Not for Ourselves Alone Lauri Hallman, Burton D. Carley, 2014 These twelve essays from Unitarian Universalist leaders emerge as part of a movement in the faith from focusing on individual identity to relational connectedness Through personal stories and thoughtful reflections the contributors describe how we might grow our souls through our connections with one another and with the Holy They invite us to move beyond the age old theological question Who am I and ask instead

Whose are we This new emphasis suggests that we are all part of something larger something that both includes us and transcends us Group exercises and journaling prompts accompany the essays making this an ideal resource for use in congregational settings or small gatherings Helping us to be more vulnerable with one another and to express things not easily defined in precise ways Not for Ourselves Alone offers fertile new ways for Unitarian Universalists to grow in the life of the spirit

A Call to Conscience Roger Craft Peace, 2012 Unlike earlier U S interventions in Latin America the Reagan administration's attempt to overthrow the Sandinista government of Nicaragua during the 1980s was not allowed to proceed quietly Tens of thousands of American citizens organized and agitated against U S aid to the counterrevolutionary guerrillas known as contras Believing the Contra War to be unnecessary immoral and illegal they challenged the administration's Cold War stereotypes warned of another Vietnam and called on the United States to abide by international norms A Call to Conscience offers the first comprehensive history of the anti Contra War campaign and its Nicaragua connections Roger Peace places this eight year campaign in the context of previous American interventions in Latin America the Cold War and other grassroots oppositional movements Based on interviews with American and Nicaraguan citizens and leaders archival records of activist organizations and official government documents this book reveals activist motivations analyzes the organizational dynamics of the anti Contra War campaign and contrasts perceptions of the campaign in Managua and Washington Peace shows how a variety of civic groups and networks religious leftist peace veteran labor women's rights worked together in a decentralized campaign that involved extensive transnational cooperation

Bringing the World into Focus Michel Listenberger OD FVI, 2017-04-24 This is a story of struggle and triumph as visionaries overcome barriers to bring sight to others who cannot see The joys and tears of volunteers are shared in stories of what drives their passions toward a life changing cause giving the gift of sight Bringing the World into Focus is about Volunteer Optometric Services to Humanity from its beginnings in Kansas when two pilots flew their private planes to Mexico to its global outreach today of eighty one chapters and five thousand members providing eye care around the world

Volunteer Tales Savita Bailur, Helen Grant, 2003 During the last night at Boca de Tomates a violent tropical storm raged across the coast stampeding through the camp and devastating our home We watched in awe as the already slanting structure swayed precariously around us as chunks of the roof flew off into the sky and as a nearby palm tree was struck by lightning Our comfortable Brighton flat and the once ubiquitous chatter of house prices and internet millionaires seemed a world away A great number of people consider volunteering at some point in their life and this is a nuts and bolts guide to volunteering full of honest accounts from the people who know These are true life accounts from people of all walks of life and ages who decided to leave their normal lives behind to take up the volunteer challenge overseas Their stories include tales of travel and adventure tales of hardship tales of kindness frustration and humour Reading them you too will experience culture shock in Ghana the fear of war in Sierra Leone helplessness in the face of poverty in Cambodia fishing for piranha in Suriname the struggles of an outsider in China and much much more They will open your eyes to new worlds and may even change your outlook in the ways they changed the volunteers Volunteer Tales will appeal to those who have already volunteered abroad or are considering it It can be comforting and interesting to know that others have gone through similar experiences and in the latter case extremely useful to know what it would be like Each contribution has something different to offer and is particularly fascinating for anyone wanting to know the reality of a country they may intend to visit However these stories will also be enjoyed by readers with no interest in becoming a volunteer at all They provide entertaining humorous reading brimming with memories from life on the road New Times ,1989-05 Holocaust to Resistance, My Journey Suzanne Berliner Weiss,2019-11-13T00:00:00Z Holocaust to Resistance My Journey is a powerful awe inspiring memoir from author and activist Suzanne Berliner Weiss Born to Jewish parents in Paris in 1941 Suzanne was hidden from the Nazis on a farm in rural France Alone after the war she lived in progressive run orphanages where she gained a belief in peace and brotherhood Adoption by a New York family led to a tumultuous youth haunted by domestic conflict fear of nuclear war and anti communist repression consignment to a detention home and magical steps toward relinking with her origins in Europe At age seventeen Suzanne became a lifelong social activist engaged in student radicalization the Cuban Revolution and movements for Black Power women s liberation peace in Vietnam and freedom for Palestine Now nearing eighty Suzanne tells how the ties of friendship solidarity and resistance that saved her as a child speak to the needs of our planet today Global City-Twinning in the Digital Age Michel S Laguerre,2019-12-18 For many years cities throughout the globe have developed ties with each other to process and nurture friendship solidarity and collaboration These city relationships constitute a mode of governance distinct from those of cities that are not involved in such cross border arrangements with influence that expands far beyond region In this light Global City Twinning in the Digital Age unveils an analysis of intercity relationships both on a global scale and as a global phenomenon with digital communication technologies that play key roles in upgrading traditional practices enhancing cross border cooperation and facilitating the production of digital sister cities This book analyzes the deployment of sister city formations and operations throughout the world with a focus on cities of North America Latin America North Africa Europe and the Mediterranean region Using a global approach it discusses friendship entrepreneurship urban development cooperative management municipal policy and digital entanglements It expands the scope of study of sister cities by unveiling the role of immigrants diaspora and post diaspora in the making and functioning of the digital model of sister cities Congressional Record United States. Congress,1993 Mother Jones Magazine ,1986-12 Mother Jones is an award winning national magazine widely respected for its groundbreaking investigative reporting and coverage of sustainability and environmental issues Old Gimlet Eye Lowell Thomas,2020-02-25 Old Gimlet Eye first published in 1933 is the biography of U S Marine Corps legend Smedley Butler 1881 1940 Butler who at the time of his death was the most decorated Marine in U S History joined the Marines at age 16 and took part in military actions in the Philippines China Central America Mexico Cuba and France in World War I The book ends with Butler s retirement in 1931 but he would go on to become a leading critic against the unbridled power of monied interests in the United States and their use of the military to achieve their own selfish ends Author and journalist Lowell Thomas tells the story of Smedley in the first person and includes both the serious and lighthearted moments of Smedley s long service making for an enjoyable reading experience State, foreign operations, and related programs appropriations for 2009 United States.
