State Power, Stigmatization, and Youth Resistance Culture in the French Banlieues Hervé Tchumkam,2015-04-09 State Power Stigmatization and Youth Resistance Culture in the French Banlieues Uncanny Citizenship foregrounds the literary sociological and political structures of urban literature in France It uses postcolonial theory sociology and political philosophy to investigate the modalities surrounding the question of citizenship in a country where citizens of African descent are not only considered a threat to national identity but also caught between inclusion and exclusion By examining the literary sociological and political structures of urban literatures produced after the 2005 riots this book interrogates the questions of citizenship belonging and coexistence in a context where literature from the periphery has become a site where central political power and mainstream French literary canons are contested Moreover these productions clearly reveal an unexplored correlation between geo aesthetics and contemporary French national geopolitics Ultimately this book is a plea for a serious approach to social formation in postcolonial France in a way that transcends skin color and instead is based on a shared colonial past as well as current social disqualifications
