Katherine A. Foss,2017-06-14 This book centers on the role of media in shaping public perceptions of breastfeeding Drawing from magazines doctors office materials parenting books television websites and other media outlets Katherine A Foss explores how historical and contemporary media often undermine breastfeeding efforts with formula marketing and narrow portrayals of nursing women and their experiences Foss argues that the media s messages play an integral role in setting the standard of public knowledge and attitudes toward breastfeeding as she traces shifting public perceptions of breastfeeding and their corresponding media constructions from the development of commercial formula through contemporary times This analysis demonstrates how attributions of blame have negatively impacted public health approaches to breastfeeding thus confronting the misperception that breastfeeding and the failure to breastfeed rests solely on the responsibility of an individual mother Ten Thousand Islands

Randy Wayne White,2001-06-01 Government agent turned marine biologist Doc Ford sails an endless sea of questions when he agrees to investigate a death from the past Years ago off Florida s Gulf Coast a teenaged girl found an ancient gold medallion Then she began having nightmares Then she was found hanging from a tree Now years later the girl s mother is being terrorized with break ins phone calls with no one there and her daughter s grave has been dug up Somebody wants that medallion The search for answers will lead Doc through a shadowy world of ancient ritual and modern corruption to an evil that was born in the past but lives in the present Essential

Breakthroughs: Conversations about Men, Mothers and Mothering Fionna Joy Green,2015-11-01 Essential Breakthroughs Conversations About Men Mothers and Mothering thinks from the nexus of gender essentialism and care The authors creatively blend the philosophical and the personal to collectively argue that while gender is essential to our social and theoretical definitions of care it is dangerously co opted into naturalized discourses which limit particular identities and negate certain forms of care The perspectives curated in Essential Breakthroughs illuminate how care as a respected and productive cultural ethic is neither inherent nor instinctual for any human but is learned and fostered The chapters are informed by feminist queer and trans politics wielding post structuralist methodologies of unlearning and deconstruction while maintaining the maternal lens as a credible feminist analytical tool and not as a gender essentialist practice
