Discovering Our Christian Faith An Introduction To Theology:

Discovering Our Christian Faith Samuel M. Powell, 2008 This introduction to Christian theology explores the Bible's amazing story and helps you understand and encounter the knowledge of God Walk In Christ Second Edition Christopher Sackett, 2017-11-16 Walk in Christ Living in the Light of Christianity Second Edition This book is intended to help the new believer or someone seeking the Creator with basic Biblical Applications to life This book also includes some theology and Biblical History that is intended to help enhance one's walk with Christ Practicing Christian Doctrine Beth Felker Jones, 2023-07-11 This introductory theology text helps students articulate basic Christian doctrines think theologically so they can act Christianly in a diverse world and connect Christian thought to their everyday lives of faith Written from a solidly evangelical yet ecumenically aware perspective this book models a way of doing theology that is generous and charitable It attends to history and contemporary debates and features voices from the global church Sidebars made up of illustrative quotations key Scripture passages classic hymn texts and devotional poetry punctuate the chapters The first edition of this book has been well received over 25 000 copies sold Updated and revised throughout this second edition also includes a new section on gender and race as well as new end of chapter material connecting each doctrine to a spiritual discipline Life in the Image of God Ronald C. Calhoun, 2013-09-06 The King has come The God of love planned reconciliation and transformation for the people he created He planned liberation from bondage for all creation through the life death and resurrected life of his Son Jesus Christ Jesus the King has come He has inaugurated the kingdom The Sermon on the Mount Matt 57 is the constitution of that kingdom The constitution is intended to make Christlike disciples The central dynamic of the constitution is godlike love and is based on his grace The Sermon begins with the essence of character which is the foundation of all relationships and conduct Who we are determines the influence we have and controls our conduct Our conduct is based on right relationships with God others self and the material world The Sermon is practical dealing with every aspect of life Our relationship with God is to be one of reverence and self discipline Our relationship to possessions calls for rejection of slavery to those possessions and to worry In relationship to self we must avoid destructive criticism and exercise discernment Many areas are discussed in our relationship to others such as murder sex retaliation and more Join me in the study of the kingdom constitution as it reveals how to live life in the image of God All who will may become a part of the kingdom by offering full allegiance to the King and by living life by the rule of godlike love Notes and Essays on Theology Domenic Marbaniang, 2015-03-14 Notes and essays on Theology Christology Pneumatology Cosmology Anthropology Soteriology Ecclesiology Demonology Angelology Eschatology Systematic Theology, Volume 1, Fourth Edition James Leo Garrett, 2014-09-14 Rivals the major systematic theologies of this century Baptist History and Heritage Journal July 1996 One of the characteristics of Garrett's system that needs especially to be noted is its balanced judicious and nearly invariably objective presentation of materials While holding true to the teachings of his own Baptist faith Garrett so carefully and judiciously presents alternatives that teachers and students from other confessional and denominational positions will find his work instructive

Consensus 1997 If one is searching for an extensive exposition of the biblical foundations and historical developments of the various loci of systematic theology there is no more complete presentation in a relatively short work than this

Pastors will especially find this feature to be a real help in teaching theology It is an indispensable contribution to the task of systematic theology

Journal of the Evangelical Theological Society September 1999 Many students and pastors will find all they need here and will in addition be helped to relate their knowledge to recent developments in the theological world

The Churchman A Journal of Anglican Theology 1991 A gold mine of helpful material

The Christian Century May 29 June 5 1991 No book that I know is more loaded with biblical and theological facts than this one

The prodigious research that must have gone into the preparation of this volume is truly mind boggling

Faith and Mission Fall 1991 Garrett has provided a massive and scholarly systematic theology from a thoroughly conservative and comprehensive viewpoint

The work is well documented in both biblical and historical scholarship and will prove to be a classic

William Hendrickson Southern Baptist Theological Seminary One of the most comprehensive concise books of its type available it should receive wide use in the classroom and in the study

Robert H Culpepper Southern Baptist Theological Seminary

Exploring Our Christian Faith W. T. Purkiser, 1978 A Wesleyan Arminian study of doctrine for the serious student

This new edition is 144 pages longer than the first edition and now includes New thoughtful critiques of open theism the new perspective on Paul Molinism or middle knowledge Free Grace theology and the preterist view of Christ's second coming

Completely revised stronger chapter on the clarity of Scripture Completely revised stronger chapter on creation and evolution

New discussion of how biblical inerrancy applies to some specific problem verses in the Gospels Additional material respectfully explaining evangelical Protestant differences with Roman Catholicism with extensive interaction with the Catechism of the Roman Catholic Church Protestant liberalism and Mormonism Completely updated bibliographies All Scripture quotations updated from RSV to ESV An explanation of why monogenes in John 3 16 and elsewhere should be translated as only begotten rather than merely only An extensive discussion on the eternal submission of the Son to the Father A discussion of recent criticisms of the penal substitutionary view of the atonement Numerous other updates and corrections that have been prompted by letters and emails from people around the world and by interaction with the students Wayne has taught over the last 26 years both at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School and at Phoenix Seminary

