Durrell And The City Collected Essays On Place:

Durrell and the City Donald P. Kaczvinsky, 2012 Durrell and the City commemorates the fiftieth anniversary of the publication of The Alexandria Quartet with a collection of fourteen new essays by a group of international scholars and critics The collection provides a critical consideration of Durrell's urban landscapes from the London of his early novels to Avignon during World War II in his last great series while focusing on the place that made him famous the city of Alexandria in order to provide a reassessment of his career and achievement

Durrell Re-read James M. Clawson, 2016-06-20 Reading the twelve major novels of Lawrence Durrell this study argues for their consideration as a single major project an opus marked by themes of liminality and betweenness As major texts of mid twentieth century literature repeatedly earning nominations for the Nobel Prize Durrell's work has attracted renewed critical attention since his centenary in 2012 This study shows the thematic unity of the opus in five areas First by disrupting expectations of love and death and by fashioning plural narrators works in the opus blend notions of the subject and the object Second in their use of metafictional elements the texts present themselves as neither fiction nor reality Third their approach to place and identity offers something between the naturalistic and the human centric Fourth though the texts initial concerns are engaged with understanding the past and preparing for a future they all resolve in something like the present And fifth though the novels reject many aspects of modernism they reside nevertheless between the poles of modernism and postmodernism Shared with other writers including T S Eliot and Henry Miller as early as the 1940s Durrell's plans for his major works of fiction remained consistent through the publication of the last novel in 1985 and these plans show the need to consider the twelve major works as a unitary whole

Re-reading The Alexandria Quartet of Lawrence Durrell (Durrell Studies 8) Richard Pine, 2023-08-25 Lawrence Durrell's The Alexandria Quartet is regarded as the central work in his fiction It has provoked critical commentary ever since the appearance of its individual volumes Justine 1957 Balthazar 1958 Mountolive and Clea 1959 and the publication in a one volume edition in 1962 Scores of Master's and PhD dissertations have been written since the 1960s on this most compelling and provocative novel Today The Alexandria Quartet stimulates critical discussion in works addressing the city Durrell's representation of Alexandria the theory of relativity the role of memory the recurring feature of the doppelgänger and the presence of the Gothic uncanny his frequent references to D H Lawrence his treatment of women characters his interest in Gnosticism and his own description of the Quartet as a strange mixture of sex and the secret service This volume of essays addresses all these themes and brings together the mature work of four scholars on this central work of Durrell's fiction together with two essays on its sequels Tunc Nunquam 1968-70 and The Avignon Quintet 1974-85

IMAGES (III) - Images of the City Veronika Bernard, Hatice Övgü Tüzün, 2014 IMAGES deals with the discourse of cultural encounters within the context of social co-existence Within this scope the project deals with both verbal and non-verbal communication and focuses on the thematic fields of cultural encounter poverty and migration This volume thus offers readers a cross section of current research both on the perception of urbanity and on contemporary and historical representations of the city coming from a variety of fields in people's daily lives Series Anthropology Ethnologie Vol 57 Subject Sociology Cultural Studies Urban Studies Poverty Studies Migration Studies Critically Mediterranean yasser elhariry, Edwige Tamalet Talbayev, 2018-03-06 Traversed by masses of migrants and wracked by environmental and economic change the Mediterranean has come to connote crisis In this context Critically Mediterranean asks how the theories and methodologies of Mediterranean studies may be brought to bear upon the modern and contemporary periods Contributors explore how the Mediterranean informs philosophy phenomenology the poetics of time and space and literary theory Ranging from some of the earliest twentieth century material on the Mediterranean to Edmond Amran El Maleh Christoforos Savva Orhan Pamuk and Etel Adnan the essays ask how modern and contemporary Mediterraneans may be deployed in political cultural artistic and literary practice The critical Mediterranean that emerges is plural and performative a medium through which subjects may negotiate imagined relations with the world around them Vibrant and deeply interdisciplinary Critically Mediterranean offers timely interventions for a sea in crisis Contemporary Trauma Narratives Jean-Michel Ganteau, Susana Onega, 2014-06-27 This book provides a comprehensive compilation of essays on the relationship between formal experimentation and ethics in a number of generically hybrid or liminal narratives dealing with individual and collective traumas running the spectrum from the testimonial novel and the fictional autobiography to the fake memoir written by a variety of famous more neglected contemporary British Irish US Canadian and German writers Building on the psychological insights and theorizing of the fathers of trauma studies Janet Freud Ferenczi and of contemporary trauma critics and theorists the articles examine the narrative strategies structural experimentations and hybridizations of forms paying special attention to the way in which the texts fight the unrepresentability of trauma by performing rather than representing it The ethicality or unethicity involved in this endeavor is assessed from the combined perspectives of the non foundational non cognitive discursive ethics of alterity inspired by Emmanuel Levinas and the ethics of vulnerability This approach makes Contemporary Trauma Narratives an excellent resource for scholars of contemporary literature trauma studies and literary theory Jerusalem in the Second World War Daphna Sharfman, 2023-12-28 This book is the first to present the unique story of the city of Jerusalem during the events of the Second World War and how it played a unique role in both the military and civilian aspects of the war Whilst Jerusalem is usually known for topics such as religion archaeology or the politics of the Israeli Arab conflict this volume provides an in depth analysis of this exceptional and temporary situation in Jerusalem offering a perspective that is different from the usual political strategic military analysis Although battles were raging in the nearby countries of Syria and Lebanon and the war in Egypt and the Western Desert the people who came to Jerusalem as well as those who lived there had different agendas and perspectives Some were spies and intelligence officers other were exiles or refugee immigrants from Europe who managed at the last moment to escape Nazi persecution Journalists and writers described life in the city at this time All were probably conscious of the fact that when the war came to an end local rivalry and mounting conflict would take the centre stage again This was a time of a special magical drawn out moment that may shed light on an alternative more peaceful kind of Jerusalem that unfortunately was not to be This volume seeks to find an alternative approach and to contribute to the development of insightful research into life in an unordinary city in an unordinary situation It will be of value to those interested in military history and the history of the Middle East The Hemingway Review ,2014 Durrell and the City Donald P. of contributors this will be the first resource of its kind to pull together such a comprehensive overview of the field

