Dusty Answer A Novel:

Dusty Answer Rosamond Lehmann, 1927 Dusty Answer Rosamond Lehmann, 2024-03-18 Judith Earle a solitary and sensitive young woman navigates the turbulent waters of love friendship and self discovery in Rosamond Lehmann's evocative debut novel Dusty Answer Set against the backdrop of the early 20th century Judith's journey unfolds within the confines of her idyllic riverside home and the hallowed halls of Cambridge University Her life becomes intricately entwined with the enchanting Fyfe cousins whose presence ignites her passions and shapes her understanding of intimacy and betrayal Lehmann masterfully captures the poignant transition from innocence to experience exploring themes of unrequited love the search for identity and the elusive nature of happiness As Judith grapples with the complexities of her emotions and the shifting dynamics of her relationships readers are invited into a richly textured world where every glance and whispered word carries profound significance Dusty Answer resonates with contemporary readers through its timeless exploration of the human heart and its yearnings reminding us that the quest for connection and meaning is a universal and enduring pursuit Dusty Answer Rosamond Lehmann, 1984 Women's University Fiction, 1880-1945 Anna Bogen, 2015-10-06 The rise of the middle classes brought a sharp increase in the number of young men and women able to attend university Developing in the wake of this increase the university novel often centred on male undergraduates at either Oxford or Cambridge Bogen argues that an analysis of the lesser known female narratives can provide new insights Rosamond Lehmann and Her Critics Wendy Pollard, 2017-11-28 This study of contemporary and later critical responses to the work of the novelist Rosamond Lehmann 1901-1990 offers an original approach to twentieth century literary history by foregrounding the cultural and commercial fields in which Lehmann's writing was situated Wendy Pollard examines the effect recent developments in literary theory and movements from modernism to feminism have had on Lehmann's literary reception She also considers the interpolation of a damning third category between the and popular culture namely middlebrow a widening gender divide in readership controversies within book reviewing changes in the publishing world and the introduction of popularist means of book marketing While considering the general privileging of male authors from the 1920s to the 1950s Lehmann's most prolific period Pollard argues that her novels have been unfairly subjected to specific forms of neglect and their exclusion from many academic comparative studies is due to a diversity of form and content that can also be considered their strength The Reader's Digest of Books Helen Rex Keller, 1929 First published as part of The library of the world's best literature edited by Charles Dudley Warner 1896-97 Censorship across Borders Alberto Lázaro, Catherine O'Leary, 2011-07-12 This volume brings together twelve essays which explore European censorship of English literature in the last century Taking into consideration the various social political and historical contexts in which literary controls were imposed and the extent to which they were determined by national and international concerns these essays comment on political and moral censorship self censorship and the role of the translator as censor Besides systematic state control other hidden and insidious forms of censorship are also surveyed in the essays This study considers why certain works and authors many of them now regarded as canonical were targeted in various states and often under opposing ideologies such as those dominated by conservative Catholic morality and those governed by communism or socialism The essays contain previously unpublished material cover a wide range of authors including Beckett Eliot Joyce and Orwell and analyse diverse censorship systems operating across Europe thus serving as a useful comparative resource Despite the variety of structures of suppression the study shows that certain common practices can be discerned across national borders and that general conclusions can be drawn about the complex and ambiguous nature of the state's relationship with culture and about the immediate and long term impact of censorship not only on the author and publisher but on society as a whole Finally the essays are also significant for what they tell us about the survival of literature despite the best efforts of the censors

