The SAGE Handbook of Human Rights Anja Mihr, Mark Gibney, 2014-07-21 The SAGE Handbook of Human Rights will comprise a two volume set consisting of more than 50 original chapters that clarify and analyze human rights issues of both contemporary and future importance The Handbook will take an interdisciplinary approach combining work in such traditional fields as law political science and philosophy with such non traditional subjects as climate change demography economics geography urban studies mass communication and business and marketing In addition one of the aspects of mainstreaming is the manner in which human rights has come to play a prominent role in popular culture and there will be a section on human rights in art film music and literature Not only will the Handbook provide a state of the art analysis of the discipline that addresses the history and development of human rights standards and its movements mechanisms and institutions but it will seek to go beyond this and produce a book that will help lead to prospective thinking

Urban Comics Dominic Davies,2019-02-21 Urban Comics Infrastructure and the Global City in Contemporary Graphic Narratives makes an important and timely contribution both to comics studies and urban studies offering a decolonisation and reconfiguration of both of these already interdisciplinary fields With chapter length discussions of comics from cities such as Cairo Cape Town New Orleans Delhi and Beirut this book shows how artistic collectives and urban social movements working across the global South are producing some of the most exciting and formally innovative graphic narratives of the contemporary moment Throughout the author reads an expansive range of graphic narratives through the vocabulary of urban studies to argue that these formal innovations should be thought of as a kind of infrastructure This infrastructural form allows urban comics to reveal that the built environments of our cities are not static banal or depoliticised but rather highly charged material spaces that allow some forms of social life to exist while also prohibiting others Built from a formal infrastructure of grids gutters and panels and capable of volumetric multi scalar perspectives this book shows how urban comics are able to represent repair and even rebuild contemporary global cities toward more socially just and sustainable ends Operating at the intersection of comics studies and urban studies and offering large global surveys alongside close textual and visual analyses this book explores and opens up the fascinating relationship between comics and graphic narratives on the one hand and cities and urban spaces on the other

Understanding the Crash Seth Tobocman,Eric Laursen,2010-05-10 Understanding the Crash starts with a simple question that still haunts us all What has happened to the world economy With the kind of striking precision that only graphic nonfiction can provide Seth Tobocman and Eric Laursen explain just how we got into this mess and how we can get out of it Looking back across more than a quarter century the authors outline the roots of our current economic crisis They show how the troubles of a working class community in Cleveland or a newly built suburb of Miami became an international financial crisis explaining the complex new forms of credit that came into being because of financial deregulation and how they created an economic whirlpool From there they discuss how over the same time span a smaller and smaller group of people came to control a larger and larger percentage of the world s money a result of rising inequality that combined with the shortage of affordable housing a decline in real wages and our unwavering belief in an ownership society impelled poor people into debt Tobocman and Laursen conclude with a consideration of a restructured financial system and a look toward a culture of sustainability one that covets real wealth in the form of security meaningful work and community

COVID Chronicles Kendra Boileau,Rich Johnson,2021-02-15 In 2020 the COVID 19 pandemic brought the world to its knees When we weren t sheltering in place we were advised to wear masks wash our hands and practice social distancing We watched in horror as medical personnel worked around the clock to care for the sick and dying Businesses were shuttered travel stopped workers were furloughed and markets dropped And people continued to die Amid all this uncertainty writers and artists from around the world continued to create comics commenting directly on how individuals societies governments and markets reacted to the worldwide crisis COVID Chronicles A Comics Anthology collects more than sixty such short comics from a diverse set of creators including indie powerhouses mainstream artists Ignatz and Eisner Award winners and media cartoonists In narrative styles ranging from realistic to fantastic they tell stories about adjusting to working from home homeschooling their kids missing birthdays and weddings and being afraid just to leave the house They probe the failures of government leaders and the social safety net They dig into the racial bias and systemic inequities that this pandemic helped bring to light We see what it s like to get the virus and live to tell about it or to stand by helplessly as a loved one passes At times heartbreaking and at others hopeful and humorous these comics express the anger anxiety fear and bewilderment we feel in the era of COVID 19 Above all they highlight the power of art and community to help us make sense of a world in crisis reminding us that we are truly all in this together The comics in this collection have been generously donated by their creators A portion of the proceeds from the sale of this volume are being donated by the publisher to the Book Industry Charitable Foundation Binc in support of comics shops bookstores and their employees who have been adversely affected by the pandemic
