Why Are All the Black Kids Sitting Together in the Cafeteria? Beverly Daniel Tatum,2017-09-05 The classic New York Times bestselling book on the psychology of racism that shows us how to talk about race in America Walk into any racially mixed high school and you will see Black White and Latino youth clustered in their own groups Is this self segregation a problem to address or a coping strategy How can we get past our reluctance to discuss racial issues Beverly Daniel Tatum a renowned authority on the psychology of racism argues that straight talk about our racial identities is essential if we are serious about communicating across racial and ethnic divides and pursuing antiracism These topics have only become more urgent as the national conversation about race is increasingly acrimonious This fully revised edition is essential reading for anyone seeking to understand dynamics of race and racial inequality in America

Interracial Intimacies Randall Kennedy,2004-01-06 With the same piercing intelligence as the bestselling Say it Loud Interracial Intimacies hits a nerve at the center of American society race relations and our most intimate ties to each other The best book written on the subject an exhaustive source of deep rich scholarship and surefooted brilliant analysis Seattle Times Analyzing the tremendous changes in the history of America s racial dynamics Randall Kennedy challenges us to examine how prejudices and biases still fuel fears and inform our sexual marital and family choices He takes us from the injustices of the slave era up to present day battles over race matching adoption policies which seek to pair children with adults of the same race He tackles such subjects as the presence of sex in racial politics the historic role of legal institutions in policing racial boundaries and the real and imagined pleasures that have attended interracial intimacy A bracing much needed look at the way we have lived in the past Interracial Intimacies is also a hopeful book offering a potent vision of our future as a multiracial democracy

Raising Mixed Race Sharon Chang,2015-12-11 Research continues to uncover early childhood as a crucial time when we set the stage for who we will become In the last decade we have also seen a sudden massive shift in America s racial makeup with the majority of the current under 5 age population being children of color Asian and multiracial are the fastest growing self identified groups in the United States More than 2 million people indicated being mixed race Asian on the 2010 Census Yet young multiracial Asian children are vastly underrepresented in the literature on racial identity Why And what are these children learning about themselves in an era that tries to be ahistorical believes the race problem has been solved and that mixed race people are proof of it This book is drawn from extensive research and interviews with sixty eight parents of multiracial children It is the first to examine the complex task of supporting our youngest around being two or more races and Asian while living amongst post racial ideologies      Embodiment and Representations of Beauty Esther Hernández-Medina, Sharina Maíllo-Pozo, 2024-09-06 Interrogating beauty's very definition this volume of Advances in Gender Research explores beauty as an avenue to create alternative knowledge as well as a conduit to engage in critical conversations on race ethnicity gender sexuality illness and fitness      Adoption Beyond Borders Rebecca J. Compton, 2016-02-01 International adoptions have decreased dramatically in the last decade despite robust evidence of the tremendous benefits that early placement in adoptive families can confer upon children who are not able to remain with birth families Adoption Beyond Borders integrates evidence from a range of disciplines in the social and biological sciences including psychology neuroscience evolutionary biology sociology anthropology and social work to provide a ringing endorsement of international adoption as a viable child welfare option The author interweaves narrative accounts of her own adoption journey which involved visiting a Kazakhstani orphanage daily for nearly a year to illustrate the complexities and implications of the research evidence Topics include the effects of institutionalization on children's developing brains cognitive abilities and socio emotional functioning the challenges of navigating issues of identity when adopting across national cultural and racial lines the strong emotional bonds that form even without genetic relatedness and the methods in which adoptive families can address the special needs of children who experienced early neglect and deprivation thereby providing a supportive environment in which those children can flourish Striving to attain a balanced evidence based perspective on controversial issues Adoption Beyond Borders argues that international adoption must be maintained and supported as a vital means of promoting international child welfare      Critical Acting Pedagogy Lisa Peck, Evi Stamatiou, 2024-08-01 Critical Acting Pedagogy: Intersectional Approaches invites readers to think about pedagogy in actor training as a research field in its own right to sit with the complex challenges risks and rewards of the acting studio to recognise the shared vulnerability courage and love that defines our field and underpins our practices This collection of chapters from a diverse group of acting teachers at different points in their careers working in conservatoires and universities illuminates current developments in decolonising studios to foreground multiple and intersecting identities in the pedagogic exchange In acknowledging how their positionality affects their practices and materials 20 acting teachers from the United Kingdom the United States Europe and Oceania offer practical tools for the social justice acting classroom with rich insights for developing critical acting pedagogies Authors test and develop research approaches drawn from social sciences to tackle dominant ideologies in organisation curriculum and methodologies of actor training This collection frames current efforts to promote equality diversity and inclusivity in the studio It contributes to the collective movement to improve current educational practice in acting prioritising well being and centering the student experience      The Story of 'M' SuAndi, 2017-02-01 The Story of M is a solo performance that integrates visual projections and poetic language to portray autobiographical stories of racism poverty and sacrifice While sitting in a white screened hospital ward and as slides of family photographs flash all around her SuAndi travels from the multi racial Liverpool of the 1920s to life in Britain in the mid nineties Commissioned by the Institute for Contemporary Arts in 1995 The Story of M has received great critical acclaim in both the United States and Great Britain The Story of M is SuAndi s moving tribute to the life and death of her mother who raised her children in the face of frequent racism 1960s but never let them forget they were of African descent and to be proud of their heritages The Story of M is on the new A levels English Literature syllabus with a Black British list offered by EdExcel Examination Board 2017 Harlem Renaissance Lives from the African American National Biography Henry Louis Gates (Jr.), Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham, 2009 The Harlem Renaissance is the best known and most widely studied cultural movement in African American history Now in Harlem Renaissance Lives esteemed scholars Henry Louis Gates Jr and Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham have selected 300 key biographical entries culled from the eight volume African American National Biography providing an authoritative who s who of this seminal period Here readers will find engagingly written and authoritative articles on notable African Americans who made significant contributions to literature drama music visual art or dance including such central figures as poet Langston Hughes novelist Zora Neale Hurston aviator Bessie Coleman blues singer Ma Rainey artist Romare Bearden dancer Josephine Baker jazzman Louis Armstrong and the intellectual giant W E B Du Bois Also included are biographies of people like the Scottsboro Boys who were not active within the movement but who nonetheless profoundly affected the artistic and political statements that came from Harlem Renaissance figures The volume will also feature a preface by the editors an introductory essay by historian Cary D Wintz and 75 illustrations

