It is however also spoken in large pockets of Kasungu District in the Central Region and also in the Eastern Province of Zambia and in Lundazi District in particular. Tonga spoken in Nkhatabay and Nkhotakota is like a cousin to Tumbuka with a close resemblance in their phonetics. This can be done through the use of idioms, proverbs or ideophones. This collection is on commonly used Tumbuka ideophones where an ideophone shall mean a word describing a situation or a state of affairs or a set of actions all in one word. It is the intention of this collection to provoke both interest in the use of ideophones as a form of expression in literature and to expound on the richness of Bantu languages.

The Lakeshore Tonga were the first ethnic group to identify themselves with the Christian faith. The purpose of the research was to investigate the use of Tonga myths, folktales, proverbs and rituals for their role in Moral Education and assess and evaluate their contribution towards value formation for the youth. Each chapter in the book aims to discuss some ideas in the anthropology of religion and to illustrate them with specific case studies formed primarily through conversation with friends both young and old over some years.

Tongue and Mother Tongue African Literature Association. Meeting, 2002 Tongue and Mother Tongue takes on two compelling challenges: the language question and the place and role of the mother tongue in African literature. This collection is the culmination of the fierce decades old debate on the question of African literature and its criticism. The fourteen essays range from a variety of critical and theoretical perspectives covering the theoretical and ideological aspects of the language question, the nature of criticism, the influence of the oral tradition, critical analysis of mother tongue literature and textual analyses.
