Thomas, 2016-11-15 The Introduction to African American Preaching is an important groundbreaking book This book acknowledges African American preaching as an academic discipline and invites all students and preachers into a scholarly dynamic and useful exploration of the topic Author Frank Thomas opens with a bus tour study of African American preaching He shows how African American preaching has gradually moved from an almost exclusively oral to an oral written tradition Readers will gain insight into the history of the study of the African American preaching tradition and catch the author s enthusiasm for it Next Thomas traces the relationship between homiletics and rhetoric in Western preaching demonstrating how African American preaching is inherently theological and rhetorical He then explores the question what is black preaching Thomas introduces the reader to methods of close reading and ideological criticism And then demonstrates how to use these methods using a sermon by Gardner Calvin Taylor as his example The next chapter considers the question what is excellence in black preaching The next chapter seeks to create bridges and dialogue within the field of homiletics and in particular the Euro American homiletic tradition The goal of this chapter is to clearly demonstrate connections between the African American preaching tradition and the field of homiletics Thomas next turns to questions about the relevancy of the church to the Millennial generation Specifically how will the African American church remain relevant to this generation which is so deeply concerned with social justice

What's Right with Preaching Today? Mike Graves, André Resner, 2021-03-09 In 1928 when Riverside Church NYC pastor Harry Emerson Fosdick asked the question in Harpers Magazine What s the Matter with Preaching Today he did not know that one response to that question had just entered the world in Humboldt Tennessee Fred B Craddock revolutionized preaching theory and practice by flipping pulpit logic from deductive to inductive often called the preaching as storytelling revolution and in so doing brought renewed interest and impact to the practice of preaching effectively rescuing it from an often tedious and moralizing fate With Fred preaching was anything but boring Rather it was an exciting and enlightening ride that led to the renewal of faith To honor Craddock s legacy Mike Graves and Andre Resner invited ten leading voices in homiletics to identify something that is right about preaching today In addition they issued a call to a wide variety of people to contribute stories about Fred s impact on their lives and ministries Twenty seven remembrances of Fred are included here throughout the book If you appreciate effective and engaging preaching as either a preacher or listener the essays and remembrances here will speak to you and provide encouragement about preaching s present and future With contributions from Ronald J Allen Barbara K Lundblad Alyce McKenzie Debra J Mumford Luke Powery Andre Resner Richard Ward Dawn Ottoni Wilhelm Paul Scott Wilson

The Worldview of the Word of Faith Movement: Eden Redeemed Mikael Stenhammar, 2021-12-16 This volume approaches the Word of Faith as a worldview and analyses the movement through N T Wright s model for worldview analysis in order to provide necessary nuance and complexity to scholarly interpretations of the Word of Faith The reader receives insights into the movement s narrative semiotic practical and propositional dimensions which cumulatively offer a multifaceted understanding of how the Word of Faith interprets reality and engages with the world The analysis shows that there is a narrative core to Word of Faith beliefs in the form of a unique theological story with focus set on the present restoration of Eden s authority and blessings This study demonstrates how the Word of Faith operates as a distinct worldview that parses the world through the lens of faith s causative power to affect a direct correspondence between present reality and Eden s perfection The findings advance a critical and therapeutic approach that acknowledges how the worldview both strengthens and subverts Pentecostalism