Life Lines: Writing Transcultural Adoption John McLeod, 2015-10-22 Adoptions that cross the lines of culture race and nation are a major consequence of conflicts around the globe yet their histories and representations have rarely been considered Life Lines Writing Transcultural Adoption is the first critical study to explore narratives of transcultural adoption from contemporary Britain Ireland and America fictions films and memoirs made by those within the adoption triad or those concerned with the pain and possibilities of transcultural adoption While acknowledging the sobering inequalities which engender transcultural adoptions and the lasting upset of sundered relations at the same time John McLeod considers the transfigurative and creative propensity of imagining transcultural adoption as radically calling into question ideas of biogenetic attachment racial genealogy cultural identity and normative family making How might the predicament of being adopted transculturally enable the transformative agency of adoptive being for all Exploring works by Andrea Levy Barbara Kingsolver Toni Morrison Sebastian Barry Caryl Phillips Jackie Kay and several others Life Lines makes a groundbreaking intervention in such fields as transcultural studies postcolonial thought and adoption theory and practice

The Color Factor Howard Bodenhorn, 2015-05-01 Despite the many advances that the United States has made in racial equality over the past half century numerous events within the past several years have proven prejudice to be alive and well in modern day America In one such example Governor Nikki Haley of South Carolina dismissed one of her principal advisors in 2013 when his membership in the ultra conservative Council of Conservative Citizens CCC came to light According to the Southern Poverty Law Center in 2001 the CCC website included a message that read God is the one who divided mankind into different races Mixing the races is rebelliousness against God This episode reveals America s continuing struggle with race racial integration and race mixing a problem that has plagued the United States since its earliest days as a nation The Color Factor The Economics of African American Well Being in the Nineteenth Century South demonstrates that the emergent twenty first century recognition of race mixing and the relative advantages of light skinned mixed race people represent a re emergence of one salient feature of race in America that dates to its founding Economist Howard Bodenhorn presents the first full length study of the ways in which skin color intersected with policy society and economy in the nineteenth century South With empirical and statistical rigor the investigation confirms that individuals of mixed race experienced advantages over African Americans in multiple dimensions in occupations family formation and family size wealth health and access to freedom among other criteria The Color Factor concludes that we will not really understand race until we understand how American attitudes toward race were shaped by race mixing The text is an ideal resource for students social scientists and historians and anyone hoping to gain a deeper understanding of the historical roots of modern race dynamics in America     The African American National Biography: Uggams-Zuber Henry Louis Gates (Jr.), Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham, 2008 An 8 volume reference set containing over 4 000 entries written by distinguished scholars The African American National Biography is the most significant and expansive compilation of black lives in print today     Centering Women of Color in Academic Counterspaces Annemarie Vaccaro, Melissa J. Camba-Kelsay, 2016-09-14 Centering Women of Color in Academic Counterspaces offers a rich critical race feminist analysis of teaching learning and classroom dynamics among diverse students in a classroom counterspace centered on women of color Annemarie Vaccaro and Melissa J Camba Kelsay focus on an undergraduate course called Sister Stories which used counter storytelling to explore the historical and contemporary experiences of women of color in the United States Rich student narratives offer insight into the process and products of transformational learning about complex social justice topics such as oppression microaggressions identity intersectionality tokenism objectification inclusive leadership aesthetic standards and diversity dialogues     Rock and Roll, Desegregation Movements, and Racism in the Post-Civil Rights Era Beth Fowler, 2022-04-27 The rock and roll music that dominated airwaves across the country during the 1950s and early 1960s is often described as a triumph for integration Black and white musicians