Assignment L. L. Zimmerman, 2006 Master of the Estate is a riveting and suspenseful imbroglio of intrigues, characters and literary traditions all evolving around the search for possession of an ancient Egyptian scarab and a treasure believed to be buried somewhere on the Sanchez estate. This gothic mansion outside New Orleans, Louisiana, is surrounded by a swamp haunted by treasure hunters who seek to cancel each other out and a mysterious creature from out of space and time. The protagonist of the story, predestined to host the ancient amulet, is a former heroin addict whom we first see in Atlanta in an abandoned house that he calls his. The joy of his first addiction-free day is shattered by shootings of rival cutthroats that rattle his dwelling. The text enacts a historical archaeology that takes the reader from the post-Civil Rights era in America to ancient Egyptian civilization. This brilliantly told story also stages a palimpsest of literary paradigms including magical realism, postmodernism, the detective story in which Worthy would be the action hero, and the picaresque novel. To cite only a few: Furthermore, the narrator deftly cites the works of William Shakespeare, John Milton, Francis Bacon, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Frederick Douglass, Booker T. Washington, W. E. B. Du Bois, Marcus Garvey, and many others. The Survey, 1906
