The Friar and the Maya Matthew Restall, Amara Solari, John F. Chuchiak, Traci Ardren, 2023-12-22 The Friar and the Maya offers a full study and new translation of the Relación de las Cosas de Yucatán Account of the Things of Yucatan by a unique set of eminent scholars created by them over more than a decade from the original manuscript held by the Real Academia de la Historia in Madrid This critical and careful reading of the Account is long overdue in Maya studies and will forever change how this seminal text is understood and used For generations scholars used and misused the Account as the sole eyewitness insight into an ancient civilization It is credited to the sixteenth century Spanish Franciscan monastic inquisitor and bishop Diego de Landa whose legacy is complex and contested His extensive writings on Maya culture and history were lost in the seventeenth century save for the fragment that is the Account discovered in the nineteenth century and accorded near biblical status in the twentieth as the first ethnography of the Maya However the Account is not authored by Landa alone it is a compilation of excerpts many from writings by other Spaniards a significant revelation made here for the first time This new translation accurately reflects the style and vocabulary of the original manuscript It is augmented by a monograph comprising an introductory chapter seven essays and hundreds of notes that describes explains and analyzes the life and times of Diego de Landa the Account and the role it has played in the development of modern Maya studies The Friar and the Maya is an innovative presentation on an important and previously misunderstood primary source

Social Identities in the Classic Maya Northern Lowlands Traci Ardren, 2015-04-15 Social Identities in the Classic Maya Northern Lowlands plumbs the archaeological record for what it can reveal about the creation of personal and communal identities in the Maya world Using new primary data from her excavations at the sites of Yaxuna Chunchucmil and Xuenkal and new analysis of data from Dzibilchaltun in Yucatan Mexico Traci Ardren presents a series of case studies in how social identities were created shared and manipulated among the lowland Maya Ardren argues that the interacting factors of gender age familial and community memories and the experience of living in an urban setting were some of the key aspects of Maya identities She demonstrates that domestic and civic spaces were shaped by gender specific behaviors to communicate and reinforce gendered ideals Ardren discusses how child burials disclose a sustained pattern of reverence for the potential of childhood and the power of certain children to mediate ancestral power She shows how small shrines built a century after Yaxuna was largely abandoned indicate that its remaining residents used memory to reenvision their city during a time of cultural reinvention And Ardren explains how Chunchucmil s physical layout of houses plazas and surrounding environment denotes that its occupants shared an urban identity centered in the movement of trade goods and economic exchange Viewing this evidence through the lens of the social imaginary and other recent social theory Ardren demonstrates that material culture and its circulations are an integral part of the discourse about social identity and group membership Revival: Ethnicity and Governance in the Third World (2001) Pita Ogaba Agbese,2017-07-12 This title was first published in 2001 Written by an outstanding international group of researchers focusing on ethnic conflict this refreshing analysis provides practical and effective policy options for the people of the Third World Book Review Index - 2009 Cumulation Dana Ferguson,2009-08 Book Review Index provides quick access to reviews of books periodicals books on tape and electronic media representing a wide range of popular academic and professional interests The up to date coverage wide scope and inclusion of citations for both newly published and older materials make Book Review Index an exceptionally useful reference tool More than 600 publications are indexed including journals and national general interest publications and newspapers Book Review Index is available in a three issue subscription covering the current year or as an annual cumulation covering the past year Dos mujeres fuera de serie Piedad Peniche Rivero,Kathleen Rock Martín,2007
