Alidou,2024-04-23 Protest Arts Gender and Social Change Fiction Popular Songs and the Media in Hausa Society across Borders by Ousseina Alidou examines how a new generation of novelists popular songwriters and musical performers in contemporary Hausa society are using their creative works to effect social change This book empathizes with the reality of the forms of oppression social isolation and marginalization that vulnerable and underprivileged communities in contemporary Hausa society in Northern Nigeria and the Niger Republic have been experiencing from the mid 1980s to the present It also highlights the ways in which song performances produce an intertextual dialogue between their lyrics and visual dramatic narratives to raise awareness against social ills including gender based violence and social inequalities exposed by biomedical health pandemics such as HIV and COVID 19 In these creative Hausa narratives the oppressed and marginalized have agency in articulating their own experiences While there is an abundance of social science studies giving voice to the dominant actors of hegemonic violence in Hausa society there is a dearth of works that center the voices of the afflicted unprivileged and marginalized class among whom are women and youth One aim of this book is to examine the ways popular songs and fiction fill up the humanistic urgency to capture the dignity of the life of those dehumanized by local national and international hegemonic religious and secular forces The book focuses on the resistance narratives of one female novelist and six song composers and performers that generate alternative counterhegemonic responses to dominant patriarchal discourses produced by cultural religious and political elites thus reaching out to marginalized local and national communities and global audiences Alidou interweaves the social political and biomedical epidemics with the concept of Hausa interiority to create a unique perspective on contemporary Hausa culture and politics through the lens of artistic productions Working with the Human Trafficking Survivor Mary C.
