Encountering God Rabbi Lawrence A. Hoffman, PhD, 2016-07-26 It is time to recover rabbinic lessons of late antiquity God is a God of grace and love human beings can aspire to goodness and promise on Yom Kippur the two of them meet God s love energizes human potential and the world is reborn with hope restored The God of Jewish tradition is far from the strict God of justice commonly understood to be the God of the Hebrew Bible God s self introduction to Moses atop Mount Sinai does indeed conclude with the image of punishment throughout the generations but begins with God merciful and gracious the imagery that finds its way into rabbinic liturgy and lore as solely the God of grace and compassion pardon and love To arrive at this selective perception of biblical tradition the Rabbis of the Talmud deliberately misread the biblical text and then fashioned a myth of God who dresses up as a leader of prayer and promises pardon if Israel will only repeat these merciful attributes as part of its prayer ritual on that day Ever since the Thirteen Attributes as the list comes to be known becomes central to Jewish prayer accompanying the liturgy for holidays generally and framing the opening and closing services of the holiest day in the Jewish year Yom Kippur the Day of Judgment itself In this seventh volume in the Prayers of Awe Series contributors men and women rabbis and laypeople scholars and artists from across the spectrum of Jewish life and representing the US Israel the UK Germany France Canada and Australia chart the importance of these Thirteen Attributes of God They explore the kind of God Jews meet in prayer and the consequent self reflection about the human condition that Judaism recommends on the basis of its idealized image of God as above all merciful and gracious