alike including Chuck Berry Little Richard Elvis Presley and Jerry Lee Lewis scored hit records with young audiences from different racial groups blending sonic traditions from R B country and pop This so called desegregation of the charts seemed particularly resonant since major civil rights groups were waging major battles for desegregation in public places at the same time And yet the centering of integration as well as the supposition that democratic rights largely based in consumerism should be available to everyone regardless of race has resulted in very distinct responses to both music and movement among Black and white listeners who grew up during this period Rock and Roll Desegregation Movements and Racism in the Post Civil Rights Era An Integrated Effort traces these distinctions using archival research musical performances and original oral histories to determine the uncertain legacies of the civil rights movement and early rock and roll music in a supposedly post civil rights era Ann: A Story of Intolerance John Moehl, 2019-03-22 Ann may have been a product of her times she was certainly if possibly unwittingly a product of her grandmother Isabelle While Ann may have been molded by external forces Isabelle was a force unto herself a pacesetter an indomitable woman of her times Isabelle forged avenues that were often not taken by women of her day even foreshadowing changes in perception that were still years away Yet in spite of her often avant garde actions her prejudices were unwavering and largely myopic While Isabelle s single mindedness was mimicked even magnified by her granddaughter Ann would never acknowledge that she was her grandmother s facsimile She believed she was her own woman and headed to the top Ann was a manipulator and a schemer Sadly Ann left very little good in her wake The lives of Ann and Isabelle touched many dragging some under pushing others aside and overpowering those close to them Their lives served as textbook cases of bigotry and discrimination that are warnings that tolerance and acceptance are key to our social fabric Ebony, 1985-09 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Staging British South Asian Culture Jerri Daboo, 2017-11-28 Staging British South Asian Culture Bollywood and Bhangra in British Theatre looks afresh at the popularity of forms and aesthetics from Bollywood films and bhangra music and dance on the British stage From Andrew Lloyd Webber s Bombay Dreams to the finals of Britain s Got Talent Jerri Daboo reconsiders the centrality of Bollywood and bhangra to theatre made for or about British South Asian communities Addressing rarely discussed theatre companies such as Rifco and phenomena such as the emergence of large scale Bollywood revue performances this volume goes some way towards remedying the lack of critical discourse around British South Asian theatre A timely contribution to this growing field Staging British South Asian Culture is essential reading for any scholar or student interested in exploring the highly contested questions of identity and representation for British South Asian communities The Colour of Class Nicola Rollock, David Gillborn, Carol Vincent, Stephen J. Ball, 2014-11-13 How do race and class intersect to shape the identities and experiences of Black middle class parents and their children What are Black middle class parents strategies for supporting their children through school What role do the educational histories of Black middle class parents play in their decision making about their children s education There is now an extensive body of research on the educational strategies of the white middle classes but a silence exists around the emergence of the Black middle classes and their experiences priorities and actions in relation to education This book focuses on middle class families of Black Caribbean heritage Drawing on rich qualitative data from nearly 80 in depth interviews with Black Caribbean middle class parents the internationally renowned contributors reveal how these parents attempt to navigate their children successfully through the school system and defend them against low expectations and other manifestations of discrimination. Chapters identify when how and to what extent parents deploy the financial cultural and social resources available to them as professional middle class individuals in support of their children's academic success and emotional well being. The book sheds light on the complex and relatively neglected relations between race social class and education and in addition poses wider questions about the experiences of social mobility and the intersection of race and class in forming the identity of the parents and their children.

