Disciples And Theology Understanding The Faith Of A People In Covenant:

Disciples and Theology Stephen Sprinkle, 1999 Although the Christian Church Disciples of Christ has consciously avoided formal creeds Disciples have through their history formulated their thought in distinctive theological ways The Authority of Scripture in a Postmodern Age Robert D Cornwall, 2014-12-17 Can the Bible speak to people in this postmodern age Are we doomed to a choice between rigid fundamentalism and complete rejection of this foundational source for Christianity Bob Cornwall has found that he can take the Bible seriously in his ministry and yet avoid such controversial labels as inerrancy or infallibility Taking his vocabulary and direction from the work of Karl Barth he charts a course toward a serious study and use of scripture that embraces historical critical methodology but at the same time expects God to speak through the text in ways that will change our lives and minister to this postmodern age Preaching the Manifold Grace of God, Volume 1

Ronald J. Allen, 2022-06-08 Preaching the Manifold Grace of God is a two volume work describing theologies of preaching from the historical and contemporary periods Volume 1 focuses on historical theological families Orthodox Roman Catholic Lutheran Reformed Anabaptist Anglican Episcopal Wesleyan Baptist African American Stone Campbell Friends and Pentecostal Volume 2 focuses on families that are evangelical liberal neo orthodox postliberal existential radical orthodox deconstructionist Black liberation womanist Latinx liberation Mujerista Asian American Asian American feminist LGBTQAI Indigenous postcolonial and process In each case the author describes the circumstances in which the theological family emerged and describes the purposes and characteristics of preaching from that perspective Ordination: Celebrating the Gift of Min , The Cost of Unity Lawrence A. Q. Burnley, 2008 This work focuses on African Americans and the Disciples of Christ Like other Protestant organizations in the United States the Christian Church was involved in the establishment of schools for African Americans in the South in the years following the end of the Civil War The most widely read books offering an interpretation of the history of this church tend to relegate the role of black people to passive recipients of white benevolence and largesse in this process of education reform This book examines the agency of African Americans in the founding of educational institutions for blacks associated with the Christian Church The philosophical discourse within the Christian Church concerning the purpose type and control of these schools is examined as well as the prevailing racial assumptions and attitudes that informed each of these areas The author argues that African Americans within the Christian Church played an active role both in cooperating with Disciples mission agencies and acting independent of these agencies in the conceptualization and founding of schools for their communities In addition contrary to Disciples reformers claim of being motivated by their desire to elevate the Negro race the nearly exclusive application of the industrial model of education in schools established by the Disciples of Christ mission agencies for African Americans reflects an intentional effort by whites within this movement to encumber African American efforts to achieve socioeconomic and political advancement autonomy and self determination Finally the conservative approach to schooling for African Americans was largely the result of northern Disciples acquiescence to the demands of Southern members of the church for the sake of maintaining unity within the national church Disciples and Theology Stephen Sprinkle,1999 American Book Publishing Record ,2003

A Theology of Paul the Apostle, Part Two G. Roger Greene,2023-07-12 The legacy of Paul looms large in all Christian theology The New Testament and the Christian world itself would be a very different place apart from the impact of the apostle Paul The work Theology of Paul the Apostle is presented in two parts Attention is given in each volume to the foreground matrix of the place of Paul within historical Christian interpretation Part One Paul s Eschatological Gospel addresses matters relevant for Paul s appreciation of the gospel of God in the establishment of the eschatological community in Christ Part Two Cross and Atonement addresses the more specific and particular issues within Paul s gospel that have been a storm center within theological discussion The present writer finds Paul to be one who embraces the gospel of God in Christ the resurrection being the turning point of the ages that calls for a cruciform imperative of Christian identity and living in an eschatological age of fulfillment Paul s theology and cross imperative has continuing relevance within the very different matrix of a postmodern world A Theology of Paul the Apostle, Part One G. Roger Greene,2023-07-21 The legacy of Paul looms large in all Christian theology While the study of Paul is not a simple task proper interpretation should be sustainable on the basis of a thorough examination of Paul s letters within their historical matrix The work Theology of Paul the Apostle is presented in two parts Part One Paul s Eschatological Gospel addresses matters relevant for Paul s appreciation of the gospel of God in the establishment of the eschatological community in Christ Paul s Judaism informs his apocalyptic description as he expresses his thought with consistent convictions within the varied contingent contexts of his communities within a Greco Roman world Part Two Cross and Atonement examines a perennial storm center within Paul s theology from both an exegetical and developmentally historical perspective Paul was embraced by the gospel of God in Christ the resurrection being the turning point of the ages While Paul s theology and the understandings of Paul must be established point by point Paul s theology has continuing relevance within the very different matrix of a postmodern world
