Comcast High Speed Internet:

FCC Record United States. Federal Communications Commission,2018 The Future of the Internet United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation,2012 , Captive Audience Susan Crawford,2013-01-08 Ten years ago the United States stood at the forefront of the Internet revolution With some of the fastest speeds and lowest prices in the world for high speed Internet access the nation was poised to be the global leader in the new knowledge based economy Today that global competitive advantage has all but vanished because of a series of government decisions and resulting monopolies that have allowed dozens of countries including Japan and South Korea to pass us in both speed and price of broadband This steady slide backward not only deprives consumers of vital services needed in a competitive employment and business market it also threatens the economic future of the nation This important book by leading telecommunications policy expert Susan Crawford explores why Americans are now paying much more but getting much less when it comes to high speed Internet access Using the 2011 merger between Comcast and NBC Universal as a lens Crawford examines how we have created the biggest monopoly since the breakup of Standard Oil a century ago In the clearest terms this book explores how telecommunications monopolies have affected the daily lives of consumers and America s global economic standing Global Experience Industries Jens Christensen,2009-08-30 The experience economy is a fourth economic field different from commodities goods and services Experiences are an economic value added to a product or identical with the product When you buy an experience you pay to spend time enjoying a series of memorable events that a company stages to engage the customer in a personal way The experience dimension has moved into a predominant place since the 1990s fueled by an expanding global and digital economy In developed countries people get richer and more individualized and having met all basic materiel needs they focus increasingly on personal development and self realization Demand for experience based products increases such as tourism and sports as well as film music and other contents of media and interactive technologies Furthermore the demand for experience values is extended to include any product and dimension of modern societies such as the design of houses furniture clothes cars computers etc This is not a completely new story Commercial entertainment and design has been around for a century or so And in addition universal values of love sex belief family and the meaning of life have always been vital to human beings What is new is the fact that capitalism is invading more and more fields of experiences connected with emotions and the extension of life proportions In all developed countries and increasingly on a global scale a series of expanding industries have emerged to supply the market with experience oriented goods In this book the business development of markets and industries is covered from tourism to media and entertainment and from design to sex including leading companies and trends in all industries involved

Unlocking the Customer Value Chain Thales S. Teixeira, Greg Piechota, 2019-02-19 Based on eight years of research visiting dozens of startups tech companies and incumbents Harvard Business School professor Thales Teixeira shows how and why consumer industries are disrupted and what established companies can do about it while highlighting the specific strategies potential startups use to gain a competitive edge There is a pattern to digital disruption in an industry whether the disruptor is Uber Airbnb Dollar Shave Club Pillpack or one of countless other startups that have stolen large portions of market share from industry leaders often in a matter of a few years As Teixeira makes clear the nature of competition has fundamentally changed Using innovative new business models startups are stealing customers by breaking the links in how consumers discover buy and use products and services By decoupling the customer value chain these startups instead of taking on the Unilevers and Nikes BMW s and Sephoras of the world head on peel away a piece of the consumer purchasing process Birchbox offered women a new way to sample beauty products from a variety of companies from the convenience of their homes without having to visit a store Turo doesn't compete with GM Instead it offers people the benefit of driving without having to own a car themselves Illustrated with vivid indepth and exclusive accounts of both startups and reigning incumbents like Best Buy and Comcast as they struggle to respond Unlocking the Customer Value Chain is an essential guide to demystifying how digital disruption takes place and what companies can do to defend themselves