Making a Scene in the Pulpit Alyce M. McKenzie, 2018-10-23 How can preachers ensure that their sermons continue to engage listeners in a world defined by visual media and the short segmented delivery of information Alyce McKenzie harnesses the element of drama and the human fascination with scenes to offer ministers a modern means of sermon development and delivery McKenzie's core strategy is to invite listeners into scenes whether from Scripture or contemporary life and once they are there to point them toward the larger story of God's relationship with humankind. Creating such scenes unifies the whole process of preaching she says from the preacher's daily life observations to interpretation of scenes from Scripture to sermon shaping sequencing and delivery. The process culminates in a specific understanding of the purpose of the sermon to send listeners out into the scenes they'll play in their lives for the next week equipped to act out their parts in ways that are kinder more just and more courageous than last week. Preaching the Headlines Lisa L. Thompson, 2021. Preaching the Headlines reframes preaching as an ongoing conversation between the modern world and the world of the biblical text. Preachers use what they know about life as a bridge to the text while life in the text provides the bridge back to faith in the contemporary world. The goal of the book is to provide a process to aid preachers in doing theological reflection on the everyday world as an integral part of sermon development. "Brand® New Theology" McGee, Paula L., 2017-03-16. McGee critiques the popular Health Wealth message so prominently targeted especially to black Christian women. She examines the preaching and writing of T. D. Jakes as the most representative of a new phenomenon the New Black Church a new form of prosperity gospel that signifies what she calls the Wal-Martization of religion. Handbook of Research on the Impact of Culture in Conflict Prevention and Peacebuilding Essien, Essien, 2020-03-20. The contemporary conflict scenarios are beyond the reach of standardized approaches to conflict resolution. Given the curious datum that culture is implicated in nearly every conflict in the world culture can also be an important aspect of efforts to transform destructive conflicts into more constructive social processes. Yet what culture is and how culture matters in conflict scenarios is contested and regrettably unexplored. The Handbook of Research on the Impact of Culture in Conflict Prevention and Peacebuilding is a critical publication that examines cultural differences in conflict resolution based on various aspects of culture such as morals traditions and laws. Highlighting a wide range of topics such as criminal justice politics and technological development this book is essential for educators social scientists sociologists political leaders government officials academicians conflict resolution practitioners world peace organizations researchers and students. Colored Television Marla Frederick, 2015-12-16. The presence of women and African Americans not simply as viewers but also as televangelists and station owners in their own right has dramatically changed the face of American religious broadcasting in recent decades. Colored Television looks at the influence of these ministries beyond the United States where complex gospels of prosperity and gospels of sexual redemption mutually inform one another while offering hopeful yet socially contested narratives of personal uplift. As an ethnography Colored Television illuminates the phenomenal international success of American TV preachers like T. D. Jakes Creflo Dollar Joyce Meyer and Juanita Bynum. Focusing particularly on Jamaica and the Caribbean it also explores why the genre has resonated so powerfully around the world. Investigating the roles of producers consumers and distributors Marla Frederick takes a unique look at the ministries the communities they enter and the global markets of competition that buffer them

The Arts and the Bible Stanley E. Porter, Wendy J. Porter, 2024-01-04 Throughout its history the Christian church has had a troubled relationship with the arts whether literature poetry music visual arts or other forms of artistic expression This volume is not designed to resolve the issues but it is designed to present a number of different statements about various dimensions of the arts in their relationship to the Bible The Bible is the document that stands behind the Christian church as an inspiration to it and to its arts As a result we have divided this volume into six parts perspectives on the arts culture and art visual enactments contemporary interpretations music and the Bible and literature Many of the issues that the history of the interaction of the arts and the Bible within the Christian church has uncovered are insightfully and artfully addressed by this book The wide range of contributors runs the gamut from practicing artists of various media to scholars within varied academic fields

Televised Redemption Carolyn Moxley Rouse, John L. Jackson, Jr., Marla F. Frederick, 2016-11-22 How Black Christians Muslims and Jews have used media to prove their equality not only in the eyes of God but in society The institutional structures of white supremacy slavery Jim Crow laws convict leasing and mass incarceration require a commonsense belief that black people lack the moral and intellectual capacities of white people It is through this lens of belief that racial exclusions have been justified and reproduced in the United States Televised Redemption argues that African American religious media has long played a key role in humanizing the race by unabashedly claiming that blacks are endowed by God with the same gifts of goodness and reason as whites if not more thereby legitimizing black Americans rights to citizenship If racism is a form of perception then religious media has not only altered how others perceive blacks but has also altered how blacks perceive themselves Televised Redemption argues that black religious media has provided black Americans with new conceptual and practical tools for how to be in the world and changed how black people are made intelligible and recognizable as moral citizens In order to make these claims to black racial equality this media has encouraged dispositional changes in adherents that were at times empowering and at other times repressive From Christian televangelism to Muslim periodicals to Hebrew Israelite radio Televised Redemption explores the complicated but critical redemptive history of African American religious media

Development as Peace Wole Adegbile, 2023-08-04 The colonial definition of development has not served Africa well While Western assessments have generally revolved around a nation s GDP infrastructure and the like African cultures and the Yoruba people in particular have traditionally measured development in relation to the amount of peace experienced in a society and the wellbeing of its people In this study Dr Wole Adegbile examines the political theological and cultural contexts of contemporary development activity in Africa including the impact of modernization theory on African nation states He then draws on traditional Yoruba political thoughts and practices including the similarities between the Yoruba conception of a thriving community and the biblical principle of shalom to formulate a contextual political theology of development that would holistically address cultural identity and spiritual restoration Rooted in the intersection of Scripture and traditional African values this book suggests a way forward for African society its political leaders and the church
