interdisciplinary volume links disability and agency by exploring LatDisCrit's theory and activist emancipatory practice It uses the author's experiential and analytical views as a blind brown Latinx engaged scholar and activist from the global south living and struggling in the highly racialized global north context of the United States LatDisCrit integrates critically LatCrit and DisCrit which look at the interplay of race ethnicity diasporic cultures historical sociopolitics and disability within multiple Latinx identities in mostly global north contexts while incorporating global south epistemologies Using intersectional analysis of key concepts through critical counterstories following critical race theory methodological traditions and engaging possible decoloniality treatments of material precarity and agency this book emphasizes intersectionality's complex underpinnings within and beyond Latinidades Through a careful interplay of disability identity and disability rights empowerment the volume opens avenues for intersectional solidarity and spaces for radical transformational learning This book will be of interest to all scholars and students working in disability studies intersectional disability justice activists critical Latinx Chicanx studies critical geographies intersectional political philosophy and political and public sociology

Research Handbook on the Sociology of Youth Judith Bessant, Philippa Collin, Patrick O'Keeffe, 2024-05-02 In this groundbreaking Research Handbook on the Sociology of Youth researchers from the Global North and South examine the social political cultural and ecological processes that inform what it means to be young It explores the diversity of youth experiences and ways young people live their lives responding to and actively working to overcome inequality adversity and planetary crises

Michael Field Sarah Parker, Ana Parejo Vadillo, 2019-12-10 In the last twenty years Michael Field has emerged as one of the most fascinating poets of the Victorian era Through their collaborative partnership as Michael Field Katharine Bradley and Edith Cooper engaged in the aesthetic and decadent movements of the fin de siècle while their poetry and verse drama articulate ideas associated with the New Woman and boldly express queer and lesbian desire Michael Field Decadent Moderns extends the focus on these key literary and cultural contexts by emphasizing their continuing significance within twentieth century literary modernism Through a series of interdisciplinary essays this book addresses Michael Field's energetic engagements with a range of topics including ecology perfume tourism art history sculpture formalism classics and book history In doing so Michael Field Decadent Moderns highlights the modernity radicalism and relevance of their work both within the nineteenth and twentieth centuries as well as in our own cultural moment Contributors Leire Barrera Medrano Joseph Bristow Jill R Ehnenn Sarah E Kersh Kristin Mahoney Catherine Maxwell Alex Murray Sarah Parker Margaret D Stetz Kate Thomas and Ana Parejo Vadillo Disability and American Philosophies Nate Whelan-Jackson, Daniel J.

Brunson, 2022-02-23 Given basic commitments to philosophize from lived experience and a shared underlying meliorist impulse American philosophical traditions seem well suited to develop nascent philosophical engagement with disability studies To date however there have been few efforts to facilitate research at the intersections of American philosophy and disability studies This volume of essays seeks to offer some directions for propelling this inquiry Scholars working in pragmatist and other American traditions consider intersections between American philosophy and work in disability studies Consisting of three broader sections one set of essays considers how American philosophies from contemporary Mexican philosophy to classical American pragmatism inform descriptions of disability and efforts at liberation The next offer accounts of how American philosophies disclose alternative conceptions of epistemic and ethical issues surrounding disability Finally a section considers living issues of disability including essays on parenting immigration policy and art education Throughout these works provide direction and orientation for further investigation at the intersection of American philosophies and disability studies The Oxford Handbook of Philosophy and Disability Adam Cureton, David

Wasserman, 2020 This Handbook introduces philosophers as well as other scholars in the humanities and social sciences to one of the most dynamic new areas of philosophical inquiry Disability raises some of the deepest conceptual and normative issues about human embodiment and well being dignity respect justice and equality and personal and social identity But it also raises pressing practical questions for educational health reproductive and technology policy and confronts controversial questions about the scope and direction of the human and civil rights movements The Handbook addresses these issues and more with contributions from some of the most prominent philosophers in the field The clarity it brings to these discussions demonstrates fully the continued centrality and importance of philosophical inquiry Global Histories of Disability, 1700-2015 Esme Cleall, 2022-12-30 This book offers a global angle to Disability History by exploring global locations as disparate as the Caribbean Kenya Mauritius Natal and Poland as well as taking new approaches to Britain and the US Global Histories of Disability seeks to address issues including colonialism disability the body forced labour and indigeneity A further key issue that reoccurs throughout the volume is the specificity of place With several chapters examining the Global South such work challenges the implicit tendency to assume that the western experience of disability is a universal one The volume intends to do more than add new case studies to our knowledge about disability in the modern period it intends to use the insights gained from examining disparate global sites to think more about the global histories of disability both empirically and theoretically Issues addressed by different chapters include colonialism imperialism disability deafness the body enslavement labour and indigeneity Different chapters also use economic cultural legal and political frameworks to explore issues of disability across a range of global locations This volume is essential for students scholars and researchers alike interested in world and international history Disability in American Life Tamar Heller,Sarah Parker Harris,Carol J. Gill,Robert Gould,2018-12-07 Disability as with other marginalized topics in social policy is at risk for exclusion from social debate This multivolume reference work provides an overview of challenges and opportunities for people with disabilities and their families at all stages of life Once primarily thought of as a medical issue disability is now more widely recognized as a critical issue of identity personhood and social justice By discussing challenges confronting people with disabilities and their families and by collecting numerous accounts of disability experiences this volume firmly situates disability within broader social movements policy and areas of marginalization providing a critical examination into the lived experiences of people with disabilities and how disability can affect identity A foundational introduction to disability for a wide audience from those intimately connected with a person with a disability to those interested in the science behind disability this collection covers all aspects of disability critical to understanding disability in the United States Topics covered include characteristics of disability disability concepts models and theories important historical developments and milestones for people with disabilities prominent individuals organizations and agencies notable policies and services and intersections of disability policy with other policy
