Queer Disappearance in Modern and Contemporary Fiction Benjamin Bateman, 2023-01-31 Queer Disappearance in Modern and Contemporary Fiction breaks with appearance based models of queer performativity and argues for the experiential richness and political potentials of recessive tendencies in twentieth and twenty first century queer literary production The study theorizes a perish performative that allows for agency in practices of abeyance and it discovers within queerness s ample archive of vanishing acts an environmental ethos antithetical to inflationary versions of the human Tying modernist classics by E M Forster and Willa Cather to Andrew Holleran s gay classic Dancer from the Dance and then moving to the contemporary ecogothic of Lydia Millet s How the Dead Dream and the trans decadence of Shola von Reinhold s Lote the book refuses the common wisdom that queerness becomes louder and prouder over time delineating instead a minimalist and daydreaming subjectivity wherein queerness finds escape respite and varied opportunities for imaginative reverie This precarious subjectivity necessitated but not defined by oppression and obstacle rewards and restores the queer self and it also contests the logics of development acquisition and productivity that wreak havoc on the planet and entrench social disparities of race class and ability Queer Disappearance in Modern and Contemporary Fiction supplies multiple accounts of the collective and personal pleasures possibilities and perils to be found in pulling away going missing and taking a break

Conflicts Liron Mor, 2024-01-02 Liron Mor s book queries what conflict means in the context of Palestine Israel Conflict has long been seen as singular and primary as an original sin that necessitates the state and underwrites politics This book problematizes this universal notion of conflict revealing its colonial implications and proposing that conflicts are always politically constructed after the fact and are thus to be understood in their various specific forms The book explores sites of poetic and political strife in Palestine Israel by combining a comparative study of Hebrew and Arabic literature with political and literary theory Mor leverages an archive that ranges from the 1930s to the present from prose and poetry to film and television to challenge the conception of the Palestinian Israeli context as a conflict delineating the colonial history of this concept and showing its inadequacy to Palestine Israel Instead Mor articulates locally specific modes of theorizing the antagonisms and mediations colonial technologies and anticolonial practices that make up the fabric of this site The book thus offers five figurative conflictual concepts that are derived from the poetics of the works conflict judgment ishtib k leva im disorienting dilemmas ikhtif anti colonial disappearance o mediating law and inqis m hostile severance In so doing Conflicts aims to generate a historically and geographically situated mode of theory making which defies the separation between the conceptual and the poetic
