on board the insights of contemporary critical theory especially feminist theory in order to elucidate the complex challenges of both the absence and presence of women in the historical record That is to say unlike the two earlier books on women in this period by Fell 1984 and by Chance 1986 this is not a book about only those women in the written record whether we think of it as historical or literary of Anglo Saxon England it also tackles the question of how the feminine is modelled used and metaphorised in Anglo Saxon texts even when women themselves are absent This book spans the entire Anglo Saxon period from Aldhelm and Bede in the earliest centuries to Alfric and the anonymous homilists and hagiographers of the later tenth and eleventh centuries it draws on Anglo Saxon vernacular texts as well as Latin ones and on those works most familiar to literary scholars such as the Exeter Book Riddles or Cadmon's Hymn the first so called poem in English or the female Lives of Saints as well as historians wills charters the cult of relics it deliberately reconsiders from the perspective of gender and women's agency some of the key conceptual issues that studying Anglo Saxon England presents the relation of orality to literacy that of poetry and sanctity to belief and the cultural significance of names naming and metaphors in Anglo Saxon writing

Adaptation and Beyond Eva C. Karpinski, Ewa Kęłowska-Ławniczak, 2023-09-29 This interdisciplinary collection focuses on recent adaptations both experimental and popular that put hybridity transtextuality and transmediality at play It reframes adaptation in terms of the transmedia concept of world building which accurately captures the complexity and multidirectionality of contemporary scattered and ubiquitous practices of adaptation The editors argue that the process of moving stories or their elements across different media platforms and repurposing them for new uses results in the production of hybrid transtextualities The book demonstrates how hybrid textualities augment narrative and literary forms as goals of their world building finding unexpected sites of cross pollination expansion and appropriation in spoken word and dance performance auto biographical comics advertising Chinese Kun opera and popular song lyrics This yoking of hybridity and transmediality yields not only diversified and often commercialized aesthetic forms but also enables the emergence a unique cultural space in between a mezzaterra capable of addressing current political issues and mobilizing broader audiences