Alexandrian Cosmopolitanism Hala Halim, 2013-09-19 Interrogating how Alexandria became enshrined as the exemplary cosmopolitan space in the Middle East this book mounts a radical critique of Eurocentric conceptions of cosmopolitanism The dominant account of Alexandrian cosmopolitanism elevates things European in the city's culture and simultaneously places things Egyptian under the sign of decline The book goes beyond this civilization barbarism binary to trace other modes of intercultural solidarity Halim presents a comparative study of literary representations addressing poetry fiction guidebooks and operettas among other genres She reappraises three writers C P Cavafy E M Forster and Lawrence Durrell who she maintains have been cast as the canon of Alexandria Attending to issues of genre gender ethnicity and class she refutes the view that these writers' representations are largely congruent and uncovers a variety of positions ranging from Orientalist to anticolonial The book then turns to Bernard de Zogheb a virtually unpublished writer and elicits his camp parodies of elite Levantine mores in operettas one of which centers on Cavafy Drawing on Arabic critical and historical texts as well as contemporary writers and filmmakers' engagement with the canonical triumvirate Halim orchestrates an Egyptian dialogue with the European representations

Greece Between East and West Richard Pine, 2023-03-29 Greece Between East and West looks at the central geopolitical situation of Greece and its pivotal role in the Balkans and the Levant The trend towards modernisation and westernisation is examined in the light of traditional values in culture language history and politics which reflect Greece's eastern legacy and the continuing presence of that legacy in contemporary society It features original creative writing an interview with a leading film maker provocative accounts of political and cultural agitation on the Aegean islands aspects of Greek music and drama plus historical accounts of Greek cities like Smyrna Izmir and Alexandria and the new phenomenon of China's re-creation of the historic Silk Road Additionally Greece Between East and West features a Foreword by Roderick Beaton one of the most distinguished scholars and commentators on Greek history and social affairs and current Chair of the British School at Athens

Islands of the Mind Richard Pine, 2020-02-05 730 million people almost 10% of the world's population inhabit islands One quarter of the states represented at the United Nations are islands Islands constitute almost twenty percent of the total land area of Greece and exhibit more significant aspects of biodiversity than other global contexts They are both occasions of triumph and occurrences of catastrophe Islands are both open and enclosed communities points of arrival and departure Islands exert a fascination for the visitor and generate in the islander both positive and negative mindsets The romantic fallacies about self-sufficiency and insularity of islands are constantly challenged This collection of essays by scholars from some of the world's most compelling islands Jersey Ireland Tasmania Corfu Ereikousa Prince Edward Island Malta explores the psychology of islands islanders and their visitors the literatures they stimulate and the scientific ethical and biogeographical issues they present in an increasingly globalised world Corfu the home of Lawrence and Gerald Durrell in the 1930s and host to literary and scientific enquiry is the place where this collection was conceived and occupies a central place in its discussions English Literature Harvard University. Library,1971 Architecture in Fictional Literature: Essays on Selected Works Nevnihal Erdoğan,2021-12-24 The art of architecture is an important aesthetic element that can leave a lasting impression in one's mind about the values of a society Today's architectural art education and culture have gradually turned into engineering practices and more technical pursuits Architecture in Fictional Literature is a book written with the aim of understanding the concept of living spaces as portrayed in works of fiction and to open the doors to a new perspective for readers on the art of architecture It is a collection of essays written by educators and literary critics about how architecture is presented in 28 selected literary works of fiction These selected works which include well known works such as Hugo's Hunchback of Notre Dame Kafka's The Castle Swift's Gulliver's Travels Tolkien's The Lord of the Rings Carroll's Alice in Wonderland Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby among many others collectively attempt to illustrate facets of human life in a lucidly expressive way while also having an architectural background added in the narrative Each essay is unique and brings a diverse range of perspectives on the main theme while also touching on some niche topics in this area such as spatial analysis urban transformation and time period settings all of which have exploratory potential With this collection the contributors aspire to initiate the transformation of architectural education by including a blend of literary criticism By building a foundation of architectural aesthetics they hope to bridge the gap between the artist and the architect while also inspiring a new generation of urban planners landscape artists and interior designers to consider past works when designing living spaces Architecture in Fictional Literature is also essential to any enthusiast of fictional works who wants to understand the fictional portrayal of living spaces and architecture in literature Bloomsbury Good Reading Guide Nick Rennison,2009-11-23 Deciding what to read next when you've just finished an unputdownable novel can be a daunting task The Bloomsbury Good Reading Guide features hundreds of authors and thousands of titles with navigation features to lead you on a rich journey through some of the best literature to grace our shelves The City as Catalyst Diana Festa-McCormick,1979 A series of ten chapters on cities as pictured and explored by as many novelists In these ten separate yet connected chapters the city is not merely a setting for the events but a moving force and the catalyst for action Encyclopedia of British Writers, 1800 to the Present George Stade,Karen Karbiener,2010-05-12 Contains alphabetically arranged entries that provide biographical and critical information on major and lesser known nineteenth and twentieth century British writers and includes articles on key schools of literature and genres