Fiction Catalog ,1928 Literature as History Simon Barker,Jo Gill,2011-10-27 Literature as History presents a selection of specially commissioned essays by a range of key contemporary thinkers on the interdisciplinary study of literature and history The unifying theme is the interrelationship between literary cultural production and its historical moment The essays in the collection are astute and exciting in terms of their engagement with ever changing developments in critical and theoretical practice while retaining an invaluable focus on familiar and engaging texts and authors The contributors offer a reappraisal of the nature of literary studies today looking back over the thirty five years of Peter Widdowson's career a career which has coincided with the emergence of challenges to and reformulations of critical theory and ask what the future holds particularly for the interdisciplinary ways of working which Widdowson pioneered Bringing together distinguished scholars in the interdisciplinary study of English and History it seizes the opportunity to take stock of the current field of literary studies and to ask searching questions about its future development The American News Trade Journal ,1926 The European Scrap Book ,1928 Understanding Jonathan Coe Merritt Moseley,2016-07-30 An examination of the life career and oeuvre of the British novelist and biographer In Understanding Jonathan Coe the first full length study of the British novelist Merritt Moseley surveys a writer whose experimental technique has become increasingly well received and critically admired Coe is the recipient of the John Llewellyn Rhys Prize the Prix Medicis the Priz du Meilleur Livre Entranger the Bollinger Everyman Wodehouse Prizes for Fiction and the Samuel Johnson Prize for Nonfiction His oeuvre includes eleven novels and three biographies two of famous Hollywood actors Humphrey Bogart and Jimmy Stewart and one of English modernist novelist B S Johnson Following an introductory overview of Coe's life and career Moseley examines Coe's complex engagement with popular culture his experimental technique his political satire and his broad canvased depictions of British society Though his first three books An Accidental Woman A Touch of Love and The Dwarves of Death received little notice upon publication Moseley shows their strengths as literary works and as precursors In 1994 Coe gained visibility with What a Carve Up which has remained his most admired and discussed novel He has since published a postmodern take on sleep disorders and university students The House of Sleep a two volume roman fleuve consisting of The Rotters Club and The Closed Circle a touching account of a lonely woman's life The Rain before It Falls a satiric vision of a misguided life The Terrible Privacy of Maxwell Sim and a domestic comedy thriller set at the 1958 world's fair in Brussels Expo 58 Moseley explicates these works and discusses the recurring features of Coe's fiction political consciousness a deep artistic concern with the form of fiction and comedy

Rosamond Lehmann Selina Hastings, 2012-02-29 The life of Rosamond Lehmann was as romantic and harrowing as that of any of her fictional heroines Her first novel the shocking Dusty Answer became wildly successful launching her career as a novelist and just as her novels depicted the tempestuous lives of her heroines Rosamond's personal life would be full of heartbreaking affairs and lost loves Escaping from a disastrous early marriage Rosamond moved right into the heart of Bloomsbury society with Wogan Philipps Later on she would embark on the most important love affair of her life with the poet Cecil Day Lewis nine years later he abandoned her for a young actress a betrayal from which she would never recover Selina Hastings masterfully creates a portrait of a woman whose dramatic life work and relationships crisscrossed the cultural literary and political landscape of England in the middle of the twentieth century

Aspects of Bloomsbury S. Rosenbaum, 1998-06-10 Much of the widespread interest in the Bloomsbury Group over the past quarter century has been biographical yet without the Group's works there would be little interest in their lives The studies in literary and intellectual history and collected in this volume are chiefly concerned with these works Subjects covered in the eight essays include an analysis of the philosophical assumption of Virginia Woolf's fiction an assessment of J M Keynes's account of D H Lawrence's reactions to Cambridge discussions of the literary backgrounds of E M Forster's Aspects of the Novel and Virginia Woolf's A Room of One's Own a consideration of the Woolfs work as printers and publishers and a history of Ludwig Wittgenstein's relations with the Bloomsbury Group

The Texas Outlook, 1928 Bookseller & Stationer and Office Equipment Journal, 1928 The Swan in the Evening Rosamond Lehmann, 2015-07-21 Rosamond Lehmann's only autobiographical work recreates the events that shaped her life from childhood to motherhood to the death of her daughter Rosamond Lehmann was born during a violent February thunderstorm and lived a sheltered privileged life with her parents brother and sisters Writing from the distance of decades she reveals why no adult would ever apologize to a child shares thoughts on her first conscious memory and discusses the taboo subjects of birth death physical and sexual functions Later she recounts the tragedy that rocked her world as a mother A blackbird with a broken neck appears as a harbinger of doom A few hours after finding the bird Lehmann receives a phone call from her son telling her that her twenty four year old daughter Sally is dead Wracked with grief and desperate for answers Lehmann a non believer finds solace in spiritualism Beginning with an examination of Lehmann's singular childhood featuring cherished friends and pets and concluding with an extraordinary letter to her granddaughter Anna The Swan in the Evening is about the search for peace and acceptance and finding hope in the face of unbearable loss Rosamond Lehmann Judy Simons,2011 This book locates Lehmann s fictional achievement in the context of her times and in particular describes its positioning within the turbulent period between two world wars and the changing aesthetic of modernity A Note In Music Rosamond Lehmann,2013-03-07 Grace Fairfax lives with her dull conventional husband Tom in a grey manufacturing town in the north of England At thirty four she finds that her external life of dreary routine fails to match up to her lush wistful and dreamy internal life Norah her energetic and chaotic friend is equally settled in her own marriage to an irritable university professor Then Hugh Miller and his sister Claire descend upon the quiet town On all four the hypnotic charm of these two visitors exerts an enchanting spell And after their departure life having been violently disrupted will never be quite the same again Scribner's Magazine Robert Bridges,Alfred Sheppard Dashiell,Harlan Logan,1927
