

A white sea lion is swimming underwater in clear blue water. The sea lion is facing towards the left of the frame, with its head slightly tilted upwards. Its large, dark eyes and long, thin whiskers are clearly visible. The sea lion's body is sleek and white, contrasting with the deep blue of the water. Its flippers are extended, and its tail is visible at the bottom. The background shows some light rays filtering through the water, creating a serene underwater scene.

Spencer A. Rathus, 2003-07 PSYCHOLOGY CONCEPTS AND CONNECTIONS BRIEF VERSION will help your students make the connections between key concepts in psychology and the connections between those concepts and their own lives

Spencer Rathus's warm and engaging writing style explains the fundamentals in ways that students can understand and then goes a step further to show how those fundamentals relate to students' daily lives. Rathus's commitment to helping students learn goes beyond the text narrative and is reflected in the text's proven active learning system PQ4R (Preview, Question, Read, Reflect, Review, and Recite). This system is seamlessly integrated into the book's companion Connections CD-ROM, the Book Companion Web Site, and the Study Guide, all of which are FREE with every new copy of the text. New Learning Connections and Life Connections sections in the text also include icons that cue students to interactive content on the Connections CD-ROM and the Book Companion Web Site. This seamless integration of text and technology enhances the active learning system PQ4R in the text and gives students multiple ways to connect with the text's current research and relevant applications. In this edition, Rathus invites students to learn about the latest in evolutionary psychology, biology, diversity, and gender issues in psychology in a text that is concise yet thorough. THE Journal, 1987