The Colour of Class The educational strategies of the Black middle classes will appeal to undergraduates and postgraduates on education sociology and social policy courses as well as academics with an interest in Critical Race Theory and Bourdieu.

The Colour of Class was awarded 2nd prize by the Society for Educational Studies Book Prize 2016.

Race and Racialization Tania Das Gupta, 2007 This provocative volume will influence the way people think of race and racialization. It provides a thorough examination of these complex and intriguing subjects with historical comparative and international contributions. Edited as a theoretically strong cohesive whole this book unites a remarkable ensemble of academic thinkers and writers from a diversity of backgrounds. Themes of ethnocentrism cultural genocide conquest and colonization disease and pandemics slavery and the social construction of racism run throughout.

Revisiting Childhood Resilience Through Marginalised and Displaced Voices Wendy Sims-Schouten, 2025-02-11 Despite many decades of research into childhood resilience it remains a contentious area with much still left to be resolved. Key terms are poorly defined positioning marginalised and displaced children as objects rather than co producers of knowledge. Research and practice frame resilience through individualised models of health and abnormality. These models emphasise individual responsibility over systemic oppression ignoring personal marginalised voices and experiences and the contribution of appropriate needs based assistance. Resilience needs rethinking.

Revisiting Childhood Resilience Through Marginalised and Displaced Voices uses an interdisciplinary approach to challenge current childhood resilience research and practice. The culmination of ten years of research and publications around childhood resilience the book draws upon data collected from and co produced with children young people and adults from marginalised disadvantaged and displaced communities. In so doing it highlights the transformative potential of stories told by marginalised and displaced children past and present. When these narratives are prioritised they disrupt counter and draw critical attention to coping strategies in light of adversity and oppression to inform creative research and policymaking.

Centralising the voices of care leavers young people who are bullied members from minority ethnic communities and former migrants refugees among others Wendy Sims Schouten shines a light on 150 years of marginalised voices and experiences in relation to resilience.

Praise for Revisiting Childhood Resilience Through Marginalised and Displaced Voices This thought provoking book revisits the concept of resilience through close interpretation of the moving stories told by marginalised children and adults across time shining new light on the rebellious resistant ones so often dismissed as dangerous or deviant A must read Helen Cowie University of Surrey Listening to the stories of marginalised people empowers their voices and gives a very rich multifaceted and critically innovative perspective which can reshape how we understand oppression and exclusion Especially this liberating book shows how conventional discussions of individual resilience can obscure the social and cultural processes we need to understand Helen Haste University of Bath Adopting an intriguing and eclectic perspective of resilience in understudied samples this is a rare book that challenges the status quo A must read for anyone seeking to gain unique insight into the concept of resilience Nora Wium University of Bergen
