H. Espinosa, Martin H. Fuller, Mitchell J. Kennard, Joel I. Oladele, John-Paul Petrash, Kerry S. Robichaux, 2023-07-03 This volume is the second of a two part work that evaluates the teaching of justification by faith from the early church to modern times in light of the Scriptures and the ministry of Watchman Nee and Witness Lee Part 2 continues the evaluation begun in part 1 by examining the teaching of justification by faith from the mid sixteenth century to the twenty first century Throughout these centuries numerous accounts of this foundational Christian truth have been offered and many controversies have been and continue to be fought Beginning with the Lutheran tradition in the opening chapter the authors identify the contributions and shortcomings of each of the major Christian traditions While many of the Christian traditions have contributed some light to the church's understanding of justification by faith the authors contend that most of them have fallen short of the truth that in justification God approves the believers solely on account of their union with Christ as righteousness through faith