The Entangled God Kirk Wegter-McNelly, 2012-03-12 In The Entangled God Kirk Wegter McNelly addresses the age old theological question of how God is present to the world by constructing a novel scientifically informed account of the God world relation Drawing on recent scientific and philosophical work in quantum entanglement Wegter McNelly develops the metaphor of divine entanglement to ground the relationality and freedom of physical process in the power of God's relational being The Entangled God makes a three fold contribution to contemporary theological and religious discourse First it calls attention to the convergence of recent theology around the idea of relationality Second it introduces theological and religious readers to the fascinating story of quantum entanglement Third it offers a robust plerotic alternative to kenotic accounts of God's suffering presence in the world Above all this book takes us beyond the view of theology and science as adversaries and demonstrates the value of constructively relating these two important areas of intellectual investigation An Introduction to Wesleyan Theology William M. Systematic Theology Wayne A. Grudem, 1994 An introduction to theology that provides information on the scriptural basis for religious doctrines and their applications to the modern world Exploring Our Hebraic Heritage Marvin R. Wilson, 2014-07-09 Informed theological guide to the Jewish foundations of the Christian faith In this very readable sequel to his popular book Our Father Abraham which has sold more than 70 000 copies Marvin Wilson illuminates theological spiritual and ethical themes of the Hebrew scriptures that directly affect Christian understanding and experience Exploring Our Hebraic Heritage draws from both Christian and Jewish commentary in discussing such topics as thinking theologically about Abraham understanding the God of Israel and his reputation in the world and what it means for humans to be created in God's image Wilson calls for the church to restore renew and protect its foundations by studying and appreciating its origins in Judaism Designed to serve as an academic classroom text or for use in personal or group study the book includes hundreds of questions for review and discussion A Critical Examination of the Doctrine of Revelation in Evangelical Theology Carisa A. Ash, 2015-07-14 How God reveals himself is an important matter for Christians especially evangelicals For too long Carisa Ash contends evangelicals have rightly affirmed that God reveals through the created world but then they functionally neglect such revelation In this monograph Ash offers a corrective to this practice by presenting a theology of revelation that explores the commonalities between various forms of revelation world written and spoken word and Incarnate Word Particularly aimed at theologians interested in theological method Ash s study will also benefit people interested in faith and learning or interdisciplinary integration Ash argues that evangelicals must strive to align more closely their affirmations and their practice Her critique of current practices in theological method and integration along with the proposed theology of revelation are designed to help move the conversation forward Trinitarian Pneumatological Personhood and the Theology of John Zizioulas Ronald L. Adkins,2023-02-28 In a growing secular society what distinguishes a Christian from a non Christian Is a Christian identified by certain religious and ceremonial activity social action principles or do their relationships identify them as Christian This book suggests that a Christian person is in a continual relationship with the Triune God through the Holy Spirit Furthermore this living relationship reflects the eternal relationship of the Father Son and Holy Spirit because people have been created in the image and likeness of the Triune God This book uses historical theological philosophical and biblical approaches to understand the Christian person Throughout this book the reader will be engaged with the modern Greek theologian John Zizioulas However this book is a study on the person of the Holy Spirit though never separated from the trinitarian relationship who makes a human person a Christian The Oxford Handbook of the Bible and American Popular Culture Dan W. Clanton (Jr.),Terry R. Clark,2020 The study of the reciprocal relationship between the Bible and popular culture has blossomed in the past few decades and the time seems ripe for a broadly conceived work that assesses the current state of the field offers examples of work in that field and suggests future directions for further study This Handbook includes a wide range of topics organized under several broad themes including biblical characters such as Adam Eve David and Jesus and themes like Creation Hell and Apocalyptic in popular culture the Bible in popular cultural genres for example film comics and Jazz and lived examples such as museums and theme parks The Handbook concludes with a section taking stock of methodologies and the impact of the field on teaching and publishing The Oxford Handbook of the Bible and American Popular Culture represents a major contribution to the field by some of its leading practitioners and will be a key resource for the future development of the study of both the Bible and its role in American popular culture In-Between God Stephen Pickard,2011-12-28 In Between God explores three important areas for contemporary Christianity theology community and discipleship Part One inquires into the rhythms of faith as it interacts with themes of uncertainty and doubt the nature of theological discourse the task of systematic theology evangelism and the various ways in which theology is done Part Two discusses the importance of place in relation to the church and themes of innovation undecideability and new forms of monastic community Part Three addresses themes in discipleship simplicity mysticism the passions and pilgrimage A red thread connecting these essays is the character of the triune God who is the energy and life in between all things A Spiritual Portrait of a Believer Chet Cataldo,2010-02-19 The focus of this study is to discover the identity of the emphatic I of Rom 7 with the added purpose of attempting to draw a spiritual portrait of a mature Christian believer To accomplish this purpose the process is as follows An examination of Rom 7 within its context is conducted This examination is followed by an attempt at determining the experience of the emphatic I found within Rom 7 The next step in the process is to compare the experience of the emphatic I of Rom 7 as found within its context of Rom 1 8 with what Paul wrote elsewhere on the experience of new life in Christ for Christian believers The purpose of this comparison is to discover if Paul had a consistent portrait of spirituality and Christian maturity The final step is to compare the experience described by Paul both in Rom 7 and in the wider Pauline Corpus with the experience which John Wesley called perfection and with the Mystical experience called the spiritual marriage The study of Romans Wesley and the Mystics coupled with the wider study of the secondary literature showed that there is a remarkable consistency in the teaching and understanding that the closer a Christian believer gets to God the more this Christian believer is aware of his or her own sinfulness Paul in describing the experience of the emphatic I is describing a person who is becoming more and more aware of his or her own sinfulness The conclusion to be drawn from this study is that the identity of the emphatic I is of a regenerate Christian believer one who is growing ever closer and closer to God and at the same time is in pain over the remaining effects of sin
