

BEST LASH STYLE FOR YOUR EYE SHAPE

BEST LASH STYLE FOR YOUR EYE SHAPE

Upturned Eyes

Upturned eyes can be paired with several different eye shapes, the almond shaped eye is the most common. There is a good rule of thumb, if you are going for the dramatic look that you consider that you are toward the outer part of the eye, the more of an over-curl look, try lashes that don't really curve the eye.

Close Set Eyes

Focus on accentuating the outer corner to lift and lengthen the eye. To increase the appearance of width, a natural lash style should be used. The lash style to help you achieve the lift and lengthen look, are styles with longer lash lengths from inner to outer that feel thicker lashes in the inner corner, tapering to longer lashes toward the outer corner.

Downturned Eyes

For a look that will draw attention to the eye in the first row, the downturned eye is the perfect shape for a dramatic and voluminous eye look. Having longer lashes in the inner corner will put the eye a little upturned and more length along the lash line.

Monolid Eyes

Monolid eyes often naturally have straighter lashes, choose a style with more flare for dramatic and length on the outer corner, this will create an illusion of elongated eyes.

Wide Set Eyes

If the focus is on the focus is the inner corner of the eye, the inner corner is not ignored. If it is a natural eye or a curled look are incorporated, natural look, it's best to avoid "cat eye" lashes, they place the full weight of the eye toward the outer to look too wide.

Rounded Eyes

In the heavily rounded eye, you want to have a strong eye starting as a look toward the outer corner. You want to create a slight effect a curved eye giving them the illusion of length, lengthen eye, avoid "heavy", this will make the eye more rounded and closed.

Protruding Eyes

It is best to use "W" or "U" curls as well as using the "cat eye shape". This will make the eye appear longer.

Round Eyes

All shapes and features round, rounded bright eyes. To properly lift the eye to the outside will create a subtle lift, voluminous effect, also known as the cat eye effect.

Almond Eyes

Almond Eye shape can carry off any extreme style. Depending on the look and you going for this eye shape is very versatile and any style will complement your eye shape. (Page 2 of 4)
