Colorado Abstract Paintings And Sculpture:

Colorado Abstract Michael Paglia, Mary Voelz Chandler, 2009 by individual essays by Chandler spotlighting the careers of more than fifty artists currently creating abstract works in Colorado Book Jacket Midcentury Modern Art in Texas Katie Robinson Edwards, 2014-07-01 Before Abstract Expressionism of New York City was canonized as American postwar modernism the United States was filled with localized manifestations of modern art One such place where considerable modernist activity occurred was Texas where artists absorbed and interpreted the latest most radical formal lessons from Mexico the East Coast and Europe while still responding to the state's dramatic history and geography This barely known chapter in the story of American art is the focus of Midcentury Modern Art in Texas Presenting new research and artwork that has never before been published Katie Robinson Edwards examines the contributions of many modernist painters and sculptors in Texas with an emphasis on the era's most abstract and compelling artists Edwards looks first at the Dallas Nine and the 1936 Texas Centennial which offered local artists a chance to take stock of who they were and where they stood within the national artistic setting She then traces the modernist impulse through various manifestations including the foundations of early Texas modernism in Houston early practitioners of abstraction and non objectivity the Fort Worth Circle artists at the University of Texas at Austin Houston artists in the 1950s sculpture in and around an influential Fort Worth studio and to see how some Texas artists fared on a national scale the Museum of Modern Art's Americans exhibitions The first full length treatment of abstract art in Texas during this vital and canon defining period Midcentury Modern Art in Texas gives these artists their due place in American art while also valuing the quality of Texan-ness that subtly undergirds much of their production The Art of Richard Diebenkorn Jane Livingston, Richard Diebenkorn, John Elderfield, Ruth Fine, Whitney Museum of American Art, 1997 Recognized as a major figure in postwar American painting Richard Diebenkorn 1922 1993 was an artist strongly identified with California Published to coincide with the first retrospective of Diebenkorn's work since his death this catalog is the most comprehensive volume on the artist now available 192 color illustrations

Martinez Celaya Enrique Martínez Celaya, Daniel A. Siedell, 2006 Distributed by the University of Nebraska Press for Whale and Star Press Enrique Martínez Celaya's aesthetic project revives and reinterprets the classic Western metaphysical tradition relating aesthetics to ethics the Beautiful to the Good and the True His work embodies his belief that being a certain kind of artist means being a certain kind of person and that in and through art he gains clarity about himself and his relationship to the world His project is thus profoundly ethical and in important ways spiritual Through art Martínez Celaya reconciles himself to the world as he reconciles his past with his present and projects his future This volume also participates in the process of reconciliation and projection by interpreting his work through the series cycles and projects which include painting sculpture photographs poetry and prose that have defined it since the mid 1990s Curator of the Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery Daniel A Siedell has worked with Martínez Celaya on several projects and offers a radical commentary on his work arguing that Martinez Celaya's ambitious aesthetic project is best understood as an embodiment of a religious Weltanschauung and as a search for that most elusive of religious virtues hope. The complex cohesion of Martinez Celaya's work is further explored by other writers who by placing it in different contexts reveal their own distinctive engagement with it. Art critic Thomas McEvilley, a philologist who writes about art philosophy and religion, explores how Martinez Celaya has combined Germanic feeling with a surrealist plastic vocabulary to present a world. Literary critic and Paul Celan scholar John Felstiner traces the contours of an aesthetic lineage that includes Goya, Eliot, Celan, and Beethoven. Former Washington Post journalist and Hollywood producer and writer Christian Williams adopts the conventional artist's chronology to craft a powerful account of Martinez Celaya's life which has become intimately entwined with his own.
