South Africa's Emergent Middle Class Grace Khunou,2017-10-02 This book is drawn from diverse studies that grapple with Black Middle Class experiences in contemporary and historical South Africa The chapters present research from diverse disciplines and tackle issues related to being black and middle class using both quantitative and qualitative approaches Like many other social phenomena the black middle class concept is seen as complex and not easy to pin down As a result conceptualizations from these chapters are dynamic and relevant for understanding the position of the black middle class in contemporary South African society An interesting dynamic explored by contributors is the critical engagement with the usually reductionist notions of black middle class experiences as ahistorical homogenous experiences of a group of conspicuous consumers These limiting notions are unpacked and repositioned in how the book is structured This book was published as a special issue of Development Southern Africa The World of Street Food Troth Wells, 2007-03-15 A collective effort by the author and fans of street food worldwide this book combines thorough research with personal stories from the people and places the recipes come from Each recipe is accompanied by award winning food photography and evocative travel pictures The majority of recipes are vegetarian and many are vegan or vegan adaptable As with all New Internationalist food books The World of Street Food includes information on nutrition and organic Fair Trade ingredients
